One Family in Mission
Creating Pathways to Faith

Dear Friends:

This past Spring, Pope Francis spoke about the importance of having a prayer life that is complimented with acts of love. He stated, “A small act of pure love is more useful to the Church than all the other works combined.” One way we can perform an act of love is by supporting this year’s Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA). Your gift, given in love to God and neighbor, will help spread Dramatic Missionary Growth across Long Island.

The CMA helps fund the education of our seminarians—the future priests of the Diocese of Rockville Centre. Your gift helps these young men focus on their studies and prayer life, instead of worrying about how they will financially support their education. Last month, I ordained 3 men to the priesthood; your gift helped make that possible and will be remembered for years to come as they offer the Sacrifice of the Mass for generations to come.

Along with the seminarians, the CMA helps hundreds of thousands of Long Islanders each year. Your dollars can be used to help a pregnant mother looking for resources to help her family, a homeless veteran find housing, or an individual struggling with a drug addiction receive treatment. Your gift combined with the gifts of your fellow Long Island Catholics can be life changing for so many people—and be a light of hope for those who are in darkness.

This past year and a half have been difficult for all for us, especially those who have lost loved ones or have suffered severe financial hardships. If you have suffered from those instances, please reach out to your local parish for support and care or call Catholic Charities at 516-733-7000. If you are able to give to the CMA, I ask you to please pray on it and give what you can. I speak for myself and your pastor when I say thank you for your gift. Your generosity and compassion are very much appreciated.

May God bless you and your loved ones.

Sincerely in Christ,

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Portrayals of Jesus as a shepherd who cares for sheep often depict him carrying a sheep on his shoulders or holding a lamb in his arms. Those images are a source of great comfort, as is today’s psalm: “The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.” But they don’t quite capture just what hard work being a shepherd involves: tending to the flock in all kinds of weather, when the pastures are anything but verdant; waking in the wee hours to care for ewes and newborn lambs; watching some thrive and others die; not to mention being the poster child for the oft-quoted “smell of sheep.” The crowd in today’s Gospel lacked such a shepherd to tend and care for them, and thus “[Jesus’] heart was moved with pity for them.” There are times when circumstances and events can trick us into thinking that an earthly power or perfectly-principled worldview will save us. That is when we need the Lord as our shepherd the most. Only he can save us; only he has saved us. So, in those times when we may feel lost, we can bring it all to Jesus in prayer. He is the Shepherd who knows what we need.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

I don’t know about you, but I rarely miss a meal. When I do, I get cranky. And I don’t like crowds of any kind outside of Wrigley Field. So imagine how exhausted Jesus and the disciples must have felt when, because crowds followed them day and night, they had “no opportunity even to eat.” Even when they tried to get away and rest awhile, a vast crowd appeared. Rather than turn away, however, Jesus began to teach them – for they were hurting and in need of his care. Today’s Gospel encourages us to be shepherds to one another, keeping others close. Pope Francis said it well during Holy Week 2013: “Following Jesus means learning to come out of ourselves ... to be the first to take a step toward our brothers and our sisters, especially those who are the most distant, those who are forgotten, those who are most in need of understanding, comfort and help.” As we ourselves have been led by the Shepherd, we reach out to others who are in need of care.

ACCOMPANY Find ways, large or small, to “tend the flock” of your family, parish, workplace or community: Write a note to a person who is grieving, invite a quiet co-worker to lunch, provide a listening ear to children or aging parents, introduce yourself to a newcomer at your parish.

THE MIRACLE OF THE MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD IN CROATIA

As we are in the month of July, traditionally dedicated to the Most Precious Blood of Jesus, let us try to know more about the Eucharistic Miracle of Croatia, where the wine got transformed into Blood .

In 1411, while celebrating Mass in the private chapel of Count Battyhany at Ludberg, Croatia, during the consecration of wine, the priest had a doubt on the process of transubstantiation. The wine in the chalice turned to blood, and the priest hid the chalice in the wall behind the main altar and as he was terrified, he kept it as a secret. On his deathbed, he confided in a friend. The relic of the miracle was taken to Rome, where it remained for several years, and the facts connected with the Eucharistic miracle were investigated by a commission, in the early 1500s, during the pontificate of Pope Julius II . However, the people of Ludbreg and the surrounding area, made pilgrimages to the castle chapel. Pope Leo X published a Bull on April 14, 1513, permitting veneration of the holy relic .He himself had carried the relic in procession through the streets of Rome, several times, and many people testified that they had received marvelous cures while praying in its presence. The relic was later returned to Croatia.

In the 18th century, northern Croatia was ravaged by a plague. During the session held on December 15, 1739 in the capital city of Varazdin, the Government issued a decree to build a chapel at Ludbreg in honor of the miracle if the plague ended. The plague was averted, but the promised vow was fulfilled, only in 1994, when democracy was restored in Croatia.

The chalice is on display in the main church. A copy of the Papal Bull and a copy of the Government Decree are in the Chapel of the Holy Cross where the miracle took place. Even today, thousands of the faithful are drawn by the precious relic of the miraculous Blood, and every year to commemorate the miracle, at the beginning of September the so-called “Sveta Nedilja - Holy Sunday” is celebrated for an entire week in honor of the Eucharistic miracle .

History behind the devotion to the Precious Blood of Jesus in the month of July

The feast of the Precious Blood of our Lord was instituted in 1849 by Pius IX .That year, during the First Italian War for Independence, Pope Pius IX went into exile to Gaeta. Don Giovanni Merlini, third superior general of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who was with him, suggested to the Pope, that he create a universal feast to the Precious Blood to beg God’s heavenly aid to end the war and bring peace to Rome. On June 30, 1849, to fulfill the vow made at Gaeta, Pius IX instituted a feast in honor of the Precious Blood on July 1, and extended the feast to the whole Church. Later the feast was removed from the church calendar in 1969, and incorporated to the feast of Corpus Christi. But to remember His blood spilt not only on the Cross but also in the Circumcision, Agony in the Garden of Gethsemane, Scourging at the Pillar of Flagellation, and the Crowning with Thorns, the feast was reinstated.

Lord Jesus, You became Man in order by your Passion and Death and the draining of your Blood on the Cross, might prove to us how much You, our God, love us. Protect us, dear Jesus, from ever running away from the sight of blood. Strengthen our weak human wills so that we will not only run away from the cross, but welcome every opportunity to shed our blood in spirit in union with your Precious Blood, so that in dying to ourselves in time we might live with You in Eternity. Amen

LOOKING FOR A FEW GOOD MEN AND WOMEN

Our parish is in desperate need of adult altar servers for the Funeral Masses held here at St. Ignatius. This is a wonderful, worthwhile service ministry not to just the parish, but to those families during a very sad time of their lives. We serve as a two member team at each Funeral Mass. There is some brief training involved. We need men and women to serve in this capacity. Our goal is to gain enough volunteers so no one would have to serve more than a couple of times each month. Typically, Funeral Masses are held on Monday through Saturday mornings. If you are able to help and would like to be a part of this ministry, we really need your help. Please contact me, Carol Hogan at hoags10@optonline.net or at 516-987-4011. I would love to hear from you and to add you to our ministry. Thank you.

The Religious Education Office will be closed from July 1 to August 31.

You can register online at the parish website www.stignatiushicksville.org on the home page under 2021-2022 Online Registration Faith Formation

BE A CATECHIST

Religious Education is looking for the following teachers for this coming school year (2021-2022): If you wish to volunteer, please call Colleen at 935-6873.

ST.IGNATIUS YEAR CORNER

Visions during the Sojourn at Manresa

St. Ignatius experienced a series of visions at day time, while at the hospital in Manresa. These visions were repetitive, and appeared as "a form in the air near him and this form gave him much consolation because it was exceedingly beautiful ... it somehow seemed to have the shape of a serpent and had many things that shone like eyes, but were not eyes. He received much delight and consolation from gazing upon this object ... but when the object vanished, he became disconsolate." He interpreted these visions as diabolical in nature. One day when he was sitting on the banks of the Cardoner River, "the eyes of his understanding began to open and, without seeing any vision, he understood and knew many things, as well spiritual things as things of the faith" (Autobiography, 30). He recorded his thoughts and experiences in a journal.

Ignatian Spirituality: Particular Exam

Ignatius declares that "(the particular exam) goes direct to the predominant sin or vice of our character; in order to vanquish its enemies, it begins by isolating them and attacks them one by one." Particular Exam is a Spiritual warfare - a battle against a particular sin. We have to keep track of how often we commit the sin which we are working to eradicate, so that we could systematically overcome that failure. A particular exam might need weeks or months. We have to spend time in analyzing the origins and "roots" of those habits/faults from our early life. Then we have to find out what triggers that now, and check whether there is any pattern of failure. We may feel that there is no progress at all, and the process can be slow and painful, but trust that if God wills it, it will happen. Real progress happens by deepening our relationship with Jesus, and by our constant efforts.

Human Services extends a heart-felt "Thank You!" to all the Parishioners who have been donating food to the pantry over the past weeks. Thanks to everyone's generosity, we are overstocked with spaghetti, pasta and cereal! The pantry could use the following:

18 oz. jars of peanut butter, jelly, canned fruit, rice, canned kernel corn, canned black and red beans, chick peas, pasta sauce, tomato sauce and canned tomato products. Unfortunately, we are still not accepting clothes at this time. Donations can be left in the baskets located in the vestibules of the church or brought directly to us at Human Services on Mondays, Tuesdays or Thursdays between 9:30 am and 5 pm (we're closed for lunch from 12 noon to 1 pm on those days).

Queridos hermanos y hermanas:

La primavera pasada, el Papa Francisco habló sobre la importancia de tener una vida de oración complementada con obras de caridad. Nos dijo: "un pequeño acto de amor puro es más útil a la Iglesia que todas las demás obras juntas.". Un acto de amor que podemos hacer es contribuir a la Campaña de Apoyo a los Ministerios Católicos de este año -CMA por sus siglas en inglés-. Su donativo, entregado con amor a Dios y al prójimo, propagará el Dramático Crecimiento Misionero en todo Long Island.

La CMA ayuda a financiar la educación de nuestros seminaristas, que son los futuros sacerdotes de la Diócesis de Rockville Centre. Su donativo ayuda a estos jóvenes a concentrarse en sus estudios y en su vida de oración, aliviándoles así la preocupación de cómo solventarían su educación. El mes pasado, ordené a 3 nuevos sacerdotes; su donativo no sólo ayudó a que esto fuera posible, sino que también será recordado en el futuro, cuando estos sacerdotes ofrezcan el Sacrificio de la Santa Misa a las generaciones venideras.

Además de ayudar a los seminaristas, la CMA ayuda cada año a cientos de miles de personas de Long Island. Su donativo podría ayudar a una madre embarazada que busca asistencia para su familia, podría ayudar a un veterano desamparado que busca encontrar una vivienda asequible o podría ayudar a una persona que busca tratamiento para vencer su adicción a las drogas. Su donativo junto con los donativos de otros feligreses católicos de Long Island puede cambiar la vida de muchas personas y ser una luz de esperanza para quienes están en la oscuridad.

Este último año y medio ha sido muy difícil para todos, especialmente para aquellos que han perdido a seres queridos o han sufrido graves dificultades económicas. Si usted se encuentra en situación precaria, comuníquese con la parroquia más cercana a su domicilio o llame a Caridades Católicas al 516-733-7000. Si se encuentra en posición de hacer un donativo a favor de la CMA, en oración pida la guía de Dios y contribuya de acuerdo a sus posibilidades. A nombre mío y de su párroco agradezco su donativo. Muchas gracias por su generosidad, compasión y apoyo. Que Dios los bendiga a usted y a su familia, Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,

Sinceramente en Cristo,

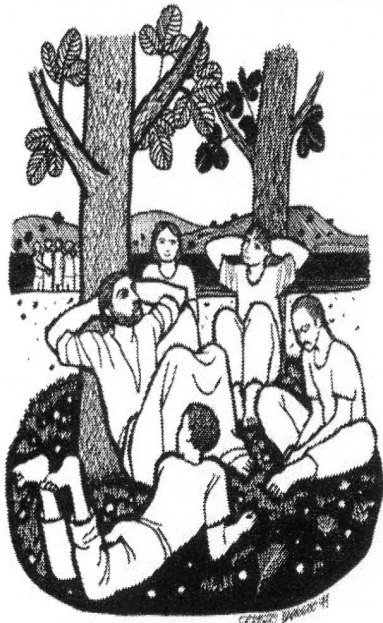

Muy Reverendo John O. Barres
Obispo de Rockville Centre

¡Gracias!

Evangelio del domingo

Lectura del santo evangelio según san Marcos (6,30-34):

En aquel tiempo, los apóstoles volvieron a reunirse con Jesús y le contaron todo lo que habían hecho y enseñado.

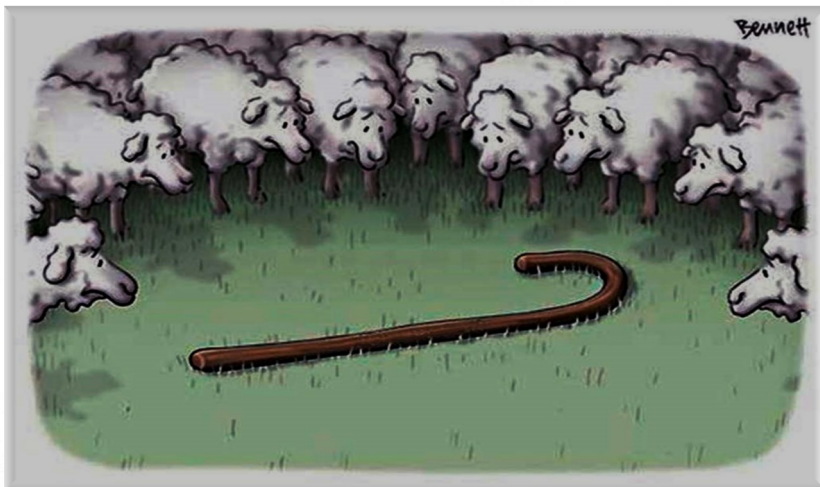

Él les dijo: «Venid vosotros solos a un sitio tranquilo a descansar un poco.»

Porque eran tantos los que iban y venían que no encontraban tiempo ni para comer. Se fueron en barca a un sitio tranquilo y apartado. Muchos los vieron marcharse y los reconocieron; entonces de todas las aldeas fueron corriendo por tierra a aquel sitio y se les adelantaron. Al desembarcar, Jesús vio una multitud y le dio lástima de ellos, porque andaban como ovejas sin pastor; y se puso a enseñarles con calma.

Palabra del Señor

Gloria a ti Señor Jesus
