Heavenly Father, we lift up all who are going through various sickness. Have compassion on them, and lay Your healing hands on them. We pray that You would restore their health, soothe their pain and ease their worries. Give them Your peace and comfort them as they wait. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Get well soon...

Names will be kept on the Prayer for the Sick List for three weeks, unless a family member calls to extend the time.

For our Birthday Celebrants Of the month of September

*Fr. Francis, Deacon Mario, Deacon Jose and Ansy Mary Antony
May God bless you abundantly.*

For our dearly departed.

Karen Maria Andreone
Rose Heller (mother of Msgr. Chris Heller)

Just as Jesus died and has risen again, so through Jesus, God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep; and so also in Christ will all be brought to life.

Eternal Rest grant unto them O Lord, And let the perpetual light shine upon them.

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen .

We pray for their mourning families also.

Merciful Father, comfort all those whose hearts overflow with grief, as they face this sense of loss. May they know the consolation of Your love. We ask this through Christ our Lord . Amen.

For our Military.

Almighty Father, give them courage and strength against all enemies, both spiritual and physical. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they do to protect this land and us. Keep them safe in Your loving hands . We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Clergy Corner

My dear St. Ignatius Parish Family,

Welcome! Hope you all enjoyed the summer .I want to personally and warmly welcome all of you to St. Ignatius parish after summer break. We are so glad to see more and more people coming back to church and actively getting involved in various ministries of the parish. We had organized a great celebration for the feast of St. Ignatius. The Festal Mass by Bishop Barres, Veneration of Relics, Ice-cream social and Movie night with Pizza dinner were the results of the hard work of Activities Committee and various ministries of St. Ignatius. Thank God for His unfathomable mercy and love for His parish and guiding us to do “everything for the greater glory of Him.”

Parents, students, and teachers are very aware of the rituals associated with back-to-school. We pray for all who are navigating that transition, especially teachers to balance freedom and discipline in the right measure for each student, to give genuine praise as much as possible, to give constructive criticism in a manner that is palatable to the students. Let them keep politics out of the classroom and help students to admire the “preciousness of life” and help students to welcome and embrace everybody without fear or prejudice.

Monday, September 6 is Labor Day. The Parish office will be closed in observance of the holiday. The first Labor Day holiday was celebrated on Tuesday, September 5, 1882, in New York City. In 1884, the first Monday in September was selected as the holiday with the Central Labor Union urging similar organizations to celebrate a workingmen's holiday. It became a Federal Holiday in 1894. Please join us Monday, September 6 at 9.00am Mass to pray and remember the hard work of labor for our country, society and especially those who built our Church and School buildings.

Mothers have a great role in nurturing our earthly lives, and hence have a special place in our hearts. Our Blessed Mother also nurtures our spiritual lives, and guides us in our heavenly journey. I invite all of you to join us and celebrate her birthday at the 9am Holy Mass on September 8, and honor her in a very special way.

In particular, on Saturday, September 11, at 9:00 am Holy Mass, the twentieth anniversary of the terrorist attacks on this country, we pray for all firefighters, police officers, and emergency medical technicians who serve our local communities. Let us continue to pray for one another and the families who lost their loved ones.

We planned our Parish Picnic on September 18, after 5.00PM Holy Mass with food, fun and entertainments. While preparing for this event, I was informed by Bishop Henning that I am appointed as the twelfth Pastor of St. Ignatius of Loyola. In order to avoid two celebrations in a row, we decided to combine both events together and I will be installed on September 18th at 5.00 PM by Bishop Henning. All are welcome to the installation and to the reception that will follow in the parish parking lot. I am grateful to all who are planning and preparing for these celebrations. Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

In Jesus and Mary,

Fr. Shibi Pappan

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Our oldest son is deaf. I vividly remember watching him notice sounds for the first time in the days after his cochlear implant was activated: the “caw” of a crow, a doorbell, the low rumble of the furnace kicking in. Our job as parents was to provide a running commentary to help him understand the meaning of each sound that so many of us take for granted: “See the birds? That is a crow!” “Your dad is home.” “The heat is coming on.” I’m reminded of those early days when I read Mark’s account of Jesus restoring hearing to the deaf man. While most of us can hear, so often we take the sounds all around us for granted or relegate them to background noise - including the Scripture we hear at Mass each week. As Bishop Robert Barron writes, “This deaf man stands for all of us who do not hear the word of God, who have grown oblivious to it.” As we listen to today’s readings, we can ask Jesus to open our ears and our hearts to the word of God.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Mark spares no detail in describing Jesus’ encounter with the deaf man who had a speech impediment. Jesus places a finger in his ear and spits, touching his tongue, then utters the word “Ephphatha!” (“Be opened”) Immediately, the man can hear and speak clearly. When listening to this reading, I often focus on the man’s hearing. But Jesus also cured the man’s speech impediment, which I think indicates we’re not supposed to just hear God’s word, we are to speak to it, and speak of it. Once we allow Jesus to open our ears and hearts to the Good News, sharing it will begin to come naturally. There may still be times when our Catholic tongues feel tied, but “Be strong, fear not!” Jesus will give us the words.

ACTIONS Next time you take a drive, listen to the day’s Scripture readings. Ask Jesus to open your ears and hearts to his words and show you how best to share them with others. And most teachers would agree: The more senses we engage, the more we take in. If you have trouble following the readings at Mass, open your missalette and read along silently.

Thought of the week

As long as there is someone in the sky to protect me, there is no one on earth who could break me.

Saint quote ...

“She is the flower of the field from whom bloomed the precious lily of the valley. Through her birth, the nature inherited from our first parents is changed.”

Interesting facts on the Four Marian Dogmas of the Catholic Church

In Catholic theology, a dogma of the Catholic Church is defined as a truth divinely revealed, which has been infallibly defined by the magisterium of the Church. As we prepare for the birthday of our Blessed Mother, let us have a look at the four Marian dogmas of the Church.

Immaculate Conception.
(Ineffabilis Deus)

Early Church teaching & formally defined by Pope Pius IX in 1854. Revealed to St. Catherine Laboure of the Miraculous Medal and later to St. Bernadette in Lourdes

In view of the merits of Jesus, Mary was granted the singular privilege and grace, by which she was kept free from every stain of original sin.

Feast Day celebrated on December 8.

Icon with arms outstretched or hands clasped in prayer.

Hymn Immaculate Mary

Patroness of USA

Perpetual Virginity

Mary was a virgin ante partum, in partu, et post partum—before, during and after the birth of Christ.

Early Church teaching, definition formulated by Pope Martin I at the Lateran Council of 649 and most recently by the Second Vatican Council.

The Marian Dogmas

Assumption

Early Church teaching, and formally defined by Pope Pius XII in 1950.

Dormition of the Mother of God (Dormition of the Theotokos or "the Falling Asleep of the Mother of God") Mary being the Mother of God, was taken up body and soul into heaven, just as she was kept free from any stains of original sin.

Hymn Hail Holy Queen

Icon in clouds

Divine Motherhood

(Theotokos because her Son Jesus is both God and man:)

Early Church teaching;

Affirmed at the third Ecumenical Council of Ephesus in 431 A.D.

Feast Day celebrated on January 1.

Icon known as Madonna, with Jesus in her hand.

Hymn: Ave Maria Hail Mary

ST. IGNATIAN YEAR CORNER

Ignatian spirituality on Honoring Mary

St. Ignatius had a strong devotion to Blessed Mother, and it is evident from a life-sized statue of Ignatius cradling a doll-sized full-bodied statue of Mary attired in flowing blue and white, in the Loyola Family Castle (picture given here). Throughout his lifetime, he implored her to help him to become more like her Son, our Lord Jesus. Young Ignatius had contemplated on his sister-in-law's (Magdalena Araoz's) painting of Mary hanging in the family castle, which played a role in his conversion. As mentioned in an earlier bulletin, in the Vigil at Montserrat in 1522, he made the commitment to become a man of peace, and laid his sword and dagger down in surrender before the Black Madonna.

One Minute Meditations

Make time

Life can be so busy that it becomes impossible to find time to pray. Instead we have to make time to pray. If we make time for God, he will help us find the time we need for everything else.

Face forward

Continually reliving the past prevents us from looking ahead with hope. Follow St. Paul's example: "Just one thing: forgetting what lies behind but straining forward to what lies ahead, I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 3:13-14).

Our Lady of Sorrows

On September 15th we commemorate Our Lady of Sorrows. The title refers to Simeon's prediction that Mary would experience sorrows as if "... you yourself a sword will pierce" (Luke 2:35). Her greatest sorrow may have been watching her son die on the Cross. If we ever want someone who understands our difficulties, we have only to pray to Mary.

"Be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect."

Society tells us that happiness comes from having the perfect spouse, the perfect home, the perfect job, and the perfect body. Without all that, happiness isn't possible. Consider this:

God's way leads to perfection. Adam and Eve were in Paradise until society convinced them that by eating a piece of fruit, they could become perfect and be even happier. Had they listened to God instead, their lives would have stayed perfect.

Only God loves perfectly. Sometimes we fear that showing our failings to others will lessen their regard. The more perfect we appear, the more we will be loved and respected.

Human love is unpredictable, but we can never lose or lessen God's love. He loves us as we are right now. In fact, Jesus created the Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession) to remind us of God's unconditional love.

God's idea of perfect is possible. Jesus said, "... be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect" (Matthew 5:48), but he wasn't talking about muscles or homes.

Perfection in Jesus' eyes means loving God with all our hearts, praying for our enemies, and taking care of the poor. To Jesus, love, obedience and service is the true measure of perfection and he wants us to let go of anything that gets in the way. That's the only "perfect" that is possible.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics follow the Ten Commandments?

The Ten Commandments were given by God to the Israelites on Mt. Sinai after they left Egypt. They are considered divine law because God himself revealed them to help his people live holy lives. They formed the basis of Jewish life, so Jesus followed them, too.

The Commandments are standards of holiness for Christians, too. Obey them and eternal happiness is ours.

Disobey them and we suffer the consequences. Jesus summarized the spirit of the

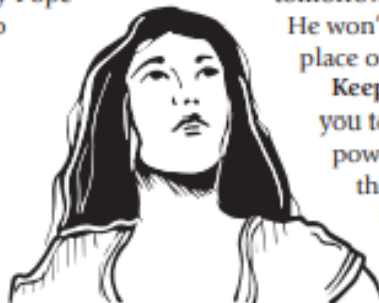

Commandments in Matthew

22:36-40.

Be not afraid.

The phrase “be not afraid,” made famous by Pope St. John Paul II, helps us to remember that no matter what happens in the world, God is in control and we are in good hands. The Holy Father asked us to put our trust in Jesus who redeemed the world.

Refuse to worry. Jesus reminded us that tomorrow isn’t guaranteed to anyone (Luke 12:20). What brings us peace is to tend to today’s challenges and let God take care of tomorrow. Nothing happens without His consent and He won’t permit anything that is bad for us. When we place ourselves in His care, we have nothing to fear.

Keep your eyes on Him. Don’t let the world blind you to God’s presence in your life. We may not feel powerful at times, but when we stay close to Jesus through His Church, we receive the grace we need to keep fighting temptations to sin. God has overcome the world. With His help, we will win the daily battle for Heaven.

from Scripture

Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48, The discipline of discipleship

In this Gospel passage, the disciples hear of an unknown man healing in Jesus’ name. In their jealousy, it seemed the disciples were more concerned about losing the spotlight than in healing. Jesus added perspective. He pointed out that the man had the same goal as the disciples – to build up God’s Kingdom. He was a teammate, not an enemy.

Discipleship means making a change of heart and mind. Jesus was very clear: if we choose to follow him, we can’t foster private sins, too. If, through those sins, we lead others into sin, our responsibility is doubled.

These are grim words, but the opposite is great news: “Whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven” (Matthew 5:19).

God rewards us for the good we do to and for others.

Our example is powerfully influential.

Being a faithful disciple isn’t easy.

Rooting out personal sin and setting a good example is difficult, but we’re not alone or without grace to do the job. No matter what we sacrifice, the reward is infinitely better.

Q & A Why go to Mass when I get nothing out of it?

Throughout our lives, a Catholic adult can attend as many as 4,048 Sunday Masses. No ritual or event can sustain good vibrations 4,048 times.

The truth is that the Mass is not meant to always make us feel good. It isn’t actually about us – it’s about God.

Mass is public worship. At every Mass we worship God as a natural response to His overwhelming magnificence. This is not because God needs our praise, but because we need to praise Him. We recognize and honor all that is good about Him.

Mass is a sacrifice. When the gifts are brought to the altar, each of us offers our lives along with the bread and wine. We can do nothing of our own accord, so Christ accepts our offerings – our sacrifice – and joins it to His ongoing work of salvation.

Mass is a meal. Through the Eucharist, Jesus makes His home within us. We deepen our union with Jesus each time we receive His Word and His Body and Blood during Mass.

Our Mission

To provide practical ideas that promote faithful Catholic living.

Feasts & Celebrations

September 8 – The Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary (1st century). Tradition says Mary was born in Jerusalem after her mother, Anna, and her father, Joachim, had been married more than twenty years without children. Mary’s birth brought her parents joy, and we are joyful too – because Mary brings salvation to all of us with the birth of Jesus.

September 23 – St. Padre Pio (1968). Born to farmers in southern Italy, Padre Pio was an inspiring confessor and counselor. He received the five wounds of Our Lord’s Passion (stigmata) eight years after he became a Capuchin Friar. Despite intense personal and physical suffering, he remained dedicated to prayer.

September 28 – Saint Wenceslaus (929). As the king of Bohemia, Wenceslaus worked closely with the Church to end the persecution of the Christians in his country. He encouraged German missionaries, built churches, and cared for the sick, and poor. Political conflict led to his assassination by his brother. The “Good King” was immediately recognized as a martyr.

LOOKING FOR A FEW GOOD MEN AND WOMEN

Our parish is in desperate need of adult altar servers for the Funeral Masses held here at St. Ignatius. This is a wonderful, worthwhile service ministry not to just the parish, but to those families during a very sad time of their lives. We serve as a two member team at each Funeral Mass. There is some brief training involved. We need men and women to serve in this capacity. Our goal is to gain enough volunteers so no one would have to serve more than a couple of times each month. Typically, Funeral Masses are held on Monday through Saturday mornings. If you are able to help and would like to be a part of this ministry, we really need your help. Please contact me, Carol Hogan at hoags10@optonline.net or at 516-987-4011.

World Day of Prayer for Peace
September 11th

God of peace, bring your peace to our violent world: peace in the hearts of all men and women and peace among the nations of the earth. Turn to your way of love those whose hearts and minds are consumed with hatred. God of understanding, overwhelmed by the magnitude of this tragedy, we seek your light and guidance as we confront such terrible events. Grant that those whose lives were spared may live so that the lives lost here may not have been lost in vain. Comfort and console us, strengthen us in hope, and give us the wisdom and courage to work tirelessly for a world where true peace and love reign among nations and in the hearts of all. Amen

We congratulate and thank Fr. Shibi as he completed one year at St. Ignatius, and is appointed as the twelfth Pastor of St. Ignatius. May God continue to bless him and guide him in his pastoral ministry, here at St. Ignatius. Wish you all the best dear father.

Rincón de Clero

Mi querida familia de la parroquia de San Ignacio, ¡Bienvenidos! Quiero personalmente y calurosamente darles una bienvenida a todos ustedes de la parroquia de San Ignacio después de las vacaciones de verano. Estamos muy contentos de ver que más y más personas están regresando a la iglesia y participando activamente en varios ministerios parroquiales. Hemos organizado una gran celebración de la fiesta de San Ignacio. La Misa Festal del Obispo Barres, el Social de Helados y la Noche de Cine con cena de pizza fueron el resultado del arduo trabajo del comité de actividades y varios ministerios de San Ignacio. Gracias a Dios por su insondable misericordia y amor por su parroquia y por guiarnos a hacer "todo para la mayor gloria de él".

Los padres, estudiantes y maestros son muy conscientes de los rituales asociados con el regreso a clase. Oramos por todos los que están atravesando esa transición, especialmente los maestros, para equilibrar la libertad y la disciplina en la medida correcta para cada estudiante, para dar elogios genuinos tanto como sea posible, para dar críticas constructivas de una manera que sea aceptable para los estudiantes. Permita que mantengan la política fuera del aula y ayude a los estudiantes a admirar la "preciosidad de la vida" y permita que los estudiantes reciban y abracen a todos sin miedo ni prejuicios.

El lunes 6 de septiembre es el Día del Trabajo. La oficina parroquial estará cerrada en observancia del feriado. El primer feriado del Día del Trabajo se celebró el martes 5 de septiembre de 1882 en la ciudad de Nueva York. En 1884, el primer lunes de septiembre se eligió como feriado, y el Sindicato Central de Trabajadores instó a organizaciones similares a celebrar el feriado de los trabajadores. Se convirtió en un feriado federal en 1894. Únase a nosotros el lunes 6 de septiembre en la Misa de las 9:00 am para orar y recordar el arduo trabajo del labor para nuestro país, la sociedad y especialmente para nuestra parroquia y escuela.

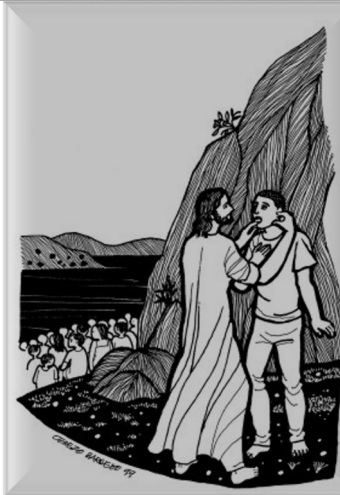

Las madres tienen un gran papel en nutrir nuestras vidas terrenales y, por lo tanto, tienen un lugar especial en nuestros corazones. Así también, Nuestra Santísima Madre nutre nuestras vidas espirituales y nos guía en nuestro viaje celestial. Los invito a todos a unirse a nosotros y celebrar su cumpleaños en la Santa Misa de las 9 am el 8 de septiembre, y honrarla de una manera muy especial. De manera particular, el sábado 11 de septiembre, a las 9.00 am de la Santa Misa, vigésimo aniversario de los ataques terroristas en este país, rezamos por todos los bomberos, policías y técnicos de emergencias médicas que sirven a nuestras comunidades locales. Sigamos orando unos por otros y por las familias que perdieron a sus seres queridos.

Hemos organizado nuestro picnic parroquial para el 18 de septiembre, después de la Santa Misa de las 5:00 p.m. con comida y entretenimiento. Mientras se preparaba para la celebración, me informaron que el Obispo Barres me nombró como el duodécimo pastor de San Ignacio de Loyola. Para evitar dos celebraciones seguidas, decidimos combinar ambos eventos y el Obispo Henning me instalará el 18 de septiembre a las 5:00 pm. Todos son bienvenidos a la instalación y a la recepción que seguirá en el estacionamiento parroquial. Agradezco a todos los que están planificando y preparándose para estas celebraciones. Sigamos orando los unos por los otros y por nuestra parroquia.

En Jesús y María,

P. Shibi Pappan

Evangelio del Domingo

Lectura del santo evangelio según san Marcos (7,31-37):

En aquel tiempo, dejó Jesús el territorio de Tiro, pasó por Sidón, camino del lago de Galilea, atravesando la Decápolis. Y le presentaron un sordo que, además, apenas podía hablar; y le piden que le imponga las manos.

Él, apartándolo de la gente a un lado, le metió los dedos en los oídos y con la saliva le tocó la lengua. Y, mirando al cielo, suspiró y le dijo: «Effetá», esto es: «Ábrete.»

Y al momento se le abrieron los oídos, se le soltó la traba de la lengua y hablaba sin dificultad. Él les mandó que no lo dijeran a nadie; pero, cuanto más se lo mandaba, con más insistencia lo proclamaban ellos. Y en el colmo del asombro decían: «Todo lo ha hecho bien; hace oír a los sordos y hablar a los mudos.»

HAVE FUN WHILE GROWING IN FAITH
(AGES 14 and up)

Cinco frases célebres de San Ignacio de Loyola que pueden ser puestas en práctica en la vida diaria.

Alcanza la excelencia y compártela. Para San Ignacio dar lo mejor de uno mismo y compartirlo con los demás era fundamental. Crecer por medio de la cooperación es un aprendizaje tanto para la vida profesional como para lo personal.

El examen de conciencia es siempre el mejor medio para cuidar bien el alma. San Ignacio llama a reflexionar sobre los actos cometidos y cómo estos pueden afectar al entorno. Pide siempre realizar un examen íntimo de los pensamientos y obras para determinar si se ha actuado de buena o mala fe con el prójimo.

En ejercicio de desolación nunca hacer mudanza.

Esta recomendación forma parte de los Ejercicios Espirituales, y señala que en momentos de crisis o desolación, lo mejor es no tomar decisiones drásticas o extremas. Lo primordial es poder controlar los impulsos ante estas situaciones.

Quien evita la tentación evita el pecado. Atacar determinadas situaciones para evitar sus consecuencias y prevenir malos entendidos, es decir, alejarse de entornos que puedan afectar de manera negativa, es lo que San Ignacio propone como máxima de vida.

¿De qué sirve ganar el mundo, si al final pierdes el alma? San Ignacio de Loyola llama a evitar la acumulación de riquezas u objetos materiales, recordando que todo esto es algo pasajero y no tiene valor si esto no nutre el alma.
