Just as Jesus died and has risen again, so through Jesus, God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep; and so also in Christ will all be brought to life.

Eternal Rest grant unto them O Lord, and let the perpetual light shine upon them.

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen .

We pray for their mourning families also.

Merciful Father, comfort all those whose hearts overflow with grief, as they face this sense of loss. May they know the consolation of Your love. We ask this through Christ our Lord . Amen.

For our Military.

Almighty Father, give them courage and strength against all enemies, both spiritual and physical. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they do to protect this land and us. Keep them safe in Your loving hands .We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

My dear St. Ignatius faith family,

In today's gospel (Lk. 4:14-21), we see the realization of centuries of promise and waiting fulfilled. It happened in the unpretentious synagogues of a virtually unknown village called Nazareth. It was the practice in synagogue to have a reading from the Law and another from the Prophets of the Old Testament, followed by a sermon.

In today's event, Jesus was invited to act as both reader and preacher. It was really as if the eyes of all the people of God ever lived were on Jesus at that moment; century upon century of promises from God and of waiting by the people focused upon that moment in time.

Jesus read a passage from the book of Isaiah. Then he spoke simple, but momentous words-- words beyond the comprehension of his listeners: "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." Jesus was the perfect fulfillment of everything ever written in the Old Testament; he embodied and completed in his one person the whole destiny and purpose of the chosen people.

It was from the chosen people, God raised up great prophets, teachers of the people, like Moses, Isaiah, Jeremiah and many others. These men taught the people what God was like. By means of the prophets, the judges, and the kings, God pointed out the way of life that his people were to follow. God made of his chosen ones a priestly people. They were set apart to offer pleasing worship to the one true God and to receive his favors in return.

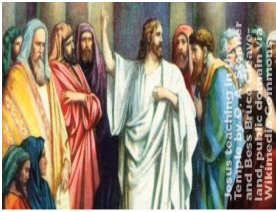

On that apparently ordinary day in the humble synagogue of Nazareth, the great thing happened in a humble way. Jesus in simple words spoke the tremendous truth. In effect, he said: I am the one you have been waiting for. All the centuries of promise and waiting have become reality in me. With his pronouncement, another great truth began to unfold. Jesus as Messiah was also God Himself.

Because Jesus was God, he was more than a prophet or a teacher. A teacher says, "This is the law; follow it and you will be on the way to happiness." Jesus being God could say, "I am the way; follow me." Well, a priest of the Old Testament offered worship in the name of the people and prayed that God would grant his favor of eternal life. Jesus as God was the perfect priest who offered himself as a victim of sacrifice and won for us eternal life with absolute certainty. Jesus gives us himself and says, "I am the life."

We are the new chosen people of God. Jesus is alive and active among us, the Church. To fulfill our destiny, we must be committed to Christ. He is the person we must know, because he is the truth. His way of living we must follow and imitate, because he is the way to true happiness. Through the celebration of the Holy Mass, our personal relationship with Christ is strengthened. It is at the Mass that we hear the truth of Christ proclaimed. It is here that we see how Christ lived. It is here that we receive Christ as our spiritual Life.

Thus, Christ is our truth; Christ is our way; Christ is our life. It is here at the Mass that we are pre-eminently in contact with our Lord and God. It is here, we receive the grace and the strength to fulfill our destiny as the chosen people of God.

Fr. Francis

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Do you ever find yourself feeling like you are at the cusp of something remarkable? Like you are witnessing an incredible, historic, athletic, or aeronautical feat? I wonder if that's what it was like for the followers of Jesus when he began his public ministry: "News of him spread throughout the whole region. He taught in their synagogues and was praised by all." In today's Gospel, Jesus reads the words of the prophet Isaiah that are effectively a "job description" of his mission: glad tidings to the poor, liberty of captives, sight to the blind, freedom for the oppressed. What Isaiah prophesied, Jesus claims to fulfill. He thus inaugurates his public ministry with a claim that is straightforward, bold, true, and of great consequence. Today, by virtue of our baptism, we are part of the body of Christ and share in that mission. Whatever our backgrounds, abilities, or talents, we each have something to contribute to building up one another and the Church. And with the help of the Holy Spirit, we, too, can be bold in our own proclamation of Jesus Christ as Lord.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

We've heard the phrase "Don't sell yourself short." Social media aside, many of us tend to focus on our shortcomings: We may wish we could run faster, be better at our jobs, have a cleaner home, in general, "get it together!" Truth is, we're all works in progress. That's what I love about Paul's Letter to the Corinthians. He reminds us that each one of us - whatever our strengths or weaknesses - is part of the body of Christ. God loves us with our imperfections, not in spite of them. As such, each of us has indispensable value and much to contribute to the mission of the Church. As we move into the week ahead, today's readings invite us to place ourselves at the service of the Church and one another. Beyond that, we can invite others to join us by recognizing that God values the talents - and foibles - that each of us brings to his service.

PRAY Yesterday on the liturgical calendar was the Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. As members of the body of Christ, let us join our voices with the universal Church and pray a Pro-Life Rosary each night this week. The USCCB Prayers and Devotions page is a good resource.

Thought of the week

"Remember you may be the only Bible that others read."

Saint quote ...

"The Bible was composed in such a way that as beginners mature, its meaning grows with them."

- St. Augustine

"He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures." (Lk 24:45)

Word of God Sunday 2022

Pope Francis has asked that the Church observe the 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time as the Sunday of the Word of God. Pope Francis said: "Devoting a specific Sunday of the liturgical year to the word of God can enable the Church to experience anew how the risen Lord opens up for us the treasury of his word and enables us to proclaim its unfathomable riches before the world."

Celebration of Word of God Sunday will take place here in the Diocese of Rockville Centre in the Western Vicariate as follows:

A Message from the Society of St. Vincent de Paul

“May our presence and care to those most in need reflect the gentleness, esteem and dignity we see reflected in the life and work of Jesus.”

– St. Vincent de Paul

Dear Friends in Christ,

We hope you had a blessed and safe Christmas season! As we start the new year with renewed uncertainty but also hope and despite so many challenges, we want to remember that it is also a time to be grateful. As we reflect on this season, we want to share an update and ask that you keep our neediest neighbors in your prayers. As you may know, our motto is, “We Help People” and despite the pandemic, we have been working hard, made possible with the generous support of so many of you, to meet the needs of our neighbors in Hicksville.

There are so many heartbreaking stories we hear from our neighbors in need, but we can share in their burden, as Christ has taught us, by sharing our help. We wanted to share a few of the highlights of 2021 that illuminate how the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at St. Ignatius Loyola parish supported our community:

- Partnered with Fred’s Deli in Levittown, who generously donated $500 in home cooked Thanksgiving Day. We delivered 95 meals to 26 families
- Collaborated with Human Services and began food distribution effort to deliver to roughly 12 neighbor families weekly; our ministry has supplemented these deliveries with fresh fruit and vegetables
- Donated back to school supplies and clothing to families we serve
- Secured over $18,000 in EFSP rent/mortgage loan assistance from Nassau County and prevented the eviction of 5 neighbors
- Walked as a community joined by over 25 participants in our Friends of the Poor walk, previously cancelled because of the pandemic
- Reached out to 25 of neighbor families to update them on NYS’s Excluded Workers Fund
- Been there to lend an ear when our neighbors needed it the most

Too often the face of poverty is unknown. Let us remember, Jesus’ words to “strive to soften our hearts and make them sensitive to the suffering and worries of the neighbor.” This pandemic has taken a toll on so many of us, but for those of us who will be warm and fed, let us open our hearts and continue to pray and persevere with the hope that all lives can be restored with dignity and justice.

The four poor boxes at the corners of our church are a simple means of showing your support, as these crucial donations are used to directly provide aid to our neighbors in need. God Bless you and thank you for your support!

With gratitude,

Erika Aldana, Diane Brosseau, Lissette Campos, Tony D’Angelis, Thomas Kenny, Frank Philpitt, Lorena Medrano, Derek Stadler and John Toner

ALL FOR THE GREATER GLORY OF GOD. St. Ignatius of Loyola

Un Mensaje de parte de la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl

“Que nuestra presencia y la atención que le brindamos a los necesitados se refleje en la ternura, el aprecio y la dignidad que vemos reflejados en la vida y el trabajo de Jesús”.
– San Vicente de Paúl

Queridos Hermanos en Cristo,

Esperamos que hayan tenido una Navidad bendecida y saludable. A medida que comenzamos el año nuevo con incertidumbre pero también esperanza, y a pesar de tantos desafíos/retos/dificultades, queremos recordar que también es un momento para estar agradecidos. Al reflexionar sobre esta temporada, queremos ponerlos al día con algunos de nuestros logros en 2021 y les pedimos que mantengan a nuestros vecinos en sus oraciones. Nuestro lema es “Ayudamos a Gente” y a pesar de la pandemia, hemos estado trabajando mucho, mayormente gracias a las donaciones y el apoyo generoso de muchos de Uds. Así hemos podido ayudar a nuestros vecinos de Hicksville.

Hay tantos relatos desoladores que nuestros vecinos han compartido con nosotros pero podemos tratar de aliviar la carga, como Cristo nos ha enseñado, aportando nuestra ayuda. Queremos darles a conocer algunos de los mayores logros del año pasado que realizamos como Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl en nuestra parroquia:

- En el Día de Acción de Gracias, en colaboración Fred’s Deli en Levittown repartimos 95 comidas a 26 familias. Fred’s Deli donó $500 en comida
- Junto con la oficina de Human Services (Joe S.), empezamos a repartir comida a 12 familias semanalmente; nuestro ministerio empezó a comprar verduras y fruta fresca para suplementar lo que nuestros vecinos reciben
- Donamos útiles escolares y ropa para los niños que servimos para volver a clases
- Obtuvimos más de $18,000 del condado de Nassau para ayuda de alquiler e hipoteca para evitar el desalojo de 5 familias
- Caminamos en comunidad con 25 participantes en nuestra caminata “Amigos de los Pobres” la cual había sido cancelada el año anterior por la pandemia
- Informamos a 25 de nuestras familias sobre el programa de Trabajadores Excluidos del estado de NY
- Escuchamos a nuestros vecinos con compasión en sus momentos de necesidad

Muchas veces no conocemos la cara de la pobreza. Acordémonos de las palabras de Jesús a “luchar por ablandar nuestros corazones y hacerlos conscientes del sufrimiento y las preocupaciones del vecino”. Esta pandemia nos tiene agotados a todos de nosotros pero para quienes tenemos abrigado y alimentado, abramos nuestros corazones y sigamos orando y perseverando con la esperanza que todas las vidas serán renovadas con dignidad y justicia.

Las cuatro alcancías de los pobres están en las cuatro esquinas de nuestra iglesia. Su ayuda demuestra su apoyo ya que estas donaciones son tan importantes y las utilizamos para ayudar directamente a nuestros vecinos. Que Dios los bendiga y gracias eternamente por su apoyo!

Con mucho agradecimiento,

Erika Aldana, Diane Brosseau, Lissette Campos, Tony D’Angelis, Thomas Kenny, Frank Philpitt, Lorena Medrano, Derek Stadler and John Toner

Rincón de Clero

Mi querida familia religiosa de San Ignacio:

En el evangelio de hoy (Lc 4, 14-21), vemos la realización de siglos de promesa y espera cumplida. Sucedió en las sinagogas sin pretensiones de un pueblo prácticamente desconocido llamado Nazaret. Era práctica en la sinagoga tener una lectura de la Ley y otra de los Profetas del Antiguo Testamento, seguida de un sermón.

En el evento de hoy, Jesús fue invitado a actuar como lector y predicador. Era realmente como si los ojos de todo el pueblo de Dios estuvieran puestos en Jesús en ese momento; siglo tras siglo de promesas de Dios y de espera del pueblo enfocadas en ese momento en el tiempo. Jesús leyó un pasaje del libro de Isaías. Luego pronunció palabras sencillas, pero trascendentales, palabras más allá de la comprensión de sus oyentes: "Hoy se cumple este pasaje de las Escrituras en presencia de ustedes". Jesús fue el cumplimiento perfecto de todo lo escrito en el Antiguo Testamento; él encarnó y completó en su única persona todo el destino y propósito del pueblo elegido.

Fue del pueblo elegido, Dios levantó grandes profetas, maestros del pueblo, como Moisés, Isaías, Jeremías y tantos otros. Estos hombres le enseñaron a la gente cómo era Dios. Por medio de los profetas, los jueces y los reyes, Dios señaló el camino de vida que su pueblo debía seguir. Dios hizo de sus elegidos un pueblo sacerdotal. Fueron apartados para ofrecer adoración agradable al único Dios verdadero y recibir sus favores a cambio.

En ese día aparentemente ordinario en la humilde sinagoga de Nazaret, la gran cosa sucedió de manera humilde. Jesús en palabras sencillas dijo la tremenda verdad. En efecto, dijo: Yo soy el que has estado esperando. Todos los siglos de promesa y espera se han hecho realidad en mí. Con su pronunciamiento, otra gran verdad comenzó a revelarse. Jesús como Mesías también era Dios mismo.

Debido a que Jesús era Dios, era más que un profeta o un maestro. Un maestro dice: "Esta es la ley; síguela y estarás en el camino de la felicidad". Jesús, siendo Dios, podía decir: "Yo soy el camino, sígueme". Pues bien, un sacerdote del Antiguo Testamento ofrecía adoración en nombre del pueblo y rezaba para que Dios le concediera el favor de la vida eterna. Jesús como Dios fue el sacerdote perfecto que se ofreció a sí mismo como víctima del sacrificio y ganó para nosotros la vida eterna con absoluta certeza. Jesús se da a sí mismo y dice: "Yo soy la vida".

Somos el nuevo pueblo elegido de Dios. Jesús está vivo y activo entre nosotros, la Iglesia. Para cumplir nuestro destino, debemos estar comprometidos con Cristo. Él es la persona que debemos conocer, porque él es la verdad. Su modo de vivir debemos seguirlo e imitarlo, porque él es el camino a la verdadera felicidad.

A través de la celebración de la Santa Misa se fortalece nuestra relación personal con Cristo. Es en la Misa que escuchamos proclamar la verdad de Cristo. Es aquí donde vemos cómo vivió Cristo. Es aquí que recibimos a Cristo como nuestra Vida espiritual.

Así, Cristo es nuestra verdad; Cristo es nuestro camino; Cristo es nuestra vida. Es aquí en la Misa que estamos preeminentemente en contacto con nuestro Señor y Dios. Es aquí donde recibimos la gracia y la fuerza para cumplir nuestro destino como pueblo elegido de Dios.

III Domingo Ordinario — Ciclo C

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Evangelio del Domingo

Lectura del santo evangelio según san Lucas (1,1-4;4,14-21):

Ilustre Teófilo:

Puesto que muchos han emprendido la tarea de componer un relato de los hechos que se han cumplido entre nosotros, como nos los transmitieron los que fueron desde el principio testigos oculares y servidores de la palabra, también yo he resuelto escribírtelos por su orden, después de investigarlo todo diligentemente desde el principio, para que conozcas la solidez de las enseñanzas que has recibido.

En aquel tiempo, Jesús volvió a Galilea con la fuerza del Espíritu; y su fama se extendió por toda la comarca. Enseñaba en las sinagogas, y todos lo alababan.

Fue a Nazaret, donde se había criado, entró en la sinagoga, como era su costumbre los sábados, y se puso en pie para hacer la lectura. Le entregaron el rollo del profeta Isaías y, desenrollándolo, encontró el pasaje donde estaba escrito:

«El Espíritu del Señor está sobre mí, porque él me ha ungido.
Me ha enviado a evangelizar a los pobres,
a proclamar a los cautivos la libertad,
y a los ciegos, la vista;
a poner en libertad a los oprimidos;
a proclamar el año de gracia del Señor».

Y, enrollando el rollo y devolviéndolo al que lo ayudaba, se sentó. Toda la sinagoga tenía los ojos clavados en él.

Y él comenzó a decirles:

«Hoy se ha cumplido esta Escritura que acabáis de oír».
