THE FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

In our house, we know we've got a situation when we run out of bread. It's the staff of life, yes, but also the stuff that makes toast, goes with soup or salad, and smells so good when we bake it ourselves. So perhaps some of us can relate to the Israelites in the first reading as they "grumbled against Moses and Aaron," before the Lord promised to "rain down bread from heaven for [them]." On a deeper level, perhaps we also truly understand the importance of what Jesus tells his disciples in today's Gospel: that the bread from heaven which the Father gives will not only satisfy their physical hunger, but give life to the world. Jesus says, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst." Just as the disciples heartily responded "give us this bread always," today's readings encourage us to long not only for all good gifts from the Father, but specifically for that one, unique gift of the Son whose nourishment to us in the Eucharist transforms us and "gives life to the world."

ACTION Paul's Letter to the Ephesians admonishes his listeners to "put on the new self, created in God's way in righteousness and holiness of truth." As we begin each day this week, we can pray for the grace to "put on a new self" and let go of those things that get in the way of our own holiness.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Like many Catholics, I attended Mass online for much of 2020 and the first half of 2021. Initially, it seemed like enough, and I was immensely grateful for the opportunity to hear the Word of God, see the Lord in the Eucharist, and to receive him spiritually. However, as we began to return to church this past spring, I truly felt the enormity of what I had been missing: receiving the Eucharist, and doing so within a community. As we hear Christ's words in the bread of life discourse over the next few Sundays, the magnitude of God's gracious gift should become ever more apparent. When we receive the Eucharist at Mass, we partake in the body and blood of Jesus, sharing in the divine banquet that leads us to everlasting life, and drawing closer to Jesus and to one another in the process. Nourished by his presence within us, we can then go out and share the bread of life with others. What that looks like will differ for each of us, but ultimately it is all for the purpose of accomplishing the works of God: believing in the One he sent and giving witness to that belief in all we say and do.

Dear brothers in Christ,

We celebrate this August 4th, the feast of Saint John Vianney (born Jean-Baptiste-Marie Vianney; 8 May 1786 - 4 August 1859), Patron Saint of parish priests. He is often referred to as the "Curé d'Ars." His priestly zeal and pastoral work brought about spiritual transformation of the community he served and its surroundings. He is an encouragement to all of us to persevere in ministry and bring healing to our people in the sacrament of Confession, devotion to the Holy Eucharist and love for our Blessed Mother Mary.

"Thank you for showing me the way to Ars... I will show you the way to Heaven." We may be familiar with the story of how St. John Vianney asked for directions to his new parish assignment. Upon reaching his new post he thanked the young villager who gave him directions and then informed him, "I will show you the way to Heaven." His years of ministry as a parish priest accompanied the people of his parish and beyond to know Jesus Christ and journey to Heaven. How blessed we are to have wonderful people to minister to as priests. We are so grateful for the willingness of our parishioners and other good people to assist us with administration of our parishes or special ministries.

We are now emerging from a very difficult period and time of trial due to the Covid Pandemic. We have much work to do to serve Jesus and His people. It will not be easy. The example of St. John Vianney can inspire us to trust the Lord will work through us to help God's people return to Mass and full participation in the life of the Church. We are aware of the pew surveys that inform us there is confusion and misunderstanding on the meaning of the Eucharist. Now is our time as St. John Vianney did in his time to transform the lives of others in Christ through the priestly ministry entrusted to us by Jesus through His Church.

Happy feast day brothers! May St. John Vianney intercede for us and the people we are called to serve. As a priest now for 30 years, wherever my assignments have sent me within or outside of Rockville Centre, I give great thanks for the honor to be a brother priest with you. In my role as an auxiliary bishop and vicar assisting our diocesan bishop, Bishop John O. Barres, I am always happy to be in your presence and pass on to the bishop the great work you are doing for God's people.

May the Lord bless our bishop and each other in our priestly ministry.

Fraternally,

+Robert J. Coyle

Today we ask for our patron to pray for us.

Prayer of St. John Vianney

I love You, O my God, and my only desire is to love You until the last breath of my life. I love You, O my infinitely lovable God, and I would rather die loving You, than live without loving You. I love You, Lord and the only grace I ask is to love You eternally... My God, if my tongue cannot say in every moment that I love You, I want my heart to repeat it to you as often as I draw breath.

We invite...

A prayer
for priests

"O Jesus, our great High Priest, hear my humble prayers on behalf of your priests. Give them a deep faith, a bright and firm hope and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of their priestly life..."

Feast of the Transfiguration

August 6

Feast of the Dedication of the Basilica of St. Mary Major, August 5

St. Mary Major, located on the summit of one of Rome's seven hills, the Esquiline Hill, is the largest church in the world honoring God through Mary, and is one of the four Roman basilicas known as patriarchal churches in memory of the first centers of the Church. St. Mary's, is the See of Antioch, where Mary is supposed to have spent most of her later life. At the order of Pope Liberius, the basilica was built in the mid-fourth century, and was rebuilt by Pope Sixtus III.

Till 1960, this feast was called the Dedication of the Basilica of St Mary of the Snows. According to a legend, a wealthy Roman couple, who were without heirs, pledged their fortune to the Mother of God. In affirmation, she produced a miraculous summer snowfall and in a vision on the same night, told them to build a church on the site. The couple built the basilica in honor of Mary on the very spot that was covered with snow. So this legend was long celebrated under the name of Our Lady of the Snows, and at the conclusion of the Solemn Mass in the basilica, a shower of white rose petals were released from the basilica's dome on every August 5. On the same day, at sunset, an artificial "snowfall" is staged as a tourist attraction in the square outside the basilica.

Prayer to Our Lady of Snows.

Oh Mary, lady of the greatest heights, teach us to climb the holy mountain of life in Christ. Guide us along the paths of God, marked by your maternal footprints. Teach us the path of love, that we might always live in love. Teach us the path of joy, that we might bring joy to others. Teach us the path of patience, that we might welcome everyone in generosity. Teach us the path of goodness, that we might serve our brothers and sisters in need. Teach us the path of simplicity, that we might enjoy the beauties of creation. Teach us the path of meekness, that we might bring peace to the world. Teach us the path of fidelity, that we might never tire of doing good. Teach us to raise our eyes to the heights, so as to never lose from our sight the final goal of our lives: eternal communion with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Take, Lord, and receive all my liberty,
my memory, my understanding,
and my entire will,
All I have and call my own.

You have given all to me.
To you, Lord, I return it.

Everything is yours; do with it what you will.
Give me only your love and your grace,
that is enough for me.

-St. Ignatius' traditional suscipe prayer

ST. IGNATIUS YEAR CORNER

Decision to study

Ignatius, who in his Autobiography refers to himself as the “pilgrim,” describes his decision to acquire as good an education as the circumstances permitted. “After the pilgrim had learned that it was God’s will that he should not stay in Jerusalem, he pondered in his heart what he should do and finally decided to study for a time in order to be able to help souls” (Autobiography, 50).

Ignatian Spirituality: 4 Principles of Pilgrimage that apply to the life of each one of us.

⇒ Pilgrimage presents itself, but we decide to go or stay.

Ignatius chose to reflect on his life and understand what God was saying to him. His pilgrimage truly began with his willingness to begin. God does not force us for anything, but invites us—through circumstances, through our intuition, through our gifts and opportunities, even through our trials. It’s up to us to make the decision to begin, and to make the daily decision to continue.

⇒ The pilgrim path never goes in a straight line.

We dream of something, but are guided, step by step, to another one. At each step, we should make discernment based on faith, though we cannot see the next step. This is how it is supposed to be.

⇒ God uses our mistakes, our lack of knowledge, and our weaknesses all along the way.

Just as God knew every weakness, every sin, and every desire of Ignatius and used them, God knows everything about each one of us as well. God knows our wounds, fears, talents and desires, and He uses all of it, making us capable of His mission on earth.

⇒ We learn by walking.

God cannot direct us if we are not doing anything at all, in our fear and over-caution, and our need to know every detail before acting. Ignatius was never passive or inactive. He stumbled and made mistakes and God simply redirected him through circumstances, prayer, and the counsel of others. He does the same with all of us.

St. Ignatius Birthplace and conversion place.

St. Ignatius was born in 1491 in Azpeitia in the Basque Province of Guipuzcoa in Northern Spain.

LOOKING FOR A FEW GOOD MEN AND WOMEN

Our parish is in desperate need of adult altar servers for the Funeral Masses held here at St. Ignatius. This is a wonderful, worthwhile service ministry not to just the parish, but to those families during a very sad time of their lives. We serve as a two member team at each Funeral Mass. There is some brief training involved. We need men and women to serve in this capacity. Our goal is to gain enough volunteers so no one would have to serve more than a couple of times each month. Typically, Funeral Masses are held on Monday through Saturday mornings. If you are able to help and would like to be a part of this ministry, we really need your help. Please contact me, Carol Hogan at hoags10@optonline.net or at 516-987-4011. I would love to hear from you and to add you to our ministry. Thank you.

The Religious Education Office will be closed from July 1 to August 31.

You can register online at the parish website www.stignatiushicksville.org on the home page under 2021-2022 Online Registration Faith Formation

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Bulletin Reflection Today's First Reading speaks of the bread that came down from God to the Israelites. This bread nourished them on their journey. Today's Gospel speaks of Jesus' Body, which is the Bread of Life.

Living Stewardship ~ Pillar of Formation

Whenever you receive Communion, remember that the Eucharist you consume is the actual Body of Christ. Always approach the Lord with a humble, penitent and grateful heart: He is giving Himself to you!

Parish Blood Drive

Thank you Bart for organizing the Blood drive. Thank you parishioners, friends and volunteers for making it a big success.

If you want to receive our newsletter, please sign up on our website or give your email address to the parish office or to one of the ushers.

Please visit regularly our Website and Facebook to keep updated about upcoming events, photos of the events of our parish etc.

The month of August is traditionally dedicated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Prayer to The Immaculate Heart of Mary

O Immaculate Heart of Mary, refuge of sinners, I beg of you by the infinite merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and by the graces God has granted to you since your Immaculate Conception, the grace of never going astray again. Mary, my Mother, keep me, a sinner, constantly bathed in the light of your Immaculate Heart. Amen.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.

MESSAGE FROM THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

MEMBER PROFILE: DIANE BROUSSEAU

United in prayer and action, may we become a visible sign of Christ and may we give witness to His boundless love which reaches out to all and draws them to love one another in Him.

My name is Diane Brousseau and I have lived in Hicksville for 46 years. I have always believed in doing whatever we can to help others. As early as I can remember there was always an opportunity for community service if you were open to it; whether it was a Carnival in the backyard, Religious Education teacher at Our Lady of Mercy Parish, and while my 3 boys were of school age, being a PTA Chairperson/Officer and Cub Scout Den Mother. The boys are now grown and have families of their own and I am blessed to be Grandma (aka Mimi) to 5 wonderful grandchildren.

Twenty-five years ago, as my PTA days were winding down, I was invited to join The Kiwanis Foundation of Hicksville. It was through Kiwanis that I began my relationship with Human Services here at St. Ignatius. Over the years Kiwanis, has partnered with Human Services on special events like monthly birthday parties and 3 Kings Celebration, Thanksgiving Meal and the Christmas in July Food Drive. Proving once again there is always an opportunity for service.

My next opportunity came four years ago when I heard that St. Vincent de Paul Society at St. Ignatius was looking for new members. There I found a group of like-minded people who believed in helping our neighbors in need. Whether it's a home visit to assess furniture needs or delivering food or helping with a bill payment or just reaching out to a neighbor who needs someone to listen or someone to pray with, the members of St Vincent de Paul are available to provide assistance. We all have different talents and experiences to bring to the table and together we find creative ways to help our neighbors.

I am inviting you to make difference in a neighbor's life and at the same time make a difference in your own life. If you would like to make a donation or learn more about how you can volunteer with the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Conference, please contact any one of the members found on our conference web page on the St. Ignatius de Loyola web site.

FOCUS ON RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

Religious Freedom Rights Attacked: an Eagle Scout and a Police Officer

"Only two defining forces have ever offered to die for you: Jesus Christ and the American Soldier; One died for your soul; the other died for your freedom."* <sup>(1)</sup>

An Eagle Scout Project honoring America's veterans is under fire for mentioning Jesus Christ on a memorial in Monument, Colorado. Sixteen year old Michael Carlson created the memorial as a tribute to his grandfather and father and it sits in the towns cemetery, where the family purchased the burial plots on which it sits. "Michael saw veterans were underrepresented here. He didn't go to the government and say 'Fix this.' He decided to fix it himself," said Monument Mayor Wilson.<sup>(2)</sup>

The anti-religion group, Military Religious Freedom Foundation (MRFF) objected to the memorial plaque and demanded that it be altered or removed from the public cemetery. The town retained First Liberty Institute to defend the memorial. "Your attack on a minor who simply intended to honor our veterans is profoundly disrespectful to all involved," wrote First Liberty council in a recent letter to MRFF.<sup>(3)</sup>

It's not yet clear whether private ownership of the cemetery plots where the memorial stands will be enough to ward off a lawsuit from MRFF.

A Kentucky police officer was suspended for 4 months with pay but without any much needed overtime hours in February when, while off-duty and before dawn, he prayed the Rosary alone with his father for less than an hour in front of an abortion center. When he started his patrol duty later that morning, he was ordered to report in and placed on leave pending an investigation.

"We are happy for the officer that the Louisville Police Department finally did the right thing and put a good policeman back on the streets.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Evangelio del domingo

Lectura del santo evangelio según san Juan (6,24-35):

En aquel tiempo, al no ver allí a Jesús ni a sus discípulos, la gente subió a las barcas y se dirigió en busca suya a Cafarnaún.

Al llegar a la otra orilla del lago, encontraron a Jesús y le preguntaron: «Maestro, ¿cuándo has venido aquí?»

Jesús les dijo: «Os aseguro que vosotros no me buscáis porque hayáis visto las señales milagrosas, sino porque habéis comido hasta hartaros. No trabajéis por la comida que se acaba, sino por la comida que permanece y os da vida eterna. Ésta es la comida que os dará el Hijo del hombre, porque Dios, el Padre, ha puesto su sello en él.» Le preguntaron: «¿Qué debemos hacer para que nuestras obras sean las obras de Dios?»

Jesús les contestó: «La obra de Dios es que creáis en aquel que él ha enviado.»

«¿Y qué señal puedes darnos –le preguntaron– para que, al verla, te creamos? ¿Cuáles son tus obras? Nuestros antepasados comieron el maná en el desierto, como dice la Escritura: "Dios les dio a comer pan del cielo."»

Jesús les contestó: «Os aseguro que no fue Moisés quien os dio el pan del cielo. ¡Mi Padre es quien os da el verdadero pan del cielo! Porque el pan que Dios da es aquel que ha bajado del cielo y da vida al mundo.»

Ellos le pidieron: «Señor, danos siempre ese pan.»

Y Jesús les dijo: «Yo soy el pan que da vida. El que viene a mí, nunca más tendrá hambre, y el que en mí cree, nunca más tendrá sed.»

San Pedro encadenado

La Iglesia celebra en este día la liberación de San Pedro de las cadenas con que le tenía prisionero Herodes. Después de haber matado al apóstol

Santiago, Herodes encarceló a Pedro y pensó en presentarlo al pueblo después de la Pascua, según relatan los Hechos de los Apóstoles. La misma fuente cuenta cómo un ángel penetró en la celda a pesar de estar custodiada por guardias y soltó las cadenas del preso dejándolo libre. Pedro se presentó en casa de uno de sus discípulos y llamó para que le abriesen aunque nadie podía creer que fuese él y que estuviese en libertad. Herodes, en uno de sus célebres arrebatos, mandó ejecutar a los soldados que habían dejado escapar al apóstol.
