Just as Jesus died and has risen again, so through Jesus, God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep; and so also in Christ will all be brought to life.

Eternal Rest grant unto them O Lord, And let the perpetual light shine upon them.

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen .

We pray for their mourning families also.

Merciful Father, comfort all those whose hearts overflow with grief, as they face this sense of loss. May they know the consolation of Your love. We ask this through Christ our Lord . Amen.

For our Military.

Almighty Father, give them courage and strength against all enemies, both spiritual and physical. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they do to protect this land and us. Keep them safe in Your loving hands . We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I have a competitive nature. As an older runner, I strive to place high in my age group (maybe even pick off runners older than I one at a time as we near the finish of a race - of course, I can neither confirm nor deny that). Oh, to be first! There is nothing inherently wrong with healthy competition. However, constantly striving to be the “best” or the “first” in other areas of life - career, parenting, even holiness - can quickly lead to frustration and burnout. As the disciples jostled for “first place,” Jesus gently but directly corrected them: “If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.” Like the Apostles, we tend to focus on our achievements as a measure of our worth, forgetting why we are here: to serve others. We can ask Jesus to help us gain the “wisdom from above” and the characteristics so beautifully described by Saint James: pure, peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Reading today’s Gospel from Mark, I am struck by the image of Jesus embracing a child: “Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me.” Most of us picture our own children, grandchildren, godchildren, nieces, or nephews. Of course we would embrace them! However, Scripture scholars point out that for Jesus, the child symbolized the anawim, a Hebrew word for the poor, the lowly, the vulnerable, the oppressed. Picture, then, not just children but those we might be less eager to immediately embrace: ragged men on the corner, immigrants at the border, the neighbor’s son with schizophrenia, prisoners or ex-convicts. Jesus challenges us not to avert our eyes but to “embrace” them - whether that means offering a cup of coffee, becoming a pen pal, stopping to chat, or finding another way to accompany them. Scholars tell us that the anawim share a total dependence upon God, something we all have in common regardless of our life’s circumstances.

ACTIONS Seek “wisdom from above” at the beginning of each day. In the evening, reflect on the ways God has held you in his loving embrace through the kindness of others, moments in nature, simple pleasures. Say thank you.

Thought of the week

Leadership is the capacity to translate vision into reality.

Saint quote ...

“You are priests, not social or political leaders. Let us not be under the illusion that we are serving the Gospel through exaggerated interest in the wide field of temporal problems” - St. John Paul II

Blessings and Best Wishes from former Pastors and Mentors of Fr. Shibi

It is a joy and a privilege to celebrate with you the installation of Fr. Shibi Pappan as the Pastor of St. Ignatius of Loyola Parish in Hicksville. From December, 2014 through November, 2018, Fr. Shibi was an Associate Pastor in our parish (St. Patrick, Smithtown). During those years, we were blessed to be touched by his goodness, love, humility, holiness, intelligence, and a beautiful priestly presence. He, along with so many other foreign priests, are blessed with the promise Jesus made when St. Peter asked what he would receive by giving up everything to follow Him: “Everyone who has given up houses or brothers or sisters or fathers or mothers or children or lands for the sake of My name, will receive a hundred times more, and will inherit eternal life.” As Fr. Shibi blessed us during the four years he was with us and became a father who guided, consoled, sacrificed, loved, and walked with us in our journey of faith, so now he has been privileged to enrich you with his priestly presence and heart.

These words from St. Paul in his letter to the Colossians (3-12-17) are an apt description of who Fr. Shibi is as a true priestly servant of God: “Put on, as God’s chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another. If one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do. Over all of these put on love, that is the bond of perfection. Let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one Body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.”

Msgr. Ellsworth R. Walden, Pastor, St. Patrick, Smithtown

Congratulations, Fr. Shibi!

8 September 2021 – Feast of the Nativity of Mary

Dear Fr. Shibi,

I write to congratulate you on your appointment as Pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Parish, Hicksville. When I heard the news, I was very happy for you – but I was not surprised. You have so many fine personal and pastoral qualities that I considered it only a matter of time before Bishop Barres entrusted this responsibility to you.

You bring to the pastorate your unfailingly cheerful nature with which you truly Serve the Lord With Gladness. Your compassionate ministry will be a blessing to all you care for in Hicksville. I am confident that your parishioners and your staff already recognize how blessed they are in your presence among them.

You also bring to your pastorate your skills in administration – not always the most enjoyable side of being a pastor, but certainly necessary as a responsible steward of all that has been placed under your watchful care. Overseeing a parish as large as St. Ignatius is no small charge, but I know that you are generous in your time, attention, and energy. You will do well!

As I write this on the Feast of the Nativity of Mary, I pray that you will be strengthened under her intercession as Mother of the Church and Mother of the Clergy. I am confident that, in the words of your parish patron, Ignatius of Loyola, you will give and not to count the cost. . . toil and not seek for rest. . . labour and not ask for reward, save that of knowing that you do the Lord’s will.

Fraternally in the Priesthood of Jesus,
Msgr. Jim Swiader
Pastor, St. Joseph Parish, Garden City

MINISTRY APPRECIATION CORNER : DIGITAL EVANGELISM & COMMUNICATIONS

I am glad to introduce AnsyMary, who is in charge of our Digital evangelism and communications program from last December. Through her articles that comes in the bulletin, like interesting facts on various topics, articles on Saints especially the Ignatian Corner on St. Ignatius in this Ignatian year, QR codes for various videos and weekend liturgy, prayers for various occasions that are in the Live in Faith section of our website, like Our Morning Adoration prayers, The First Friday Holy Hour, various Rosary Meditation prayers to Mary and Joseph, Bible Reading Plan, Monthly Devotion prayers, Stations of the Cross Reflections, Last Seven words of Jesus Mediation, Our Lady of Sorrows Reflection and prayers etc. and Facebook posts, especially the Lenten reflections, she spiritually nourished us, and the children through Jesse Tree activities. As our bulletin editor, she gave a new layout to our parish bulletin. She also upgraded our website, and regularly posts the pictures of St. Ignatius happenings on all our platforms. Through Facebook, she reminds us of the upcoming events in the parish and through email newsletters, that she compiles and sends out every Thursday, gives a quick glance of the upcoming parish events for the week. She also designs flyers and banners for various events of our Parish. I am grateful for her dedication and looking forward to implementing new methods of evangelization for our parish. Her love of God, artistic skills and creativity gives a new face to our communication ministry. May God bless her to do everything for the greater glory of God. As she celebrates her birthday on September 17th, I wish her a very Happy Birthday and pray for God's special protection, help and guidance throughout her life. God bless you Ansymary !

Martha Guild's Rosary Makers

We have been making rosaries here at St. Ignatius since 2004, and have made and delivered more than 45,000 rosaries. They have been sent to missions all over the world; Africa, India, The Solomon Islands, as well as to domestic missions.

We have also supplied many rosaries to St. Ignatius. Prior to Covid 19, we were placing them in the Church for parishioners to use, made special ones for the 100th Anniversary of our school and provided them for many special parish events.

We will be starting our rosary making meetings Tuesday, September 21st in Room B of the Old School Building, from 3pm to 5pm. In the following months, we will be meeting the first and third Tuesdays. Anyone interested in learning how to make a rosary, is more than welcome to join us at any of our sessions. We will provide all materials and the training required.

Please come and help us spread devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and her rosary. For further information, please call me, Paul Kraus at (516) 433-6113. Thank you.

Bendiciones y mejores deseos de los antiguos pastores y mentores del P. Shibi

Es una alegría y un privilegio celebrar con ustedes la toma de posesión del P. Shibi Pappan como párroco de la parroquia de San Ignacio Loyola en Hicksville. Desde diciembre de 2014 hasta noviembre de 2018, el P. Shibi era pastor asociado en nuestra parroquia (St. Patrick, Smithtown). Durante esos años tuvimos la bendición de ser tocados por su bondad, amor, humildad, santidad, inteligencia y hermosa presencia sacerdotal. Él, junto con tantos otros sacerdotes extranjeros, es bendecido con la promesa que hizo Jesús cuando San Pedro le preguntó qué recibiría al renunciar a todo para seguirlo: "Todo el que hayarenunciado a casa o hermanos o hermanas o padre o madre o hijos o tierras por causa de mi nombre recibirá cien veces más y heredarán la vida eterna". Como el P. Shibi nos bendijo durante los cuatro años que estuvo con nosotros y se convirtió en un padre que nos guió, consoló, sacrificó, amó y caminó con nosotros en nuestro camino de fe, por lo que ahora ha tenido el privilegio de enriquecerlos con su sacerdotal presencia y su corazón.

Estas palabras de San Pablo en su carta a los Colosenses (3-12-17) son una descripción adecuada de quién es el P. Shibi es como un verdadero siervo sacerdotal de Dios: "Vístanse, como escogidos de Dios, santos y amados, de compasión, bondad, humildad, mansedumbre y paciencia de corazón, soportándose unos a otros y perdonándose unos a otros, si uno tiene un agravio contra otro; como el Señor te ha perdonado, así también debes hacer tú. Y sobre todo esto, ponte amor, es decir, el vínculo de la perfección. Y permitan que la paz de Cristo gobierne sus corazones, la paz a la que también fueron llamados en un Cuerpo, y sean agradecidos. Deje que la palabra de Cristo more en abundancia en ustedes, mientras con toda sabiduría se enseñan y se exhortan unos a otros, cantando salmos, himnos y cánticos espirituales con gratitud en su corazón a Dios. Y todo lo que haga, de palabra o de hecho, hazlo todo en el nombre del Señor Jesús, dando gracias a Dios Padre por medio de él.

Mons. Ellsworth R. Walden
Pastor, St. Patrick, Smithtown

Felicitaciones, P. ¡Shibi!

8 de septiembre de 2021 - Fiesta de la Natividad de María

Querido P. Shibi,

Le escribo para felicitarle por su nombramiento como párroco de la parroquia San Ignacio Loyola en Hicksville. Cuando escuché la noticia, me alegré mucho por ti, pero no me sorprendió. Tiene tantas buenas cualidades personales y pastorales que lo consideraré sólo una cuestión de tiempo antes de que el obispo Barres le confiara esta responsabilidad.

Traes al pastorado tu naturaleza infaliblemente alegre con la que realmente sirves al Señor con alegría. Su ministerio compasivo será una bendición para todos los que le importan en Hicksville. Estoy seguro de que sus feligreses y su personal ya reconocen lo bendecidos que son en su presencia entre ellos.

También aporta a su pastorado sus habilidades en la administración; no siempre es el lado más agradable de ser pastor, pero ciertamente es necesario como administrador responsable de todo lo que ha sido puesto bajo su cuidadoso cuidado. Supervisar una parroquia tan grande como San Ignacio no es una tarea pequeña, pero sé que eres generoso con tu tiempo, atención y energía. ¡Lo harás bien!

Mientras escribo esto en la fiesta de la Natividad de María, oró para que seas fortalecido bajo su intercesión como Madre de la Iglesia y Madre del Clero. Confío en que, en palabras de tu patrón parroquial, Ignacio de Loyola, darás y sin contar el costo. . . trabajar y no buscar descanso. . . Trabaja y no pidas recompensa, salvo la de saber que haces la voluntad del Señor.

Fraternalmente en el Sacerdocio de Jesús,
Mons. Jim Swiader
Pastor, Parroquia St. Joseph, Garden City
