GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

The divisiveness we see in our nation and our world is not new - it is rooted in our original sin. In the Old Testament, the Assyrians invaded the northern kingdom of Israel, forcing many of its citizens into exile and captivity. In the modern world, Russia invades Ukraine and millions of refugees flee. It seems as if this 2200-year-old adage is true: "Nothing is new under the sun!" (Eccl 1:9) Except for Jesus. Of him God says [spoiler for next week!], "Behold I make all things new." (Rev 21:5) As we hear in today's first reading, conflict between Jews and Gentiles forced Paul and Barnabas to leave Antioch. In contrast, John in Revelation envisions a world where "every nation, race, people, and tongue" stand before the Lord. For us as for them, Jesus is the path to the unity we desire. That's not to gloss over real differences and even worse, the horror of war. However, it can be a reminder that no matter what else we do, we need to turn to the Lord first in prayer, asking him to guide us in our response; asking the Holy Spirit to help us see people of all nations, and indeed our very own neighbors, as our brothers and sisters.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Judging by the volume wars during our family television sessions, it seems that people have varying levels of ability to hear certain accents and types of voices. I wonder if this capacity to hear properly, or with the necessary level of attention, can sometimes apply to our ability to hear, really hear, the words of Jesus. Perhaps we're too busy, or other preoccupations crowd out his voice. Today's Gospel reminds us to tune back in. "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me," Jesus says. In the first reading, Luke describes the Gentiles who lived in Antioch and were "delighted" in hearing the Good News of salvation and who "glorified the word of the Lord," spreading it "through the whole region." Today and every day, we can emulate the early Christians by opening our ears (or eyes!) to the word of God through the Scriptures, and in turn sharing that light of salvation to all who need it.

Thought of the week

Saint quote ...

*"Listen in silence, because if your heart is full of other things, you cannot hear the voice of God."
- St. Mother Teresa*

Greetings from Fr. Jacob Varughese, the new Associate Pastor

I am Fr. Jacob Varughese born on 25th May 1975 . I am from India, Kerala and my father is Mr. Varughese Abraham and my mother is Mrs. Mariamma Varughese. I have two brothers and three sisters. My father was a lay apostle and his duty was to visit the various parishes and proclaim the word of God and my mother is a house wife.

I was ordained as a priest on November 24th 2004 after my theological and philosophical studies in Pune. My first appointment was as house minister in Trivandrum Kerala for six months and I was asked by the provincial to go and serve the community in West Bengal, North India. There I served as Pastor of the parish and served as the Vice Principal in the school. During this time, I completed my Masters in Public Administration. I came back to Kerala and I was appointed as Pastor of three parishes there. During this time, I completed my studies in Bachelor in Education. After three years in this parish, I was appointed as the Principal of Mar Ivanios Bethany School and Pastor of another parish near to the school. During this period, I completed my Masters in Social Science. After two years in the school, I was asked to take charge as Administrator of Bethany College of Education, Bethany Navajeevan Matriculation School and Bethany Navajeevan CBSE School in Tamil Nadu. During this period, I completed my Masters in Education. From there I was elected as the Chief Finance Officer of the Bethany Navajeevan Province and I served in that post for six years continuously. My term as Chief Finance Officer ended in 2021. I was then appointed as the Administrator of Mount Bethany School in Kerala till April 15, 2022. From April 20, 2022 I am now appointed as the Associate Pastor in St. Ignatius of Loyola Church, Hicksville.

The most precious gift one can get in this world is a loving mother. Mother is more than a word. She is an emotion characterized by never ending love and care. There are no words that can fully express a mother's love. She is the most powerful and amazing person one can ever have.

The Bible has lots to say about the role and traits of mothers and familial love. Prophet Isaiah says "As one whom his mother comforts so I will comfort you" (Isaiah 66:13). The book of Proverbs speaks about a mother "she opens her mouth with wisdom and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue" (Proverbs 31:26). Edwin Chapin said that "No language can express the power, heroism and majesty of a mother's love."

All the religions in this world command to their followers to recognize the contribution of mothers to their families and to their children as well as to the humanity. In Hinduism, mother is the one person who is most glorified and considered worthy of respect and service. No doubt, she is created with the qualities such as love, sacrifice, forbearance and selfless service to her children.

Today when we celebrate Mother's Day, let us thank our mothers and pray for them. We can't explain the role of our mother in our life. In each and every moment we can feel the love and care of our mothers. They not only gave us birth but nursed us, nurtured us and trained us to be good human beings in this world. She gives her hands to us when we fall in our steps. We should remember all our mothers, whether they are alive or have gone to their eternal reward.

On the cross, Jesus gave us a precious gift – Mother Mary – our Heavenly Mother. "When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple there whom he loved, he said to his mother, 'woman, behold your son.' Then he said to the disciple, 'behold your mother'" (Jn 19:25-26). Pope John Paul II remarked that if you want to study the ways of Christian life, you should study it from Mother Mary.

On this Mother's Day, let us sing the beautiful song we sing on the feast day of The Presentation: "Gentle woman, peaceful dove, teach us wisdom, teach us love."

One Minute Meditations

Your turn

No parish can do the work of the Church without support from parishioners. For example, parishioners may bring Communion to the sick or infirm, clean the church, staff parish ministries, teach faith formation and give money to keep church facilities operating. It is this vital participation that brings the heart of Jesus to His people. Ask your pastor what your parish needs from you.

Sunday reminder

The Church requires that Catholics participate in Mass on Sunday and other holy days of obligation. It's the best way we regularly encounter Christ. We are also to abstain from work on Sunday that could interfere with the attention and worship due to God. God wants us to rest on Sunday to gather strength for the week ahead.

"Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with brotherly affection; outdo one another in showing honor" (Romans 12:9-10).

Virtues are the antidotes to sin

Virtues are good moral habits that shape our hearts to be like God's. They help us habitually do what is good. As the building blocks for Christian moral living, virtues help to counter sin. For example:

Humility: This virtue is the antidote to pride. Humility helps us to recognize that God is worthy of our worship and obedience. Rather than focusing on ourselves, humility helps us to be willing to focus on God, live according to His ways. Ideas for practicing this virtue include always taking the less important position, drawing attention to others rather than ourselves, learning to love simple things.

Forgiveness: The sin of anger is defined as an uncontrolled feeling of hatred and wrath. Indulging in anger causes us to hold onto hateful feelings for others. The antidote is forgiveness. When offended by someone, forgive quickly and work to heal the relationship. Refrain from gossip and avoid criticizing unless you can offer reasonable and useful solutions.

Gratitude and generosity go hand-in-hand. They remind us God is the source of all good, and that everything good we have is a gift to be enjoyed and shared. Stop the "compare-despair" cycle of envy and greed. Limit your time on social media and impulse shopping. Name something you appreciate daily, or find a way to show kindness each day.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics call the Eucharist the "Real Presence"?

At the Last Supper, Jesus said, "This is my body...this is the cup of my blood" (Matthew 26:26-28) over the bread and wine, and so it was. He commanded His Apostles, and the priests after them, to do the same at every Mass (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #1375). When we receive Communion, we're literally heart-to-Heart with Jesus. The details are a mystery, but that doesn't stop Jesus from coming to us, Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Eucharist.

“Behold your mother” (John 19:27)

On the Cross, Jesus gave us everything, including His mother to be our mother (John 19:27). We don’t worship Mary because she isn’t God but we do give her special honor in imitation of Jesus’ love for her (Luke 2:51). We can:

Call her “Mom.” When we are baptized into the Church, Mary becomes our mother by grace (CCC #967), and we can address her with confidence and affection as her children. Mary wants the best for us. She always leads us to her Son by the quickest and safest route.

Learn from her. Want to know how to follow Christ faithfully – daily? Mary was the first – and the perfect – Christian. She continually trusted God and followed His will, and tells us, “Do whatever he tells you” (John 2:5).

Ask her for prayers. Christ is the one Mediator (1 Timothy 2:5). However, she also receives our prayers for others. Because she is His mother and the Queen of Heaven, Mary’s prayers are powerful. She will keep praying for us until we are in Heaven.

Luke 24:46-53, Our mission from God

This passage is Luke’s version of the Ascension when Jesus ascends to His Father in Heaven. Jesus gave his disciples a mission before entering Heaven. First, He reminded them that His suffering, death, and Resurrection were part of God’s plan. These events, called the Paschal Mystery, are so important we recall them at every Mass.

Then, Jesus sent His disciples out to call others to repentance and discipleship. Having heard about Christ’s suffering, death and Resurrection for their salvation, the next logical step would be to repent – literally, to “go beyond their usual way of thinking.” People were and are invited to reconcile with God by the forgiveness of their sins through the Sacraments.

Jesus died for everyone, but not everyone knew about it. The mission of His first followers was to tell everyone how God saved them and to offer them, in Christ’s name, a way forward: repentance and forgiveness. If we know Christ, His sacrifice, His love, and the eternal life He offers us, we are commanded to tell others, whether by word, deed, or living example.

Q What is the & feast of our A Lady of Loreto?

In 2019, Pope Francis set aside a day specially devoted to Our Lady of Loreto. Loreto is the city in Italy where, it is believed, the house where Mary grew up is located. According to tradition, angels carried the house from the Holy Land to Italy in the thirteenth century when the Holy Land was under attack.

Whether angels really transported the house, or a devout, wealthy family paid to have it moved, scientific findings have verified that the house itself is not from thirteenth-century Italy. The architectural style, construction, and the pollen granules found in the mortar are not characteristic of thirteenth-century Italy, but of first-century Palestine.

We are not bound to belief in the miraculous transportation of the House of Loreto, but the significance of this devotion still applies to us. We are reminded of Mary’s motherhood – first of Jesus and then of us today (John 19:27). We’re encouraged to ask her intercession for families today, and to remember the importance of the family in God’s saving plan.

Feasts & Celebrations

May 12 – St. Pancras (c. 304). Orphaned at an early age, he was brought by an uncle to Rome. Inspired by the Christians, they converted. They were both beheaded for refusing to sacrifice to idols during the reign the Emperor Diocletian. St. Pancras was only fourteen years old.

May 14 - St. Matthias (1st century). When the apostles met to choose Judas’ successor, Peter said that the new apostle must have followed Jesus from his baptism to his Ascension and witnessed his Resurrection. St. Matthias was chosen by lots to fill Judas’ place. May 22 - St. Rita of Cascia (1457). Unwillingly married off to a cruel husband at the age of twelve, St. Rita spent eighteen unhappy years before being widowed. After her sons died of illness, she became an Augustinian nun. She was known for her devotion to prayer and charity.

May 29 - Ascension of the Lord. This solemnity marks the completion of Jesus’ mission of salvation and his triumphant entry into Heaven.

ST. IGNATIUS GOLF CLASSIC

The St. Ignatius Loyola annual golf classic will take place on Tuesday May 31, 2022 at the Town of Oyster Bay golf course. The cost is $185 per person, which gets you an entrance to play golf, golf cart, driving range, breakfast, lunch, cocktail hour and dinner. If you wish to have cocktails and dinner only, the cost is $75 per person.

This will be the 25th year that the golf classic is being held and it's a major fund raiser, raising approximately $12,000 for the parish.

CHAIRPERSON NEEDED TO TAKEOVER IN 2023

Don Cleary has been the chairperson of the golf classic for many years. He will retire as the chairperson after this year, however he will remain on the golf committee.

We are looking for someone or even two people to co-chair and takeover in 2023. Don will be available to help and guide the new chairperson throughout the year.

Anyone having any interest, please contact the Rectory Office as soon as possible to get on board with the 2022 outing.

Stewardship: Fourth Sunday of Easter

Bulletin Reflection: As we continue our journey through the Easter season, we hear more readings from the Acts of the Apostles.

Living Stewardship ~ Pillar of Formation:

When you hear the Acts of the Apostles, ponder how you can spread the Word of God to those around you. Let the holy Spirit guide you, as the Apostles were so guided.

Pantry Needs

We continue to thank all of you who have been so generous with your donations to the Pantry. Human Services is always in need of food. Our pantry is low on these items:

We are desperate for breakfast cereal!! Peanut butter (16 oz. size) is always welcome, as are jellies, canned vegetables including green beans, kernel corn, carrots, mixed vegetables, and cans of black beans. We are especially low on spaghetti, pasta sauce and cereals! Again, thank you so much for your generosity.

Donations can be left in the baskets located in the vestibules of the church or brought directly to us at Human Services on Mondays, Tuesdays or Thursdays between 9:30 am and 5 pm (we're closed for lunch from 12 noon to 1 pm on those days) Your donations help to feed some of our neighbors!

On this day, O Beautiful Mother
Let us wish you with all our love
A Very Happy Mother's Day.

From the depths of our hearts, we Thank You
For Your unfailing love for all of God's children,
For your graceful patience
And powerful intercessions on our behalf.

Lead us to your Son, Jesus,
That we may build with Him,
the Kingdom of love, joy and peace.

Amen.

Thank you for accepting God's will to be the mother of our Redeemer, the most sorrowful mother.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Evangelio del Domingo de Pascua (Jn 10, 27-30)

En aquel tiempo, dijo Jesús: «Mis ovejas escuchan mi voz, y yo las conozco, y ellas me siguen, y yo les doy la vida eterna; no perecerán para siempre, y nadie las arrebatará de mi mano. Mi Padre, que me las ha dado, supera a todos, y nadie puede arrebatarlas de la mano del Padre. Yo y el Padre somos uno.»

Saludos del P. Jacob Varughese, el nuevo pastor asociado

Soy el padre Jacob Varghese. Nací en Kerala, India en 1975. Mi padre es el Sr. Varughese Abraham y mi madre es la Sra. Mariamma Varughese. Tengo dos hermanos y tres hermanas. Mi padre era apóstol laico y su deber era visitar las distintas parroquias y proclamar la palabra de Dios y mi madre es ama de casa.

Fui ordenado sacerdote en 2004 después de mis estudios teológicos y filosóficos en Pune. Mi primer nombramiento fue como ministro de la casa en Trivandrum Kerala durante seis meses y el provincial me pidió que fuera y sirviera a la comunidad en Bengala Occidental, India del Norte. Allí serví como pastor de la parroquia y como subdirector de la escuela. Durante este tiempo completé mi Maestría en Administración Pública. Regresé a Kerala y fui nombrado pastor de tres parroquias allí. Durante este tiempo completé mis estudios de Licenciatura en Educación. Después de tres años en la parroquia fui nombrado director de la escuela Betania Mar Ivanios y pastor de otra parroquia cercana a la escuela. Durante este período completé mi Maestría en Ciencias Sociales. Después de dos años en la escuela, me pidieron que me hiciera cargo como administrador de Bethany College of Education, Bethany Navajeevan Matriculation School y Bethany Navajeevan CBSE School en Tamil Nadu. Durante este período completé mi Maestría en Educación.

A partir de ahí, fui elegido como director de finanzas de la provincia de Bethany Navajeevan y ocupé ese puesto durante seis años continuos. Mi mandato como director de finanzas finalizó en 2021. Fui nombrado administrador de la Escuela Mount Bethany en Kerala hasta el 15 de abril de 2022. A partir del 20 de abril de 2022 fui designado pastor asociado en la Iglesia San Ignacio Loyola, Hicksville.

El regalo más precioso que uno puede recibir en este mundo es una madre amorosa. Madre es más que una palabra. Es una emoción caracterizada por el amor y el cuidado sin fin. No hay palabras que puedan expresar plenamente el amor de una madre. Ella es la persona más poderosa y sorprendente que uno puede tener.

La Biblia tiene mucho que decir sobre el papel y las características de las madres y el amor familiar. El profeta Isaías lo dice así: “Como alguien a quien su madre consuela, yo te consolaré” (Isaías 66:13). Proverbios habla de las madres así “ella abre su boca con sabiduría y la enseñanza de la bondad está en su lengua” (Proverbios 31:26). Edwin Chapin dijo que “Ningún lenguaje puede expresar el poder, el heroísmo y la majestuosidad del amor de una madre”

Hoy, cuando celebramos el día de la madre, debemos agradecer a nuestras madres y orar por ellas. No podemos explicar el papel de nuestra madre en nuestra vida. En todos y cada uno de los momentos podemos sentir el amor y el cuidado de nuestra madre. No solo nos dieron a luz, sino que nos cuidaron, nos nutrieron, nos entrenaron para ser un ser humano en este mundo. Ella nos dio sus manos cuando caímos en nuestros pasos. Debemos recordar a todas nuestras madres ya sea que estén vivas aquí o hayan ido a su recompensa eterna.

En la cruz, Jesús nos dio un regalo precioso: la Madre María, la Madre celestial. “Al ver Jesús a su madre y al discípulo a quien amaba, dijo a su madre: Mujer, ahí tienes a tu hijo. Entonces dijo al discípulo: he aquí tu madre” (Jn 19, 25-26). El Papa Juan Pablo II dijo que si quieres estudiar los caminos de la vida cristiana debes estudiarlos de la Madre María.

En este día de la madre, cantemos el hermoso cántico que cantamos en la fiesta de la presentación, “dulce mujer, pacífica paloma, enséñanos la sabiduría, enséñanos el amor”.

"He aquí el Corazón que ha amado tanto a los hombres, que no se ha ahorrado nada, hasta extinguirse y consumarse para demostrarles su amor. Y en reconocimiento no recibo de la mayoría sino ingrátitud."

(Palabras de Jesús a Sta Margarita Maria de Alacoque)
