WE BELIEVE

For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him might not perish but might have eternal life. (Jn.3:16)

Responsorial Psalm

The hand of the Lord feeds us,
He answers all our needs.

WE WELCOME

With joy we welcome all to worship God. Let us lift up our minds, hearts and spirits to our loving and merciful God, from whom all good things come, and thank and praise Him.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Social Friendship

We pray that, in social, economic and political situations of conflict, we may be courageous and passionate architects of dialogue and friendship.

We Pray...

For our Sick

Jennifer Lentini, Carolyn Fitzgerald, Florence Morris, Joanne Mulligan, Joe Giordano, Antonio Esposito, Michael Krummenacker, Ann Fisher. Bendirck Nacua, Glen Smith, Cathy Stengl, Lawrence O'Donnell, John Fiore, Pauline Agatha Flasco, John Hyde, Timothy Mulligan, Jacqueline Perez, Denise Simek, Theresa Simek, Hurethya Nathan, Thomas Denier, Chuck Hoffman, Arthur Marks, Rita Bergin

Heavenly Father, we lift up all who are going through various sickness. Have compassion on them, and lay Your healing hands on them. We pray that You would restore their health, soothe their pain and ease their worries. Give them Your peace and comfort them as they wait. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Get well soon...

Names will be kept on the Prayer for the Sick List for three weeks, unless a family member calls to extend the time.

For our Birthday Celebrants

Of the month of July

May God bless you abundantly.

For our dearly departed.

Nicholas Sassone

Just as Jesus died and has risen again, so through Jesus, God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep; and so also in Christ will all be brought to life.

Eternal Rest grant unto them O Lord, And let perpetual light shine upon them.

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen .

We pray for their mourning families also.

Merciful Father, comfort all those whose hearts overflow with grief, as they face this sense of loss. May they know the consolation of Your love. We ask this Christ our Lord .Amen.

For our Military.

Almighty Father, give them courage and strength against all enemies, both spiritual and physical. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they do to protect this land and us. Keep them safe in Your loving hands .We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A COMPARATIVE LOOK ON THE TWO FEEDINGS OF MULTITUDE MIRACLES

Comparison Factor	First Miracle	Second Miracle
Gospels recorded	Recorded in all four Gospels	Recorded in the Gospel of Matthew and Mark.
Location	Near Bethsaida, close to the Sea of Galilee.	In the region of the Gerasenes, in the region around the Decapolis.
Region	Jewish	Gentile
Number of people fed	5000	4000
People were seated on	Grass	Ground
Initial food used	5 barley loaves and 2 fish	7 loaves and a few small fish
Leftovers	12 baskets	7 baskets
Number of days people were with Jesus	1 day	3 days
Deeper meaning	Twelve baskets of fragments collected is parallel to twelve tribes of Israel.	The number seven is symbolic of completeness which is representative of all humanity and not just the Jews.

SIMILARITIES BETWEEN THE TWO MIRACLES

1. Both happened in deserted places.
2. Jesus had compassion on the multitude.
3. Jesus decided to intervene.
4. Jesus ordered the crowd to be seated.
5. Jesus expressed gratitude to God.
6. Jesus broke the bread, gave it to the disciples, who in turn gave it to the crowds.
7. All the people ate and were satisfied.
8. Leftovers were collected.
9. Both reveal Jesus' power as the Messiah, through his limitless capacity, to satiate the needs of the people.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I once saw Tony Melendez, a musician born without arms, play his guitar for the pope - with his feet - and I knew I had witnessed something exceptional, something extraordinary. We may be feeling the same way about some of the Olympic performances taking place right now. But however amazed Tony Melendez or an Olympic medal performance might make us feel, it is hard to imagine what it must have been like to experience Jesus taking a few barley loaves and fish, blessing them, and somehow feeding more than 5,000 people. How Great Thou Art, indeed! Participating in this miracle was life-changing for those who realized what Jesus had done. They were convinced, on the spot, that Jesus was a prophet, and were ready to carry him away as a king. But Jesus did not come to be an earthly king, he came to give his life for us, that we might have life with him in abundance.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

One boy gives up his lunch and Jesus feeds thousands - and there were twelve wicker baskets with fragments left over! Think of how God can multiply our gifts. Perhaps there are times we fail to share what we have, thinking it is too small to make a difference; thinking that what we bring to feed others can't possibly be worth anything. Sure, what usually happens with us isn't on a scale like today's Gospel passage, and our offering may not be "Olympic" in nature. But in sharing our gifts as Jesus calls us to - to love our neighbor and to do "small things with great love" as St. Teresa of Calcutta is purported to have said - there is no such thing as a gift or talent too small. Ask the Holy Spirit for fortitude as you strive to share your gifts.

ACTION Perhaps it's time to contact someone who has been on your mind lately. A seemingly small gesture of concern may be just the support they need right now. With the help of the Holy Spirit, perhaps you may be a source of affirmation for them, providing a catalyst that helps them discern their path more clearly.

Prayer to St. Anne and St. Joachim

Dear Saint Anne and Saint Joachim, parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary,
and grandparents of Jesus,
our Divine Savior, have pity on thy loving and trusting client,
and listen to the petition which I present before thee.

Oh, blessed Saints, thou art both most dear to the Heart of Jesus, Whose beloved Mother was thy own tender, devoted child! Can He refuse anything to thee, in whose veins the same blood flowed which afterwards furnished the precious price of our Redemption? Great Saints, nothing was impossible to thy power and influence over the young Jesus "Who grew and waxed strong, full of wisdom" under the maternal care of thy glorious Daughter, the Queen of Heaven and Earth.
In mercy and compassion, be like unto Him "Who went about doing good," and come to the aid of thy servant in my great necessity!

Saint Anne, Saint Joachim, beloved parents of Mary, "our life, our sweetness and our hope," pray to her for me and obtain my request. Amen.

World Day for Grandparents and elderly on Sunday, July 25,2021

Pope Francis established this celebration on the fourth Sunday of July, throughout the Church , each year beginning in 2021. The theme Chosen by the Holy Father for this first World Day is " I am with you always." (Matthew 28:20)

A Prayer for Grandparents

Heavenly Father, may Saints Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Your Son, Jesus, be an everlasting model for grandparents. Your Wisdom and Word are eternal, meant for generations. Help grandparents, we pray, as they pass on the rich traditions of the faith to their beloved family members, especially their grandchildren. We are all Your children. Help us to know You better each day, ultimately leading us, with our family members, into eternal life with You. Amen.

LOOKING FOR A FEW GOOD MEN AND WOMEN

Our parish is in desperate need of adult altar servers for the Funeral Masses held here at St. Ignatius. This is a wonderful, worthwhile service ministry not to just the parish, but to those families during a very sad time of their lives. We serve as a two member team at each Funeral Mass. There is some brief training involved. We need men and women to serve in this capacity. Our goal is to gain enough volunteers so no one would have to serve more than a couple of times each month. Typically, Funeral Masses are held on Monday through Saturday mornings. If you are able to help and would like to be a part of this ministry, we really need your help. Please contact me, Carol Hogan at hoags10@optonline.net or at 516-987-4011. I would love to hear from you and to add you to our ministry. Thank you.

BE A CATECHIST

Religious Education is looking for the following teachers for this coming school year (2021-2022): If you wish to volunteer, please call Colleen at 935-6873.

- 2 teachers for 2nd Level
- 1 teacher for 3rd Level
- 1 teacher for 4th Level
- 1 teacher for 6th Level

The Religious Education Office will be closed from July 1 to August 31.

You can register online at the parish website www.stignatiushicksville.org on the home page under 2021-2022 Online Registration Faith Formation

If you have any questions during the summer, you can email Colleen at colleentuzzolo@gmail.com or call the office at 935-6873. Someone will be in the office over the summer periodically to check the messages. We hope all of our families have a restful and safe summer!

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Bulletin Reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus multiplies a couple fish and barley loaves to feed five thousand people. What seemed impossible for the Apostles (feeding such a large group of people), was made possible by Jesus.

Living Stewardship ~ Pillar of Formation

Sometimes, we tend to look at things with only our human understanding. The difficulties we face, may lead us to despair and doubt. We need to learn to trust in Jesus and believe that He can help us through any problem we face.

ST.IGNATIAN YEAR CORNER

Pilgrimage to Jerusalem

In March 1523, Ignatius left Barcelona and traveling by way of Rome, Venice, and Cyprus, reached Jerusalem on September 4. Though he wanted to settle there permanently, the Franciscan custodians of the shrines of the Latin church would not listen to this plan. Ignatius left Palestine on October 3, after visiting Bethany, the Mount of Olives, Bethlehem, the Jordan River, and Mount of Temptation. In March 1524, he came back to Barcelona, via Cyprus and Venice .

Ignatian Spirituality: Ignatian way of Catholic Pilgrimage

Traditionally, Catholics make pilgrimages to holy places. To be in the spirit of St. Ignatius' pilgrimage means an encounter with God. This means, Pilgrimage should be a daily undertaking, as it is a desire to encounter the living God in every person we meet, and in every place. When we love our forgotten co-worker, the person in the street, or even our enemy, we are encountering God. God has designed history, geography, prayer, tradition, and our own gifts to be in places where there is a sacred meeting. When we are in a place, we are participating in what happened there in a mystical way. In fact the holiness of a place depends on what happened there. To be a true pilgrim, we have to control our wandering mind, and be in the place with full concentration. Pilgrimage reveals not only knowledge and wisdom about the site itself, but also knowledge and wisdom about the pilgrim who lingers at the site. True pilgrimage is made when we linger with our mind, memory, emotions, gifts, and sensuality to wherever we are and connect with the graces God has hidden there.

Human Services extends a heart-felt "Thank You!" to all the Parishioners who have been donating food to the pantry over the past weeks. Thanks to everyone's generosity, we are overstocked with spaghetti, pasta and cereal! The pantry could use the following:

18 oz. jars of peanut butter, jelly, canned fruit, rice, canned kernel corn, canned black and red beans, chick peas, pasta sauce, tomato sauce and canned tomato products. Unfortunately, we are still not accepting clothes at this time. Donations can be left in the baskets located in the vestibules of the church or brought directly to us at Human Services on Mondays, Tuesdays or Thursdays between 9:30 am and 5 pm (we're closed for lunch from 12 noon to 1 pm on those days).

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Evangelio del domingo
Lectura del santo evangelio según
san Juan (6,1-15):

En aquel tiempo, Jesús se marchó a la otra parte del lago de Galilea (o de Tiberíades). Lo seguía mucha gente, porque habían visto los signos que hacía con los enfermos. Subió Jesús entonces a la montaña y se sentó allí con sus discípulos. Estaba cerca la Pascua, la fiesta de los judíos.

Jesús entonces levantó los ojos, y al ver que acudía mucha gente, dice a Felipe: «¿Con qué compraremos panes para que coman éstos?» Lo decía para tentarlo, pues bien sabía él lo que iba a hacer. Felipe contestó: «Doscientos denarios de pan no bastan para que a cada uno le toque un pedazo.»

Uno de sus discípulos, Andrés, el hermano de Simón Pedro, le dice: «Aquí hay un muchacho que tiene cinco panes de cebada y un par de peces; pero, ¿qué es eso para tantos?»

Jesús dijo: «Decid a la gente que se sienta en el suelo.» Había mucha hierba en aquel sitio. Se sentaron; sólo los hombres eran unos cinco mil. Jesús tomó los panes, dijo la acción de gracias y los repartió a los que estaban sentados, y lo mismo todo lo que quisieron del pescado.

Cuando se saciaron, dice a sus discípulos: «Recoged los pedazos que han sobrado; que nada se desperdicie.»

Los recogieron y llenaron doce canastas con los pedazos de los cinco panes de cebada, que sobraron a los que habían comido.

La gente entonces, al ver el signo que había hecho, decía: «Éste sí que es el Profeta que tenía que venir al mundo.»

Jesús entonces, sabiendo que iban a llevárselo para proclamarlo rey, se retiró otra vez a la montaña él solo.
