Heavenly Father, we lift up all who are going through various sickness. Have compassion on them, and lay Your healing hands on them. We pray that You would restore their health, soothe their pain and ease their worries. Give them Your peace and comfort them as they wait. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Get well soon...

Names will be kept on the Prayer for the Sick List for three weeks, unless a family member calls to extend the time.

For our Birthday Celebrants Of the month of November

Jeff Wallick

May God bless you abundantly.

For our dearly departed.

Antony Joseph, Jessy Antony

Just as Jesus died and has risen again, so through Jesus, God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep; and so also in Christ will all be brought to life.

Eternal Rest grant unto them O Lord, and let the perpetual light shine upon them.

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen .

We pray for their mourning families also.

Merciful Father, comfort all those whose hearts overflow with grief, as they face this sense of loss. May they know the consolation of Your love. We ask this through Christ our Lord . Amen.

For our Military.

Almighty Father, give them courage and strength against all enemies, both spiritual and physical. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they do to protect this land and us. Keep them safe in Your loving hands .We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Both the first reading and the Gospel speak of widows, who gave all that they had. The generosity of the widows is outstanding, because they were both in a difficult situation with extremely meager resources. Yet, out of the little they possessed, they were ready to give everything for the service of God. Their sacrifices were certainly most acceptable to the Lord. The widow, who supported Elijah, was helped in return by a miraculous supply of flour and oil that sustained her and her son through the period of drought. The widow, who offered coins in the temple, was praised by Jesus and assured that her offering was extremely valuable in the sight of God. Therefore, the value of a gift is not in its quantity and quality, but in the amount of love with which it is given and the extent of the sacrifice that one makes. The offering God wants from us is not just our financial support of our faith community but, more importantly, our hearts and lives. As a parish family, we are blessed to have several volunteers who have given their talents, treasures and time for the building up of St. Ignatius.

All Saints Day was celebrated on October 31 at the 9:30 a.m. Mass. Twenty-two children dressed up as Saints and shared their thoughts about their favorite saints. Thank you, Rosemary Cassese and Katelyn Tuzzolo, for preparing first-grade students. Thank you, Rev. Sean Magaldi, for celebrating the "Youth Holy Mass" for seventh and eighth graders at 11:00 a.m. The presence of Nivia Soto, Sue Cleary, Joe Panarelli, and other teachers show their love for God and children, and we thank parents and families for supporting your children with your example by participating in the Holy Mass.

Once again, the Activities Committee proved their organizing abilities by hosting a farewell party for Fr. Frank, who has been a part of this parish for the last three years. He has now moved to The Holy Redeemer Church in Freeport. I am grateful for his ministry and wish him the very best in his new residence.

We hosted our annual All Souls Memorial Mass on Tuesday, November 2, at 7:30 p.m. I want to thank Pam Flannigan and the Ministry of Consolation team, who have planned and carried out many prayerful funerals for the many faithfully departed, and welcome back those families for this special memorial service. The Memorial Altar, the Book of Life, and the Book of Remembrance allowed us to express our love and herald the undivided bond between the living and the dead. The Book of Remembrance is kept throughout the month near the baptismal font, and you are invited to enter the names of your loved ones in it. Let us say a prayer and offer Masses for all the departed during this month and live in the hope that one day we will be reunited with our friends and families in the Eternal Home.

By the grace of God, I was able to visit my family in India after five years. Several times I planned to visit home and even booked the flight; however, different issues led to the cancellation at the last minute. This time Fr. Abraham, OIC encouraged me to plan a trip and offered his support. I spoke to Msgr. Walden who permitted Fr. Abraham, OIC to stay at St. Ignatius to cover my duties.

Fr. Francis, OIC consented to be "Acting Pastor" and managed the parish well with Fr. Benjamin and Fr. Abraham. I am grateful to our priests and staff for working double time on my behalf. As many people have asked about my family, I am including their pictures here. Let us continue to do everything for God's greater glory and the salvation of souls.

In Jesus and Mary,

Fr. Shibi Pappan

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

When it comes to money, I'm a worrier. Just ask my husband how I reacted when he had the audacity to pay for shipping! I shop carefully, armed with coupons. I've always been a saver, making sure to contribute to retirement, life insurance, and the "what-if-the-roof-comes-down" fund. Being fiscally responsible is a good thing, but the quest for financial security as the ultimate good is a fool's errand. God is the true provider of all that we need, and what we have finds its fulfillment in service to him. The widows in today's readings knew that too well. In the first reading, a mother and son are down to their last bites of food, facing starvation and death. Yet she gives her last morsels to the prophet Elijah. In the Gospel, the widow gives generously, not of her surplus, but of her entire livelihood. Both women exhibit utter and complete trust in God, and a generosity that knows no bounds. As we study today's Scripture, they teach the worriers among us that God will and does provide, and that the more we give away, the greater our reward in this life and the next.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Do you ever get that knock on the door from a Cub Scout selling popcorn just when you're about to put dinner on the table or run out to a ballgame? Or perhaps you already have a full calendar and suddenly a neighbor really needs your help with an errand or a household emergency - and there goes a whole afternoon! Today's readings invite us to set aside whatever "sticks we are gathering" and welcome the "Elijah moments." They encourage us to give a bit of ourselves away, whether it's time, money, or attention. In doing so, we give witness to the paradox of the Christian life - that the more we give away the more we are rewarded. We also set a positive example for our children and others, who will see our generosity in action.

SERVE Even the budgeters among us can do this! Look ahead at your budget. In addition to regular expenditures and giving, look at something you can sacrifice - a meal out, a new sweater, a movie night - and decide as a family how you would like to use the extra money and/or time to help others.

Growing in FAITH™

Discovering hope and joy in the Catholic faith.

November 2021

One Minute Meditations

Happiness

As a loving Father, God wants us to be happy. True happiness is: "Joy and beatitude over receiving the fulfillment of our vocation as creatures: a sharing in the divine nature and the vision of God. God put us into the world to know, love, and serve Him, and so come to the happiness of paradise" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, # 1720). The happiness the world offers doesn't last, but the happiness God offers is forever.

Nurture faith

Spiritual growth doesn't stop with formal religious education. To know God better, start with the Bible and consider adding spiritual reading. (Hint: ask a priest for recommendations.) Read so that you may learn more about God's ways.

Patience makes sense

Don't be tempted to compare yourself to others. God's plan for you is unique. "Be still before the Lord, and wait patiently for him; fret not yourself over him who prospers in his way" (Psalm 37:7).

Prepare for an amazing truth

At Christmas we celebrate the truth that God came and lived among us. What's even more amazing is that He will come again at our death or at the end of the world, whichever comes first. To help us prepare, the Church created the season of Advent, beginning this year on November 28. It is a watchful time during which we can ...

Live intentionally. If you knew that Jesus would come for you tomorrow, how would you spend today? Chances are you would devote the day to asking and granting forgiveness, spending time with loved ones, and preparing your heart for your Savior.

Try to live each day that way.

Pack light. Acquire graces rather than goods. The graces come along when Jesus calls for you, but the goods stay behind. "But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?'" (Luke 12:20).

Straighten up. If Jesus came for you tomorrow, you would need to be in a state of grace to go with Him. Prepare now by never missing Mass, going to Confession regularly, performing heartfelt penance, and avoiding sin so that you'll be ready to greet Jesus with joy anytime. The truth is, Jesus really could come tomorrow – or even today!

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics honor saints?

Canonization is the process through which the Church acknowledges that, after an extensive investigation, a person demonstrated extraordinary virtue and is now in Heaven, face-to-face with God. Saints are offered to us as spiritual guides to lead us to God.

The saints were real people who faced problems similar to our own. They allowed God's grace to transform them. When we are facing difficulties, trials, and temptations, we can look to the saints and be encouraged by their faithfulness.

Thankfulness is good for the health

Studies show that people who are thankful are less likely to be depressed or unhappy, and find they enjoy simple pleasures like sunsets and good health. Here is how you can join them ...

Calculate your ratio. For three days straight, keep track of how many times you think grateful thoughts versus complaining. This is your Grateful to Grumbling Ratio. The higher your G2G Ratio, the happier you will be.

Gather inspiration. Ask others what inspires their gratitude. You will probably discover something for which you can also be thankful but haven't thought of.

Fast. Forgo something you like such as food, TV, the internet. It will make you thankful for it when you get it back.

Guard the company you keep. Attitudes are contagious. Do the people around you encourage gratitude or griping? Consider changing your environment or your friends to lean toward gratitude.

Detach. Have you noticed that the people who have the least seem the happiest? Take stock of your possessions. Keep only what you need.

from Scripture

Luke 21:25-28, 34-36, the Advent of hope

The virtues of patience and perseverance aren't strengths for most of us. Often the concerns of daily life overshadow our pursuit of holiness. We can get lured into sin by the comforts and pleasures the world has to offer. We can forget our ultimate goal is Heaven. Knowing this, Jesus warned His followers about the end times, hoping to shake them (and us) out of "drowsy" complaisance.

Imagine the terrifying scene Jesus described - the shaking of the earth, sea, and sky and people dying of fright. In the midst of that terror, though, people living in God's friendship will have no reason to fear. The key is, He said, to stay on guard against sin and worldly pleasure.

Advent is a time of waiting for the coming of Christ. God has promised us that if we are faithful to Him, we will be rewarded. This is a time when we must pray for patience and perseverance to keep us ready for the arrival of our Savior. Then we can hold our heads high and stand confident expecting our promised reward.

Q & A Is our belief in Purgatory rooted in the Bible?

In the Old Testament, the Jewish leader Judas Maccabee required his soldiers to offer prayers and sacrifices for dead comrades who died wearing "magic" amulets in service of pagan gods - a serious violation of the covenant. "Turning to supplication, they prayed that the sinful deed might be fully blotted out"

(Maccabees 12:42). By offering prayers on their behalf after their death, Judas Maccabee demonstrated his faith that the prayers could still benefit the dead.

In the New Testament, Jesus speaks of the sin of blasphemy against the Holy Spirit that won't be forgiven in this life or in the next (Matthew 12:32). We conclude that other sins are forgiven in the next life.

If we die in God's friendship but still have attachment to venial sin, purification will be necessary. It is difficult to see a beautiful landscape through a dirty window. To enjoy the view, the window must be cleaned. Likewise, Purgatory cleans us up so we can enjoy the view, in this case, the beatific vision of God.

Feasts & Celebrations

November 17 - St. Elizabeth of Hungary (1231). The daughter of the King of Hungary, she married at the age of 14. Her beloved husband was killed after only six years of marriage. She joined the Secular Franciscan Order and spent her life caring for the poor.

November 21 - Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. God promised his people a king who will be triumphant over their enemies. Jesus is our King. In Baptism and Confirmation, we are brought under His kingship.

November 22 - St. Cecilia (230). A native of Rome, St. Cecilia was forced to marry although she wanted to consecrate herself to God. She eventually converted her husband and both were martyred for the faith.

November 28 - First Sunday in Advent. During Advent, we prepare to celebrate Jesus' coming at Christmas 2,000 years ago at Bethlehem. For four weeks, we light candles in an Advent wreath and recall that Jesus is the "Light of the world" (John 8:12).

VETERANS DAY PRAYER

Lord God, Almighty Father, creator of mankind and author of peace, as we are ever mindful of the cost paid for the liberty we possess, we give thanks today for our veterans, and ask you to bless the members of our armed forces and their families. Give them the courage, hope and strength. May they ever experience your firm support, gentle love and compassionate healing. Be their power and protector, leading them from darkness to light. May their dedication and willing to risk all, never be forgotten. To You be all glory, honor and praise, now and forever. Amen.

Prayer for Generosity

ST. IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA

Lord,
teach me to be generous.
Teach me to serve you
as you deserve;
to give and
not to count the cost,
to fight and
not to heed the wounds,
to toil and not to seek for rest,
to labor and
not to ask for reward,
save that of knowing that I do your will.

THIRTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Bulletin Reflection: In today's Gospel, we hear the story of the widow's mite. Although the widow gave a gift to the treasury worth only a few cents, Jesus states that because it was as much as she could give, it was worth more than all the other (larger) gifts.

Stewardship - Pillar of Formation: As we enter the month of November, give thanks to God for all He has done for you. Consider making a gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal, and help your brothers and sisters in need.

Rincón de Clero

Tanto la primera lectura como el Evangelio hablan de las viudas, que dieron todo lo que tenían. La generosidad de las viudas es sobresaliente porque ambas se encontraban en una situación difícil con recursos sumamente escasos. Sin embargo, de lo poco que poseían, estaban dispuestas a darlo todo por el servicio de Dios. Ciertamente, sus sacrificios fueron sumamente aceptables para el Señor. La viuda, que apoyó a Elías, recibió ayuda a cambio de un suministro milagroso de harina y aceite que los sostuvo a ella y a su hijo durante el período de sequía. La viuda, que ofreció monedas en el templo, fue alabada por Jesús y aseguró que su ofrenda era sumamente valiosa a los ojos de Dios. Por lo tanto, el valor de un regalo no está en su cantidad y calidad, sino en la cantidad de amor con que se da y en la magnitud del sacrificio que se hace. La ofrenda que Dios quiere de nosotros no es solo nuestro apoyo financiero a nuestra comunidad de fe, sino, lo que es más importante, nuestro corazón y nuestra vida. Como familia parroquial, tenemos la bendición de tener varios voluntarios que han aportado sus talentos, tesoros y tiempo para la edificación de San Ignacio. Planeamos organizar un "Día de Agradecimiento a los Voluntarios" el sábado 20 de noviembre, con la Santa Misa a las 5:00 de la tarde, seguido de una reunión con comida y amistad. Consulte el boletín para obtener más detalles.

El Día de Todos los Santos se celebró el 31 de octubre en la Misa de las 9:30 de la mañana. Veintidós niños se disfrazaron de santos y compartieron sus pensamientos sobre sus santos favoritos. Gracias, Rosemary Cassese y Katelyn Tuzzolo, por preparar a los estudiantes de primer grado. Gracias, Rev. Sean Magaldi, por celebrar la "Santa Misa de los Niños" para los alumnos de séptimo y octavo grado a las 11:00 de la mañana. La presencia de Nivia Soto, Sue Cleary, Joe Panarelli y otros maestros muestra su amor por Dios y los niños, y agradecemos a los padres y familias por apoyar a sus hijos con su ejemplo al participar en la Santa Misa.

Una vez más, el comité de actividades demostró sus habilidades organizativas al organizar una fiesta de despedida para el P. Frank, quien ha sido parte de esta parroquia durante los últimos tres años. Ahora lo trasladan a la Iglesia del Santo Redentor en Freeport. Estoy agradecido por su ministerio y le deseo lo mejor con la nueva residencia.

Celebramos nuestra Misa Anual Conmemorativa de Todos los Santos el martes 2 de noviembre a las 7:30 de la tarde. Quiero agradecer a Pam Flannigan y al equipo del Ministerio de Consolación, que han planeado y llevado a cabo muchos funerales de oración por los muchos fallecidos fielmente, y dar la bienvenida a esas familias a este servicio conmemorativo especial. El Altar Conmemorativo, el Libro de la Vida y el Libro del Recuerdo nos permitieron expresar nuestro amor y anunciar el vínculo indiviso entre los vivos y los muertos. El libro de recuerdos se guarda durante todo el mes cerca de la pila bautismal, y se le invita a ingresar los nombres de sus seres queridos en él. Hagamos una oración y ofrezcamos misas por todos los difuntos durante este mes y vivamos con la esperanza de que algún día nos reuniremos con nuestros amigos y familiares en el Hogar Eterno.

Por la gracia de Dios, pude visitar a mi familia en la India después de cinco años. Varias veces planeé ir a casa e incluso reservé el vuelo. Sin embargo, diferentes cuestiones llevaron a la cancelación en el último minuto. Esta vez el P. Abraham OIC me animó a planificar un viaje y me ofreció su apoyo. Hablé con Mons. Walden, quien permitió al P. Abraham OIC para quedarse en St. Ignatius para cubrir mis deberes. P. Francis OIC consintió en ser "párroco interino" y administró bien la parroquia con el P. Benjamin y el P. Abrahán. Agradezco a nuestros sacerdotes y al personal por trabajar el doble de tiempo en mi nombre. Como muchas personas han preguntado por mi familia, estoy incluyendo su foto aquí.

Continuemos haciendo todo por la mayor gloria de Dios hermano y familia padre hermana y familia y la salvación de las almas.

En Jesús y María, el

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Evangelio del Domingo

Lectura del santo evangelio según san Marcos (12,38-44):

En aquel tiempo, entre lo que enseñaba Jesús a la gente, dijo: «¡Cuidado con los escribas! Les encanta pasearse con amplio ropaje y que les hagan reverencias en la plaza, buscan los asientos de honor en las sinagogas y los primeros puestos en los banquetes; y devoran los bienes de las viudas, con pretexto de largos rezos.

Éstos recibirán una sentencia más rigurosa.»

Estando Jesús sentado enfrente del arca de las ofrendas, observaba a la gente que iba echando dinero: muchos ricos echaban en cantidad; se acercó una viuda pobre y echó dos reales.

Llamando a sus discípulos, les dijo: «Os aseguro que esa pobre viuda ha echado en el arca de las ofrendas más que nadie. Porque los demás han echado de lo que les sobra, pero ésta, que pasa necesidad, ha echado todo lo que tenía para vivir.»

Palabra del Señor

Gloria a ti Señor Jesus

Sabiduría católica diaria

Hoy los envío con mi Misericordia a las personas de todo el mundo. No deseo castigar a la humanidad dolorida, sino curarla, presionándola contra Mi

Corazón Misericordioso.
