OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL—FEAST DAY JULY 16.

Mount Carmel is a biblical place where the prophet Elijah prayed for Israel, which was suffering a terrible drought at the time. Soon Israel got rain and was saved. Elijah saw the cloud as a symbol of the Virgin mentioned in the prophecies of Isaiah. Following the example of Elijah, the hermits who lived on Mount Carmel prayed for the advent of the much-awaited Virgin, who would become the mother of the Messiah.

The origins of the Carmelite Order can be traced back to Elijah and his disciples. In the 13th century, during a pilgrimage to the Holy Land, St. Simon Stock joined a group of hermits on Mount Carmel. He was elected the 6th superior-general of the Carmelites. The order suffered persecution and oppression from secular clergy and other orders. The monks sought the intercession of the Blessed Virgin. On Sunday July 16th, 1251, Our Lady appeared to Simon Stock who was kneeling in prayer. She was holding the Child Jesus in one arm and the Brown Scapular in the other. She uttered the following words: “Hoc erit tibi et cunctis Carmelitis privilegium, in hoc habitu moriens salvabitur” (This shall be the privilege for you and for all the Carmelites, that anyone dying in this habit shall be saved). On January 13, 1252, the order received a letter of protection from Pope Innocent IV, defending them from harassment. As the patroness of the Carmelite Order, the title Our Lady of Mount Carmel, or Virgin of Carmel, was given to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel is a miniature derivative of the actual brown scapular used by the Carmelites, which is worn as a sign of their vocation and devotion. Our Lady gave St. Simon a scapular for the Carmelites with the following promise, saying, “Receive, My beloved son, this habit of thy order: this shall be to thee and to all Carmelites a privilege, that whosoever dies clothed in this shall never suffer eternal fire...It shall be a sign of salvation, a protection in danger, and a pledge of peace.” On receiving the message “I, the Mother of Grace, shall descend on the Saturday (Sabbath) after their death and whomsoever I shall find in Purgatory, I shall free, so that I may lead them to the holy mountain of life everlasting.” from The Blessed Virgin in a vision related to those who wear the Brown Scapular, Pope John XXII issued the apocryphal Bull “Sacratissimo uti culmine” on March 3, 1322. As per Church tradition, three conditions are to be fulfilled to obtain the benefits of this Sabbatine Privilege attached to the wearing of the Brown Scapular :

1. Wear the Brown Scapular
2. Observe chastity according to one's state in life
3. Pray the Rosary

Prayer to Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Thou who, with special mercy, look upon those clothed in thy beloved Habit, cast a glance of pity upon me. Fortify my weakness with thy strength; enlighten the darkness of my mind with thy wisdom; increase my faith, hope and charity. Assist me during life, console me by thy presence at my death, and present me to the August trinity as thy devoted child, that I may bless thee for all eternity in Paradise. Amen.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I don't know about you, but even for the quickest of errands I don't like to leave my house without my smartphone. Nor would I go on a road trip without my trusty mini-Diet Coke and a snack or two. So I'm struck by what Jesus tells the Apostles when he sends them on their mission to share the Good News: "He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick - no food, no sack, no money in their belts." While it may be hard for us to imagine striking out with only the sandals on our feet, to me this reading is more about what the Apostles did have than what they went without: They had a companion (Jesus sent them two by two) and the spiritual blessings Saint Paul refers to, including a relationship with Jesus and absolute trust in him. Today's readings remind us to set aside distractions and spend time deepening our relationship with Jesus through prayer, reading the Scriptures, and participating in the sacramental life of the Church. In doing so, we, too, can join in the mission of the early disciples by giving our lives to Jesus and sharing his message with others.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

I find the phrase "the new evangelization" somewhat ironic. After all, evangelization is not new, it goes back to the earliest days of the Church, which wouldn't exist had it not been for the disciples. The "new" part reminds us that we today also share in this mission. The U.S. Catholic bishops describe it succinctly: "The New Evangelization calls each of us to deepen our faith, believe in the Gospel message and go forth to proclaim the Gospel." This call is both simple, and challenging, but we don't have to be perfect. After all, just as God called Amos, a humble shepherd, and Jesus called the Twelve, a motley group of fishermen, he calls us. Like them, our first "task" isn't a task at all - it is placing God and our relationship with Jesus at the center of our lives. Only then can we effectively share the Gospel with others, inviting our brothers and sisters to a life in Christ - to become part of God's adopted family.

WITNESS At the end of Sunday Mass, we often hear the words: "Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life." As we are sent forth, let us ask God to show us how we can share the Gospel with others during the week ahead. Then pay attention to where the Spirit leads us in answering our prayer.

ST.IGNATIUS YEAR CORNER

Rigorous ascetic life at Manresa

Ignatius lived for about a year, the decisive months of his career, from March 25, 1522, to mid-February 1523 in Manresa, a town 48 km (30 miles) from Barcelona, begging for his food. He ate and drank sparingly, scourged himself, and for a time neither combed nor trimmed his hair and did not cut his nails. He attended Holy Mass daily, and for several months spent much of his time in prayer, often in a cave outside Manresa. Eventually he did chores at a local hospital in exchange for food and lodging, and practiced rigorous asceticism, praying for seven hours a day in the cave, and formulating the fundamentals of his Spiritual Exercises .

Ignatian Spirituality: Daily Self Exam

Jesus knows all our sins better than we do. But telling it to Him in confession, encourages us to get to the root of our failures of the past, in the best possible way, correct them now, and avoid them in the future in whichever way possible. In the Confiteor we say, “ I have greatly sinned in my thoughts, in my words ,in what I have done and in what I have failed to do..” St. Ignatius writes we should do this in our daily self examen “Then you will think over the different hours or the different occupations of the day, examining your thoughts, words, actions, or omissions.” Once we go for a good confession, this practice of daily self examen, will help us to be in the right track of life. Through this self examen, we can analyze whether our thoughts, words, and actions have imitated Christ or whether we have gone astray. In fact, we can talk to Him about what we felt, said and did, and even the responses of others to us in all those situations. This self accounting of our lives in God’s presence will eventually bring us very close to Him, even without our knowledge. We have to constantly put an effort to visualize living a life right in front of God to improve ourselves.

Stewardship

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Bulletin Reflection:

In today's Gospel, Jesus summons the Twelve Apostles and sends them forth to preach the Good News, drive out demons and heal the sick.

Living Stewardship ~ Pillar of Hospitality:

As stewards of the Faith, we are called to preach the Good News to all we come across. We are also called to take care of the sick as well, as the disciples were in today's Gospel. This week, reach out to a friend who is sick (maybe "sick" with loneliness or even homesick) and comfort them with your friendship.

LOOKING FOR A FEW GOOD MEN AND WOMEN

Our parish is in desperate need of adult altar servers for the Funeral Masses held here at St. Ignatius. This is a wonderful, worthwhile service ministry not to just the parish, but to those families during a very sad time of their lives. We serve as a two member team at each Funeral Mass. There is some brief training involved. We need men and women to serve in this capacity. Our goal is to gain enough volunteers so no one would have to serve more than a couple of times each month. Typically, Funeral Masses are held on Monday through Saturday mornings. If you are able to help and would like to be a part of this ministry, we really need your help. Please contact me, Carol Hogan at hoags10@optonline.net or at 516-987-4011. I would love to hear from you and to add you to our ministry. Thank you.

The Religious Education Office will be closed from July 1 to August 31.

You can register online at the parish website www.stignatiushicksville.org on the home page under 2021-2022 Online Registration Faith Formation

BE A CATECHIST

Religious Education is looking for the following teachers for this coming school year (2021-2022): If you wish to volunteer, please call Colleen at 935-6873.

- 2 teachers for 2nd Level
- 1 teacher for 3rd Level
- 1 teacher for 4th Level
- 1 teacher for 6th Level

If you have any questions during the summer, you can email Colleen at colleentuzzolo@gmail.com or call the office at 935-6873. Someone will be in the office over the summer periodically to check the messages. We hope all of our families have a restful and safe summer!

Meditaciones breves

Dios es la corriente de la vida

"Cada uno de nosotros es simplemente una pequeña herramienta.

Cuando se observa el mecanismo interno de los aparatos eléctricos, a menudo se ven alineados cables pequeños y grandes, nuevos y viejos, baratos y caros. No habrá luz hasta que la corriente pase por ellos. Usted y yo somos esos cables. La corriente es Dios". Madre Teresa

Decir "no" no es pecado

A muchos de nosotros nos resulta difícil decir "no". Como no queremos decepcionar a nadie, decimos "sí" hasta que terminamos abrumados, desencantados e insatisfechos. Recuerde que no es pecado decir "no". Dios necesita obreros, pero los quiere dispuestos y alegres. Nuestro "sí" debería proceder de un corazón entusiasta por hacer su obra.

"Amarás al Señor tu Dios con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma y con toda tu mente. Éste es el gran mandamiento, el primero".

Mateo 22:37-40

Ámense unos a otros, especialmente a quienes son distintos

En un tiempo de divisiones políticas y culturales cada vez más amplias, es fácil perder de vista la dignidad de la gente que es distinta a nosotros. Pero como cristianos católicos, sabemos que Jesús nos pide que consideremos a todos como una familia.

"Ámense cordialmente con amor fraterno, estimando a los otros como más dignos" (Romanos 12:10).

Traten a los demás con bondad, no porque ellos sean bondadosos, sino porque ustedes lo son. Es fácil ser bondadoso con quienes amamos y respetamos. Es crucial ser bondadoso con la gente que no nos gusta o que no conocemos. La mejor forma de ofrecer bondad es cuando no se espera nada a cambio.

No se crezcan empujando a los demás. A nadie le impresiona un bravucón. Traten a los hijos de Dios con honor, amor y respeto.

Practiquen la empatía. Las reacciones de la gente suelen reflejar sus circunstancias. Eviten juzgar y ofrezcan en cambio la consideración que a ustedes les gustaría recibir.

Cuando sea posible, encuéntrense en persona en lugar de en la red. Las redes sociales facilitan que estemos en contacto, pero son también el modo más rápido de dañar las relaciones. Debemos ser prudentes con las palabras que usamos, tanto en persona como en la red.

Perdonen a quienes les han ofendido, ayuden a quienes los necesiten. Traten a todo el mundo—ustedes mismos incluidos—con amor y compasión. Cuando tratemos a la gente como queremos ser tratados, la vida mejorará en el acto.

¿Por qué hacen eso los católicos?

¿Por qué rezan los católicos?

La oración es nuestra respuesta a la invitación de Dios: "La oración, sepámoslo o no, es el encuentro de la sed de Dios y de la sed del hombre. Dios tiene sed de que el hombre tenga sed de él" (CIC, #2560). Ese encuentro es nuestra conexión con Dios que nos creó y que quiere una relación cercana y personal con nosotros.

Nuestra relación con él se nutre y se fortalece mediante la oración. Mediante la oración llegamos a conocerlo y a amarlo mejor.

¡Bienvenidos de nuevo a misa!

Ahora que muchas diócesis por todo el país han restablecido la obligación de asistir a misa, honramos de nuevo el domingo como la celebración de la presencia viva de Jesús en medio de su pueblo.

Encuéntrense con él en persona. La Eucaristía es el cuerpo, la sangre, el alma y la divinidad de Jesucristo. Nada suple el tomarlo en nuestros cuerpos para alimentar nuestras almas.

Reciban su protección. El amor y la protección divina llegan a los hijos de Dios mediante el don sobrenatural de la gracia. Cuanto más receptivos seamos—participando activamente en la misa—más disfrutaremos de los beneficios.

Correspondan a su amor. El tercer mandamiento exige que dediquemos el domingo como el día para honrar a Dios. La misa es el modo más importante de cumplir nuestra obligación de mostrar gratitud a Dios.

“Ustedes son mis amigos si hacen lo que yo les mando” (Juan 15:14).

Si les preocupa el riesgo de contagio en el templo, pidan consejo a su médico y a su párroco y pregunten qué otras precauciones pueden tomar.

Juan 6:1-15; Los panes y los peces

Este pasaje evangélico nos recuerda el milagro de la multiplicación de los panes y los peces. La multitud que seguía a Jesús tenía hambre, así que Jesús le preguntó a Felipe dónde podrían conseguir suficiente comida. Felipe calculó que ni siquiera el salario de doscientos días de trabajo bastaría para comprar suficiente comida para todos. Al igual que Felipe, nosotros nos enfrentamos a problemas que pueden parecerse enormes y que nos intimidan.

El apóstol Andrés fue más allá; encontró a un niño con cinco panes de cebada y dos peces. El niño ofreció a Jesús todo lo poco que había traído. Qué sorpresa cuando Jesús dio de comer a cinco mil, “dándoles todo lo que quisieron”. Cuando quedaron satisfechos de pan, ¡aún sobraron doce canastas llenas! Nadie supera a Dios en generosidad. Al enfrentarnos con muchos problemas a la vez podemos sentirnos abrumados. Es fácil reaccionar como Felipe y perder la esperanza. Cuando estamos solos, quizá no tengamos mucho que ofrecer, pero sí ofrecemos lo que tenemos a Dios, él puede hacer algo asombroso con ello.

P & R ¿Qué se espera de los católicos?

Cada hogar tiene unas normas básicas: “Sean respetuosos”, “Limpie lo que ensucien”, etc. Así se beneficia todo el mundo. Lo mismo que cada familia, la Iglesia católica tiene también “normas domésticas”:

Vuelvan al hogar cada fin de semana: “Oír misa entera los domingos y demás fiestas de precepto y no realizar trabajos serviles”. ¡Dios quiere vernos en persona a menudo!

Responsabilícense:

“Confesar los pecados al menos una vez al año”. Como somos propensos al pecado estamos obligados a reconciliarnos con Dios por lo menos una vez al año.

Reconecten: “Recibir el sacramento de la Eucaristía al menos por Pascua”. En la Eucaristía, Jesús nos nutre con su Cuerpo y su Sangre ¡en cada misa!

Practiquen el desapego: El ayuno deja libres nuestros corazones para el amor de Dios.

Ayuden en casa: “Ayudar a la Iglesia en sus necesidades”. Todo ayuda, tanto si donamos dinero, tiempo o recursos. (CIC, #2042-2043)

Fiestas y celebraciones

16 de julio – Nuestra Señora del Carmen (1251). La tradición carmelita sostiene que Nuestra Señora se le apareció a san Simón en el Monte Carmelo y que le dio un escapulario. Llevar uno puesto se ha convertido en una popular forma de honrar a la Bendita Madre.

22 de julio – Santa María Magdalena (siglo I). María Magdalena era la mujer de la que Jesús expulsó seis demonios en el evangelio de san Lucas (Lucas 8:2). Apoyó la misión de Jesús con su propio dinero y estuvo al lado de la Cruz de Jesús junto con su madre. Conocida como el “Apóstol de los Apóstoles”, María quien primero anunció la Resurrección de Cristo a los apóstoles.

25 de julio – Santiago (siglo I). Cuando Jesús llamó a Santiago y a su hermano Juan a que fueran sus apóstoles, los dos abandonaron a su padre en un barco pesquero en el Mar de Galilea. Santiago fue uno de los tres apóstoles que presenciaron la transfiguración de Jesús, la resurrección de la hija de Jairo y la agonía en Getsemaní. Santiago fue el primer apóstol martirizado.

Evangelio del Domingo

Lectura del santo evangelio según san Marcos (6,7-13):

En aquel tiempo, llamó Jesús a los Doce y los fue enviando de dos en dos, dándoles autoridad sobre los espíritus inmundos.

Les encargó que llevaran para el camino un bastón y nada más, pero ni pan, ni alforja, ni dinero suelto en la faja; que llevarsen sandalias, pero no una túnica de repuesto.

Y añadió: «Quedaos en la casa donde entréis, hasta que os vayáis de aquel sitio. Y si un lugar no os recibe ni os escucha, al marcharos sacudíos el polvo de los pies, para probar su culpa.»

Ellos salieron a predicar la conversión, echaban muchos demonios, ungían con aceite a muchos enfermos y los curaban.
