Just as Jesus died and has risen again, so through Jesus, God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep; and so also in Christ will all be brought to life. Eternal Rest grant unto them O Lord, And let the perpetual light shine upon them.

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen .

We pray for their mourning families also.

Merciful Father, comfort all those whose hearts overflow with grief, as they face this sense of loss. May they know the consolation of Your love. We ask this through Christ our Lord . Amen.

For our Military.

Almighty Father, give them courage and strength against all enemies, both spiritual and physical. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they do to protect this land and us. Keep them safe in Your loving hands .We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

As I began reading the Gospel for today, I initially thought, “Here we go - those hypocritical Pharisees are at it again! They are always questioning Jesus, always judging others, and always looking for ways to make themselves look ‘holier’ than everyone else.” Uh oh; then I realized that I was feeling pretty smug as I judged the Pharisees! Sadly, it can be easy for me to fall into a “Pharisee attitude,” thinking I “walk blamelessly and do justice” when really I am just deluding myself. While Jesus uses this encounter to point out the hypocrisy of the Pharisees, he also calls the crowd to a greater understanding of the source of evil in their lives, “From within people, from their hearts, come evil thoughts.” Maybe I need to hear these words, too, and examine my own thoughts and actions before judging others.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

St. James provides an answer to combating the evil we discover in our hearts: “Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls.” The Word, Jesus, came to us and has given us the way to free ourselves from the evil within. Our relationship with him is the key. We know we are to “be doers of the word and not hearers only.” We have the Holy Spirit to help us stay close to him and access his saving power that transforms our hearts to reflect his goodness and truth. It requires us to humbly assess and own the things we need to change; and to turn to him for guidance so that we may have nothing within us – no evil thoughts, greed, malice, envy or arrogance (etc.) – to defile us. Only then are we most free in Christ – truly free to “care for orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained by the world.”

PRAY The Daily Examen, created by St. Ignatius of Loyola, is an ideal way for growing closer to Jesus and seeking his guidance. Suggested for the day’s end, this prayerful reflection helps you recognize God’s presence in the day’s events, assess your thoughts and behavior, ask for his help in growing in goodness, and discern his plans for you.

ST. IGNATIUS YEAR CORNER

Early days in Paris

Though many people, dissuaded Ignatius from going to Paris, because of the war between Spain and France, Ignatius took leave with his few books upon a little ass. He reached Paris on February 2, 1528, and remained there as a student until 1535. He lived on alms - in 1528 and 1529, from Spanish merchants in Flanders, and in 1530, from England.

Ignatian Spirituality of detachment or “indifference”

Ignatius, in his First Principle and Foundation, talks about “making use of those things that help to bring us closer to God and leaving aside those things that don’t.” He urges us to seek this freedom of detachment or indifference. By “indifference”, Ignatius meant enough detachment from things, people, or experiences, to be able either to take them up or to leave them aside, depending on whether they help us to praise, reverence, and serve God” (Spiritual Exercises 23). In other words, it’s the ability to keep a balance in life and to let go of what doesn’t help to love God or love others—while staying engaged with what does. The grace of detachment is in fact a fruit of prayer, which helps us to overcome our fears and worries, and trust God no matter what happens. It is the thought that “God’s grace will be enough for me.” This grace-filled detachment brings deep peace and trust in God, despite the fear that can accompany a situation. For Ignatius, irrespective of richness or poverty, health or sickness, in an assignment of enjoyment or not, comfortable or not, etc., one should be in a state of spiritual indifference, which enables one to continue to live the Gospel life without anxiety or possessiveness, and irrespective of circumstances should have a sense of spiritual joy by seeking only God's will.

LOOKING FOR A FEW GOOD MEN AND WOMEN

Our parish is in desperate need of adult altar servers for the Funeral Masses held here at St. Ignatius. This is a wonderful, worthwhile service ministry not to just the parish, but to those families during a very sad time of their lives. We serve as a two member team at each Funeral Mass. There is some brief training involved. We need men and women to serve in this capacity. Our goal is to gain enough volunteers so no one would have to serve more than a couple of times each month. Typically, Funeral Masses are held on Monday through Saturday mornings. If you are able to help and would like to be a part of this ministry, we really need your help. Please contact me, Carol Hogan at hoags10@optonline.net or at 516-987-4011. I would love to hear from you and to add you to our ministry. Thank you.

Religious Education

BE A CATECHIST

Religious Education is looking for the following teachers for this coming school year (2021-2022): If you wish to volunteer, please call Barbara at 935-6873.

- 2 teachers for 2nd Level
- 1 teacher for 3rd Level
- 1 teacher for 4th Level
- 1 teacher for 6th Level

The Religious Education Office will be closed from July 1 to August 31.

You can register online at the parish website www.stignatiushicksville.org on the home page under 2021-2022 Online Registration Faith Formation.

If you have any questions, you can email Mrs. Barbara Malerba at bmalerba@aol.com or call the office at 935-6873. Someone will be in the office over the summer periodically to check the messages. We hope all of our families have a restful and safe summer!

We welcome into the Family of God and to our Parish Family here at St. Ignatius Loyola the following new members baptized in July:

- Benjamin Trivino
- Matthew Luis Velasquez
- Evelyn Rose Martinez Ranchos
- Maurizio Gastello
- Lea Michelle Maier
- Katy Nicole Garcia
- Sofia Osorio
- Marcos Daniel Osorio
- Megan Canales Moreno
- Danna Camila Fernandez Moreira
- Alexander Ignacio Valencia

WEAR YOUR MASK
EVEN IF YOU ARE VACCINATED

As per the guidelines of CDC, we encourage parishioners to continue to wear a mask to protect those who have not been vaccinated or cannot be vaccinated. We want everyone who comes here to pray, to feel that they are in a safe environment.

JANE'S GARDEN

What is Jane's Garden? It is a volunteer organization that strives to beautify the ground around Saint Ignatius. To be a volunteers do not need to have any special skills. If you can plant, water or weed, you can adopt a garden.

OUR HISTORY

Established in 1990, originally called "Adopt-a-Garden", it was founded by Jane Schreiber, who was a lifelong Hicksville resident and parishioner at St. Ignatius, who volunteered as the Religious Coordinator and member of the Martha Group. During the 1990's the gardens received some recognition in newsprint:

- May 1992 - Article in Hicksville Illustrated
- April 1995 - Article in LI Catholic
- October 1995 - Gardens receive national recognition in the U.S. Parish newsletter

In Nov. of 1997, the ministry was changed to "Jane's Garden Family" to honor Jane after her death. Soon thereafter Roberta Ruggio headed the ministry, She headed for a short time until Judy and Gene Sebastiano took over the ministry. The gardens were In Judy's words:

" I feel that the exterior grounds give a sign of the feeling of welcome that is inside. To beautify the outside of our place of worship, a small portion of this world that God has given us, brings joy to all of us. I guess you'd say we have bloomed where we have been planted."

In 2008, Msgr. Bittermann Garden (later called the Prayer Garden) was pretty barren; The Boys Scouts as part of an Eagle Scout Project, beautified the area and statues of the Holy Family, St. Ignatius Loyola, the Crucifix, and the benches were added so people would be able to sit and pray. Over the years, there have been many Eagle Scout projects that have beautified the grounds around our parish.

In 2009, the Hispanic community joined together, dubbed the "7:15 Mass Worshippers" , to adopt and beautify the large garden behind the convent, bordering the back of the church parking lot.

In 2011, the Stations of the Cross were newly erected. Judy and Gene put out a request for gardeners to beautify the areas around the Stations of the Cross; the Boy Scouts and three families planted in the gardens around the Stations

By the Spring of 2014, thirty families were involved in Jane's Garden Family. The Prayer Garden (Msgr Bitterman Garden) was beautified by Michael Crayne as an Eagle Scout Project. This garden was subsequently adopted by the Crayne family.

As a ministry we are grateful for the support we have received from Terry Meyer of Meyer's Farms in Woodbury, who for many years has been generous with donations of annuals and perennials

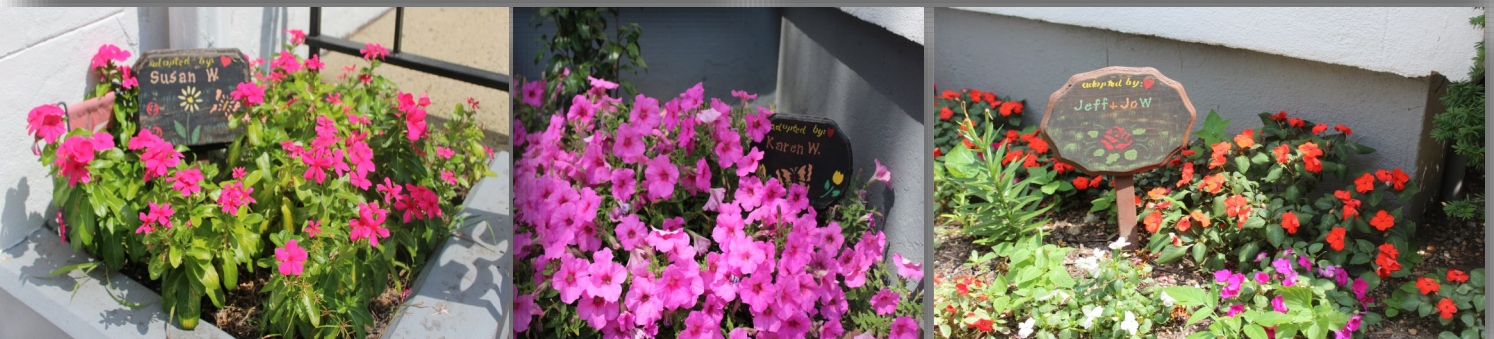

In 2018, I was asked to assist Judy and Gene with the ministry as they were finding it difficult to continue being the coordinator. But as many of you may know, the Sebastianos continued to be active in Jane's Garden. Judy was very talented and created all of the wood signs that adore our gardens.

In March of 2021, I last walked with Judy through the gardens and she pointed to the many varieties of plants and flowers that adored the grounds. I did not know it at the time, but it was July's way to say "Good-bye". Sadly, Judy is no longer with us and she will be missed.

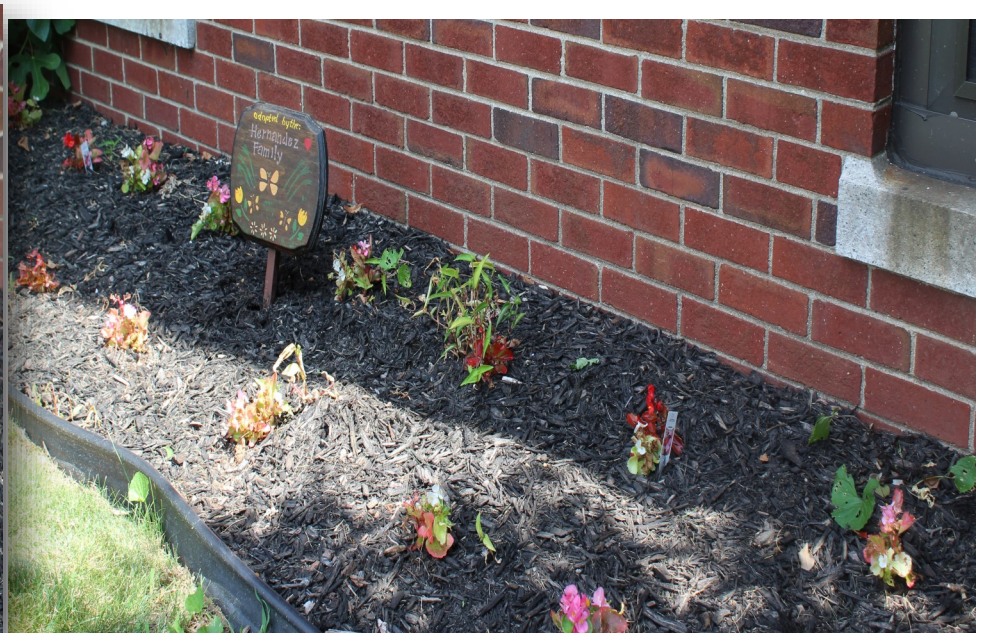

Please take a moment to walk the gardens after mass or when you need a few minutes to reflect.

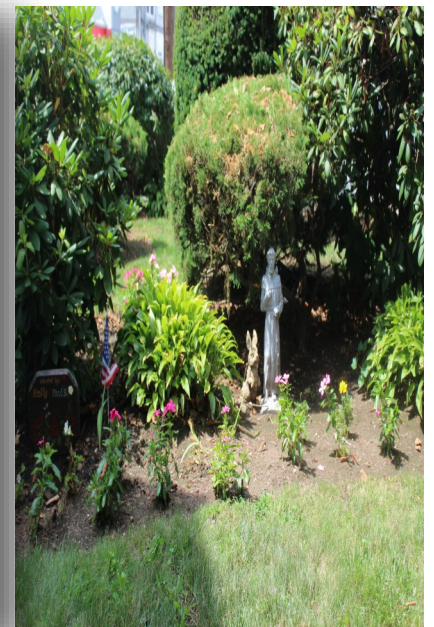

Thank You and God Bless, Bart Coppola

P.S: Enjoy some glimpses of our gardens. More pictures to come in later bulletins.

ALL FOR THE GREATER GLORY OF GOD. St. Ignatius of Loyola

Congratulations St. Ignatius CYO (Catholic Youth Organization) Basketball team for securing second place in the very competitive alumni summer basketball league. These boys have played CYO basketball together since 4th grade. We thank CYO Long Island for this opportunity, and family and friends for the support. Special congratulations and thanks to Maria Pitonza for coaching the team.

Please note that our deadline to receive articles, photos, and news items is the Monday of the week. As there is limitation for space, this will help to prioritize the matter, the selection process and set the bulletin on time.

Catholic Cemeteries of Long Island

Serving the Catholic community across Long Island since 1856

September 11th Mass of Remembrance

Date: Saturday, September 11, 2021 ; Scan QR Code for RSVP Form

Time : 1:00 PM

Location: Cemetery of the Holy Rood ;

Celebrant: Bishop John O. Barres

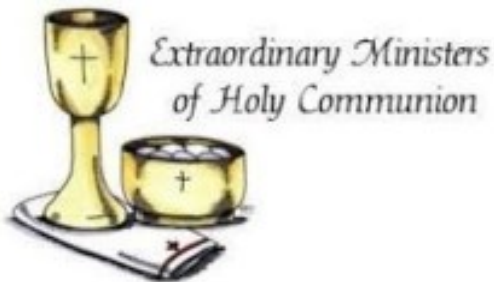

Bishop John O. Barres will preside over a special Mass as part of the 20th year remembrance of the September 11th terrorist attacks. The Mass will be celebrated outdoors at Cemetery of the Holy Rood by the cemetery's September 11th Memorial, which serves as a place of solace, reflection and tribute to the lives that were tragically lost.

For more information, please visit www.CCLongIsland.org.

Catholic Cemeteries of Long Island invites all families to join us as we pray and remember all those who were lost as a result of this tragedy. If you are planning to attend, please RSVP by Monday, August 30th by completing the RSVP form on our website or by sending an email to Memorials@CCLongIsland.org with your name and the number of attendees. Recognizing that some family members may be elderly and/or need assistance, we urge you to plan in advance and consider arriving 20-30 minutes early. Parking may be some distance from the September 11th Memorial where the Mass will be held. Please note that seating at this outdoor service will be limited and cannot be guaranteed nor reserved in advance.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Evangelio del domingo

Lectura del santo evangelio
según san Marcos

(7,1-8.14-15.21-23):

En aquel tiempo, se acercó a Jesús un grupo de fariseos con algunos escribas de Jerusalén, y vieron que algunos discípulos comían con manos impuras, es decir, sin lavarse las manos. (Los fariseos, como los demás judíos, no comen sin lavarse antes las manos restregando bien, aferrándose a la tradición de sus mayores, y, al volver de la plaza, no comen sin lavarse antes, y se aferran a otras muchas tradiciones, de lavar vasos, jarras y ollas.)

Según eso, los fariseos y los escribas preguntaron a Jesús: «¿Por qué comen tus discípulos con manos impuras y no siguen la tradición de los mayores?»

Él les contestó: «Bien profetizó Isaías de vosotros, hipócritas, como está escrito: "Este pueblo me honra con los labios, pero su corazón está lejos de mí. El culto que me dan está vacío, porque la doctrina que enseñan son preceptos humanos." Dejáis a un lado el mandamiento de Dios para aferraros a la tradición de los hombres.»

Entonces llamó de nuevo a la gente y les dijo: «Escuchad y entended todos: Nada que entre de fuera puede hacer al hombre impuro; lo que sale de dentro es lo que hace impuro al hombre. Porque de dentro, del corazón del hombre, salen los malos propósitos, las fornicaciones, robos, homicidios, adulterios, codicias, injusticias, fraudes, desenfreno, envidia, difamación, orgullo, frivolidad. Todas esas maldades salen de dentro y hacen al hombre impuro.»

Cinco frases célebres de San Ignacio de Loyola que pueden ser puestas en práctica en la vida diaria.

Alcanza la excelencia y compártela. Para San Ignacio dar lo mejor de uno mismo y compartirlo con los demás era fundamental. Crecer por medio de la cooperación es un aprendizaje tanto para la vida profesional como para lo personal.

El examen de conciencia es siempre el mejor medio para cuidar bien el alma. San Ignacio llama a reflexionar sobre los actos cometidos y cómo estos pueden afectar al entorno. Pide siempre realizar un examen íntimo de los pensamientos y obras para determinar si se ha actuado de buena o mala fe con el prójimo.

En ejercicio de desolación nunca hacer mudanza. Esta recomendación forma parte de los Ejercicios Espirituales, y señala que en momentos de crisis o desolación, lo mejor es no tomar decisiones drásticas o extremas. Lo primordial es poder controlar los impulsos ante estas situaciones.

Quien evita la tentación evita el pecado. Atacar determinadas situaciones para evitar sus consecuencias y prevenir malos entendidos, es decir, alejarse de entornos que puedan afectar de manera negativa, es lo que San Ignacio propone como máxima de vida.

¿De qué sirve ganar el mundo, si al final pierdes el alma? San Ignacio de Loyola llama a evitar la acumulación de riquezas u objetos materiales, recordando que todo esto es algo pasajero y no tiene valor si esto no nutre el alma.
