Clergy Corner

My dear faith family of St. Ignatius,

This Sunday, we begin the season of Advent. On this day, the church invites us to be ready and be prepared to receive the Lord. Advent means coming; we wait eagerly for those we love. In the liturgical calendar, the season of Advent means a joyful waiting, a waiting for someone we love. Here we wait for the coming of Jesus; and there is the eagerness within us to receive him as we look forward to this great event of God becoming man.

There are three aspects of Jesus' coming we commemorate. First, we look at the past as we anticipate the celebration of the birth of Jesus in History that took place 2000 years ago, His first coming. Secondly, we look to the present as we prepare ourselves to receive Him in our daily lives, especially on Christmas day. We accept Him in the Word and in the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Finally, we look into the future and await His coming at the end of times in majesty and glory to judge the world.

Today's Gospel (Lk. 21:25-28, 34-36) speaks in special terms of the end of the world and Jesus' final coming. It announces the Lord's prophesy and how we must prepare ourselves to meet Him. The entire chapter focuses on the events that will accompany the end of the world. These signs will be cosmic in nature. "And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory."

When Jesus comes in His great Glory, escorted by all the angels, He will judge all of us according to what we have done. One of the standards will be how we treated others, especially the least among us. For Jesus identifies Himself with the poor and the marginalized people. He says: "I tell you solemnly, insofar as you did this for one of the least of my brothers, you did it for me" (Mt. 25:40).

The well-known preacher and writer Norman Vincent Peale tells us of his life experience. When he was a young boy, he was walking down the street with his father who was a pastor. They came across a beggar who was dirty and smelly. He came to Norman and touched his hand and asked for some money for food. Norman seeing the man dirty and in tattered clothes recoiled and brushed him aside. His father told him that he must respect the man and not behave in this way. The boy replied that after all he was dirty and worthless. His father told him that in this world there is no one worthless, for all are the children of God. Then he took out one dollar, all he could afford, and gave to the boy. He said to him to give it to the man and tell him that it was in the name of Jesus he was giving the gift. Norman refused at first but on his father's insistence, he ran after the man and gave the money to him saying it was given in the name of Jesus. The man looked at him, gave him a big smile, and said: "I thank you my son in the name of Jesus." Norman said that in the genuine smile of that man who looked worthless he found the real face of Jesus, which he never forgot in his life.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

As the days grow shorter and darker, I am especially ready for Advent wreaths and nativity sets; sparkling lights and singing angels. More than ever, I eagerly anticipate the joyful celebration of Christ’s birth. But today’s readings for the first Sunday of Advent point us to the end of time, when Jesus returns in glory. Wait a minute, what? I don’t want to think about the dismay and fright that Jesus foretells in the Gospel, I want to think about shepherds and holy nights. We really can’t do one without the other, however, and the underlying message of the readings is one of hope and reassurance: Our God keeps his promises. He is faithful to the covenants he makes. He loves us so much; he offers us new beginnings. Our God became one of us, died to save us, and will give us the strength to be ready to greet him when he comes again. “Stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand,” Jesus says. Pray that our preparation for Christ’s birth will make us all the more ready for his return.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

We are a society and culture that focuses a lot on the outward signs of preparation, and there is a lot of pressure to make it all perfect. Pinterest boards, social media groups, magazine photos, clothing catalogs: all show perfectly dressed people with perfectly adorable dogs standing in front of exquisitely perfect Christmas trees, on perfectly unblemished snow. But perfection on the exterior is not the Christian goal. Our interior preparation – how we make ourselves ready for Christ now, and at the end of time – is the focus of Advent. It is an opportunity for repentance, and a joyful new beginning in our relationship with God. It is a time to recommit ourselves to the covenant he made with us, and the psalm and the second reading offer assistance in doing so. Make time each day to dive in and explore what Scripture reveals about “conducting yourselves to please God.”

PRAY Pray the psalm from the first Sunday of Advent each morning. Ask God to open your heart to ways you can be more just. He will teach you, guide you, and strengthen your heart so that you can stand upright to face whatever challenges come your way.

Your ways, O LORD, make known to me; teach me your paths,
Guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my savior,
and for you I wait all the day.

St ANDREW'S CHRISTMAS NOVENA

BE READY and WAITING!
BEGINS 30 NOVEMBER

Beginning on St Andrew the Apostle's feast day, 30 November the beautiful prayer is traditionally recited fifteen times a day until Christmas. This is a very meditative prayer that helps us increase our awareness of the real focus of Christmas and helps us prepare ourselves for the Lord's coming.

St. Andrew Christmas Novena

Hail and blessed be the hour and moment in which the Son of God was born of the most pure Virgin Mary, at midnight, in Bethlehem, in piercing cold. In that hour, vouchsafe, O my God, to hear my prayer and grant my desires, through the merits of Our Saviour Jesus Christ, and of His Blessed Mother.

Help Us. Help Others this Christmas!

We continue to thank all of you who have been so generous with your donations to the Pantry. With the Holidays approaching, this year for our Christmas Giving Tree program, we will again be requesting Target or Kohl's gift cards. Gift cards provide a sense of empowerment to the heads of households and involves them in the selection of Christmas presents for family members. Human Services is always in need of food. Donations can be left in the baskets located in the vestibules of the church or brought directly to us at Human Services on Mondays, Tuesdays or Thursdays between 9:30 am and 5 pm (we're closed for lunch from 12 noon to 1 pm on those days). Your donations help to feed some of our neighbors! Please remember our less fortunate. Thanks Again....Joe Samodulski, Human Services

Catholic Daughters Court Queen of Angels #869 here at St. Ignatius Loyola graciously thanks all who participated in our Military Thank You Project.

We received 761 cards to forward to our Active Military Personnel all over the world! Please know your efforts do make a difference in the life of a serviceman or woman.

A very special thank you to the school children who provided such beautiful cards and notes, especially from our own Religious Education students. We look forward to coordinating this project again next October.

BREAKING BREAD

The 2022 Missals will be available this Sunday in the Sacristy. For a free-will offering, you can secure a Missal for yourself to take home for your use during the year.

Please see the Sacristan.

St. Ignatius Senior Club is looking for seniors who enjoy a pleasant day of cards, games, Bingo, lunches and trips. Pastries with coffee and tea are provided. They meet on the first and third Wednesdays of the month at the Hicksville Community Center at 28 West Carl Street at 10:30 am. They are not limited to Hicksville residents, and would love to have you join them. For more information, please call Margaret at 516-822-3653.

This month we celebrate a traditional American holiday. A holiday that commemorates a group of people who, with much fear and trepidation, crossed an unforgiving ocean in a very small and crude vessel to a land that they hoped would offer freedom and happiness that was unobtainable in their mother country. However, as you may know, once they arrived, it wasn't as easy as they had thought it to be.

Contrary to popular belief, not all of the indigenous people welcomed the pilgrims. Was it because of the way they dressed; the color of their skin; their language or the fact that they were encroaching upon sacred land? If we look today at the land they came to on a very cold day in December of 1620, one finds that the joys and possibilities for newcomers are still endless. Yet, not unlike our pilgrim forefathers, a new land and a new beginning can bring monumental struggles which at times can seem impossible to overcome for our modern-day pilgrims.

Today, many of those that have reached our shores are immediately at a disadvantage because they have difficulty speaking the native language. Imagine how frightening it would be to fill out a simple job application, for which you are extremely qualified but cannot express your experience in words. Government forms can be tough to negotiate for a seasoned citizen but a real nightmare for one not familiar with our bureaucratic system; something that not even the pilgrims had to face!

Your church, Saint Ignatius of Loyola, Hicksville has a small group of people that have come together to help ease the pain our New Americans' experience. The Saint Vincent de Paul Society, Saint Ignatius Conference was established to do just that. Through your generous donations, encouragement and prayers, these volunteers reach out daily responding to requests for financial assistance, housing aid, food necessities, furniture needs, document interpretation and many other tasks that are not easy to surmount for a modern-day pilgrim.

In addition, many of our Hicksville residents who have resided here for years also struggle with similar situations. An outstanding example is the pandemic which caused problems for many, if not all, of us. Our Conference is always present to assist and encourage those in need. Sometimes all that is required is a sympathetic ear.

All our group asks is that you keep us in your prayers and continue to support us as you have so generously done in the past. Through this support, we can continue working in HIS vineyard. I was recently called to this Conference and have found the work we do an extremely prayerful experience. As a member I have been able to fully live out our Lord Jesus' words in Mathew chp 25 v 35-41: "For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me."

You can easily contact us through the parish office (516-931-0056) if you or someone you know in our community is in need of help. If you want to learn more about us, please visit the link on the St. Ignatius Loyola Church web site. <https://www.stignatiushicksville.org/st-vincent-de-paul.html>

Remember HIS yoke is easy and HIS burden light. Wishing you a blessed and joyous Thanksgiving!

Advent 2021

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
November 28 Buy or make an Advent wreath. Bless it and light the first candle tonight and every night this week. Read Luke 21:25-28, 34-36.	29 Advent is about waiting for the Savior to come. Offer a simple prayer of praise anytime you have to wait during Advent.	30 The presence of Jesus reminds us to hope in God's mercy. Make a list of reasons for your hope today.	1 Pick one habit that is keeping you from holiness. Identify your "go-to sin" and resolve to conquer it during Advent.	2 Add 20 minutes of daily prayer during Advent. Set an alarm to remind you to pray for 10 minutes each morning and night this month.	3 In gratitude that God provides for your needs, set aside gently used clothing and give it to the poor. Add a piece you love as a special sacrifice.	4 Perform a thorough examination of conscience today. Then attend Confession to ready your soul to greet the Savior.
5 At sundown tonight, light two violet candles in the Advent wreath and read Luke 3:1-6.	6 St. Nicholas was a generous man and a courageous bishop. Today, make at least one generous act of love in his honor.	7 In your Christmas cards write a note about the blessings you received this year as a witness to God's love.	8 The feast of the Immaculate Conception celebrates Mary's freedom from Original Sin. Attend Mass and pray a Rosary.	9 Today, let nothing discourage you in honor of St. Juan Diego. He never gave up, placing his trust in Jesus and His Mother.	10 Buy Christmas gifts from stores or online merchants that carry "fair trade" items to support workers in developing countries.	11 To honor the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe tomorrow, place a rose in a vase in your home and pray a "Hail Mary" whenever you pass it.
Gaudete 12 Sunday-Joy! Celebrate the halfway point of Advent. Light two violet candles and the rose one for joy. Read Luke 3:10-18.	13 Spend time in silence today. Say "no" to unnecessary distractions. In silence and peace, you will be open to God's will.	14 Think of Biblical accounts of God's mercy to sinners. Ask forgiveness from someone you have hurt and forgive those who wronged you.	15 In honor of the Holy Family's trek to Bethlehem, pray for all those who have been forced from home.	16 Send a card to someone who lost a loved one in the last year. Offer your thoughts and prayers for healing and comfort.	17 Pray for the men and women in the armed services who won't be able to spend Christmas with their families.	18 Pray the Angelus at 6:00 am, 12:00 pm, and 6:00pm every day until Christmas.
19 Light all four candles in the wreath tonight and all week. Read Luke 1:39-45.	20 This can be a sad time for those who are alone. Include anyone in your own gatherings who might be otherwise forgotten.	21 As a gift to the coming Savior, repair a relationship with a friend or family member that needs healing.	22 Make an effort to share God's love today. Say a kind word or listen with compassion to someone who is suffering.	23 Gather friends and neighbors and Christmas carol (safely) at a nursing home or homeless shelter.	24 Even if you live alone, put up and decorate a Christmas tree. Light it as a symbol of Christ, the Light of the World.	Rejoice! 25 Read the story of Jesus' birth in Luke 2:1-20 and focus on each detail. Think of how joyful it will be to meet Jesus when he comes again.

Adviento 2021

Domingo	Lunes	Martes	Miércoles	Jueves	Viernes	Sábado
Noviembre 28 Compra o haz una Corona de Adviento. Bendícela y enciende la primera vela esta noche y todas las noches esta semana. Leer a Luke 21: 25-28, 34-36.	29 El Adviento se trata de esperar la llegada del Salvador. Ofrezca una simple oración de alabanza cada vez que tenga que esperar durante el Adviento.	30 La presencia de Jesús nos recuerda que debemos esperar en la misericordia de Dios. Haga una lista de las razones de su esperanza hoy.	1 Elija un hábito que lo aleje de la santidad. Identifique su "pecado al que debe ir" y decida conquistarlo durante el Adviento.	2 Agregue 20 minutos de oración diaria durante el Adviento. Configure una alarma para recordarle que debe orar durante 10 minutos cada mañana y cada noche de este mes.	3 En gratitud porque Dios provee para sus necesidades, deje a un lado la ropa usada suavemente y entréguela a los pobres. Agrega una pieza que te guste como sacrificio especial.	4 Realice hoy n examen de conciencia minucioso. Entonces asiste a Confesión para preparar tu alma para saludar al Salvador.
5 Al anochecer, encienda dos velas violetas en la corona de Adviento y lea Lucas 3: 1-6.	6 San Nicolás fue un hombre generoso y un obispo valiente. Hoy, haz al menos un generoso acto de amor en su honor.	7 En sus tarjetas de Navidad, escriba una nota sobre las bendiciones que recibió este año como testimonio del amor de Dios.	8 La fiesta de la Inmaculada Concepción celebra la libertad de María del pecado original. Asiste a misa y reza un rosario.	9 Hoy, nada te desanime en honor a San Juan Diego. Nunca se rindió, poniendo su confianza en Jesús y su Madre.	10 Compre regalos de Navidad en tiendas o comerciantes en línea que ofrezcan artículos de "comercio justo" para ayudar a los trabajadores en los países en desarrollo.	11 Para honrar la fiesta de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe mañana, coloque una rosa en un jarrón en su casa y reza un "Ave María" cada vez que lo pase.
12 Gaudete-Domingo de Alegría! Celebrate the halfway point of Advent. Light two violet candles and the rose of joy. Read Luke 3:10-18.	13 Pase tiempo en silencio hoy. Di "no" a las distracciones innecesarias. En silencio y paz, estarás abierto a la voluntad de Dios.	14 Piense en los relatos bíblicos de la misericordia de Dios para con los pecadores. Pídele a alguien a quien hayas herido la orgía y perdona a los que te hicieron daño.	15 En honor al viaje de la Sagrada Familia a Belén, ore por todos aquellos que se han visto obligados a abandonar su hogar.	16 Envíe una tarjeta a alguien que perdió a un ser querido en el último año. Ofrezca sus pensamientos y oraciones por la curación y el consuelo.	17 Ore por los hombres y mujeres de las fuerzas armadas que no podrán pasar la Navidad con sus familias.	18 Pray the Angelus at 6:00 am, 12:00pm, and 6:00pm every day until Chris Reza el Ángelus a las 6:00 am; a las 12:00pm; y a las 6:00pm todos los días hasta Navidad. tmas.
19 Encienda las cuatro velas de la corona esta noche y toda la semana. Lea Lucas 1:39-45.	20 Este puede ser un momento triste para quienes están solos. Incluya a cualquier persona en sus propias reuniones que de otra manera podría ser olvidada.	21 As a gift to the coming Savior, repair a relationship with a friend or family member that needs healing.	22 Como regalo para el Salvador venidero, repare una relación con un amigo o familiar que necesite sanidad.	23 Reúna a amigos y vecinos y lleve villancicos (de manera segura) en un hogar de ancianos o refugio para personas sin hogar.	24 Incluso si vives solo, coloca y decora un árbol de Navidad. Enciéndelo como símbolo de Cristo, la Luz del Mundo.	¡Alégrese! 25 Lea la historia del nacimiento de Jesús en Lucas 2: 1-20 y concéntrese en cada detalle. Piense en lo gozoso que será encontrarse con Jesús cuando regrese.

Rincón de Clero

Mi querida familia de fe de San Ignacio,

Este domingo comenzamos la temporada de Adviento. En este día, la iglesia nos invita a estar listos y preparados para recibir al Señor. Adviento significa venir; esperamos ansiosamente a los que amamos. En el calendario litúrgico, el tiempo de Adviento significa una espera gozosa, una espera por alguien a quien amamos. Aquí esperamos la venida de Jesús; y existe el anhelo dentro de nosotros por recibirlo mientras esperamos con ansias este gran evento en el que Dios se hace hombre.

Hay tres aspectos de la venida de Jesús que conmemoramos. Primero, miramos al pasado mientras anticipamos la celebración del nacimiento de Jesús en la Historia que tuvo lugar hace 2000 años, su primera venida. En segundo lugar, miramos al presente mientras nos preparamos para recibirlo en nuestra vida diaria, especialmente el día de Navidad. Lo aceptamos en la Palabra y en el sacramento de la Sagrada Eucaristía. Finalmente, miramos hacia el futuro y esperamos su venida al final de los tiempos con majestad y gloria para juzgar al mundo.

El evangelio de hoy (Lucas 21:25-28.34-36) habla en términos especiales del fin del mundo y la venida final de Jesús. Anuncia la profecía del Señor y cómo debemos prepararnos para encontrarnos con Él. Todo el capítulo se centra en los eventos que acompañarán al fin del mundo. Estos signos serán de naturaleza cósmica. "Y entonces verán al Hijo del Hombre viniendo en una nube con poder y gran gloria". Cuando Jesús venga en Su gran Gloria, escoltado por todos los ángeles, nos juzgará a todos según lo que hayamos hecho. Uno de los estándares será cómo tratamos a los demás, especialmente a los más pequeños entre nosotros. Porque Jesús se identifica con los pobres y marginados. Dice: "Les digo solemnemente que en la medida en que hicieron esto por uno de mis hermanos más pequeños, lo hicieron por mí" (Mt. 25:40).

El conocido predicador y escritor Norman Vincent Peale nos cuenta su experiencias de vida cuando era un niño, caminaba por la calle con su padre, que era pastor. Se encontraron con un mendigo sucio y maloliente. Se acercó a Norman, le tocó la mano y le pidió dinero para comer. Norman, al ver al hombre sucio y con la ropa hecha jirones, retrocedió y lo apartó a un lado. Su padre le dijo que debía respetar al hombre y no comportarse de esa manera. El niño respondió que después de todo él estaba sucio y no valía nada. Su padre le dijo que en este mundo no hay nadie sin valor, porque todos son hijos de Dios. Luego sacó un dólar, todo lo que podía pagar, y se lo dio al niño. Le dijo que se lo diera al hombre y le dijera que era en el nombre de Jesús que le estaba dando el regalo.

Norman se negó al principio, pero ante la insistencia de su padre, corrió tras el hombre y le dio el dinero diciendo que se lo había dado en el nombre de Jesús. El hombre lo miró, le dedicó una gran sonrisa y dijo: "Te agradezco hijo mío en el nombre de Jesús". Norman dijo que en la sonrisa genuina de ese hombre que parecía inútil encontró el verdadero rostro de Jesús, que nunca olvidó en su vida.

P. Francis

ADVIENTO

— es tiempo de vigilar —

PRIMERA SEMANA

Evangelio del Domingo

Lectura del santo evangelio según san Mateo (8,5-11):

EN aquel tiempo, al entrar Jesús en Cafarnaún, un centurión se le acercó rogándole:

«Señor, tengo en casa un criado que está en cama parálítico y sufre mucho».

Le contestó:

«Voy yo a curarlo».

Pero el centurión le replicó:

«Señor, no soy digno de que entres bajo mi techo. Basta que lo digas de palabra, y mi criado quedará sano. Porque yo también vivo bajo disciplina y tengo soldados a mis órdenes; y le digo a uno: "Ve", y va; al otro: "Ven", y viene; a mi criado: "Haz esto", y lo hace».

Al oírlo, Jesús quedó admirado y dijo a los que le seguían:

«En verdad os digo que en Israel no he encontrado en nadie tanta fe. Os digo que vendrán muchos de oriente y occidente y se sentarán con Abrahán, Isaac y Jacob en el reino de los cielos».
