The Beauty of Marriage

Let us pray for young people who are preparing for marriage with the support of a Christian community: may they grow in love, with generosity, faithfulness and patience.

 We Pray...

For our Sick

Jennifer Lentini, Carolyn Fitzgerald, Florence Morris, Joanne Mulligan, Joe Giordano, Antonio Esposito, Joseph Albanese, Lawrence Wilson, Jim Keough, Michael Krummenacker, Ann Fisher. Bendirck Nacua, Glen Smith, Cathy Stengl, Lawrence O'Donnell, John Fiore, Pauline Agatha Flasco, John Hyde, Timothy Mulligan, Jacqueline Perez, Joan Bickard, Denise Simek, Theresa Simek

Heavenly Father, we lift up all who are going through various sickness. Have compassion on them, and lay Your healing hands on them. We pray that You would restore their health, soothe their pain and ease their worries. Give them Your peace and comfort them as they wait. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Get well soon...

Names will be kept on the Prayer for the Sick List for three weeks, unless a family member calls to extend the time.

For our dearly departed .

Evelyn Wallick (Jeff Wallick's mother)
Eugene V. McVay, Jr. (brother of Carol Ann Reichle)

Just as Jesus died and has risen again, so through Jesus, God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep; and so also in Christ will all be brought to life.

Eternal Rest grant unto them O Lord, And let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

We pray for their mourning families also.

Merciful Father, comfort all those whose hearts overflow with grief, as they face this sense of loss. May they know the consolation of Your love. We ask this Christ our Lord. Amen.

For our Military.

Almighty Father, give them courage and strength against all enemies, both spiritual and physical. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they do to protect this land and us. Keep them safe in Your loving hands. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Clergy Corner

My dear St. Ignatius Parish family,

Wish you all a Blessed Corpus Christi Sunday. Today's Gospel Reading is the Markan account of the Last Supper, and it is interwoven with the references to the Passover of the Old Testament. There is no mention of the Passover lamb in this account, highlighting that Jesus himself is the sacrificial offering. Jesus established the new covenant with His Blood, in the meal, which was outwardly concluded in the traditional way with a final cup of wine. Thus, He fulfilled the covenant we saw in the first reading. The new Passover feast did not finish at the table, but at Calvary, where Jesus sacrificed Himself totally for us. This exactly is, and should be the essence of our Eucharistic celebration. The sacrificial celebration at the Eucharistic table should continue to our daily lives. By the ultimate sacrificial love with which Christ died for us in reparation of our sins and redeemed us, we should love our fellow beings. Only then does our celebration at the altar, here in the Church, become really meaningful, and we become true children of God.

Deep down in our heart, we all thirst for God because we are all created by God, and the only thing He wants from us is our love. Only Christ can, and will, satisfy our hunger and quench our thirst. Everyday, in fact every hour, whenever a Mass is celebrated, Jesus is offering Himself to all humanity, at one or another part of the world so that we can feel an incredible intimacy with Him. Jesus Christ makes Himself food to nourish us and become one with us. As we celebrate the Corpus Christi Sunday, try to spend some time in front of the Most Blessed Sacrament, allowing the miracle that takes place in each Mass to resonate in your heart and mind. I invite all of you to come for the Annual Corpus Christi Eucharistic Procession on Saturday, after the 5pm Mass, and honor Jesus, truly and wholly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. Also, soon after the 7.30 am Mass, we will have an hour of adoration after which the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed and kept in our Adoration Chapel, so that you can spend time as per your convenience.

This Friday, June 11th we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, and on this Saturday, June 12th the Memorial of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. We all consider heart as the place where we feel all emotions, particularly love. Maybe because we associate the death of a person with the stopping of a heartbeat, even though in medical terms, death is confirmed only by brain death. So it is good to reflect on the immense love of Jesus by which He endured all the cruel torture, and honor His heart in a special way. I invite all of you to join us for the Holy Hour here at St. Ignatius on this Friday, soon after the 9am Mass, and also to honor our Blessed Mother for her role as co-redemptrix, join us this Saturday at 8.25am for the Rosary .

As our Religious Education is in need of Volunteers for Catechism for the next year, (please check page 12 of this bulletin for details), please keep this matter in your mind for prayerful consideration. Thank you all for your continuous support to the parish, even in these difficult times. God bless you.

In Jesus and Mary,

Fr. Shibi Pappan

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Ex 24:3-8 | Heb 9:11-15 | Mk 14:12-16, 22-26

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

It takes only a few moments of holding one's breath to realize how desperately we need oxygen to survive. If only we were always as cognizant and mindful of the importance of the Eucharist for the same reason! I, for one, confess to approaching the altar with fervent belief in the body, blood, soul, and divinity of Christ, but also at times doing so while distracted or not fully appreciative of the gift being given to me. But today's solemnity is a powerful reminder not to take the Eucharist for granted. It is the Church's formal and official homage to Jesus Christ who, "with his own blood" obtained for us eternal redemption. St. Thomas Aquinas offers this description of how wonderful, precious, and important the Eucharist is with the following words: "The only-begotten Son of God, wishing to enable us to share in his divinity, assumed our nature, so that by becoming man he might make us gods." (Opusc. 57, 1-4) Like the disciples on the night of the Last Supper, we, too, receive the body and blood of Jesus under the appearance of bread and wine. He dwells within us, intercedes for us, and through grace he transforms us.

STUDY Draw closer to the Lord through meditation on the meaning of the Eucharist by reading these "basic questions and answers" about the Real Presence: www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/the-mass/order-of-mass/liturgy-of-the-eucharist/the-real-presence-faqs.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Spending time with our Lord at Eucharistic adoration is a profound opportunity to open our hearts to him. Just as we know that we cannot love others well if we don't love ourselves, likewise we cannot share the love of Christ with others well if we don't take time to allow Christ to enter our hearts and our lives. By taking the time to talk to Jesus and listen, we can, in turn, witness to his love to others. We can use this time to pray for a specific person, seek help with a personal dilemma, or ask the Lord to show us where we need repentance and conversion in our own lives so as to be more like him. The more we are conformed to Christ, the better we can bring Christ to the world.

HAPPY FEAST OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

*O Sacrament Most Holy, O Sacrament Divine,
All Praise and All Thanksgiving be every moment Thine.*

HAPPY CORPUS CHRISTI SUNDAY

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, celebrates the Real Presence of the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. It is historically known by its Latin name, Corpus Christi.

Catholic teaching on Transubstantiation. (CCC 1376)

“The Council of Trent summarizes the Catholic teaching on the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist by declaring: ‘Because Christ our Redeemer said that it was truly His body that He was offering under the species of bread, it has always been the conviction of the Church of God, and this holy Council now declares again, that by the consecration of the bread and wine there takes place a change of the whole substance of the bread into the substance of the body of Christ our Lord and of the whole substance of the wine into the substance of his blood. This change the holy Catholic Church has fittingly and properly called transubstantiation.’

The reason behind the Institution of Corpus Christi Feast

St. Juliana who was a nun and mystic in Belgium, had a series of visions in which she was instructed by Our Lord to work for the establishment of a liturgical feast for the Holy Eucharist, to which she had a great devotion. She convinced Pope Urban IV, who then was a bishop, to create this special feast in honor of the Blessed Sacrament. Soon after her death, and a year after the Eucharistic Miracle in Bolsena, Pope Urban instituted Corpus Christi for the Universal Church and celebrated it for the first time in 1264, in Orvieto.

The Eucharistic Miracle of Bolsena, Italy

In 1263 a German priest, Fr. Peter of Prague, who made a pilgrimage to Rome, stopped in Bolsena, Italy, to celebrate Mass at the Church of St. Christina. When he recited the prayer of consecration in the Mass, in response to his doubt about Jesus being truly present in the Blessed Sacrament, the consecrated Host began to bleed over his hands and onto the altar. At first he tried to hide the Blood, but eventually he suspended the Mass and reported this miracle to Pope Urban IV, who at the time was nearby in Orvieto. The pope sent delegates to investigate the host and blood-stained corporal. After confirming its authenticity, the relics were then placed in the Cathedral of Orvieto, where they remain even today. The Pope then instituted a new feast, The Feast of Corpus Christi, in the liturgical calendar .

The heart is an essential organ for human survival, and it pumps blood, circulating oxygen throughout our body. We all know that when we feel great happiness or excitement, the heart beats faster, and when we are really shocked or upset about something, we may end up with a heart attack. Maybe because of this deep connection of the heart to love, one of our strongest emotions, the heart symbol is popularly used in all culture, and everywhere to symbolize everything we feel about love. Devotions to The Sacred Heart of Jesus and The Immaculate Heart of Mary are devotions to Jesus and Mary themselves, but in a particular way of meditating on the divine love of Jesus for humanity, and Mary's love for Jesus.

On June 16, 1675, Jesus spoke to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, in one of her visions, and asked her very specifically to promote a feast that honored His Sacred Heart. "I ask of you that the Friday after the Octave of Corpus Christi be set apart for a special Feast to honor My Heart, by communicating on that day, and making reparation to It by a solemn act, in order to make amends for the indignities which It has received during the time It has been exposed on the altars. I promise you that My Heart shall expand Itself to shed in abundance the influence of Its Divine Love upon those who shall thus honor It, and cause It to be honored." After much studies, the Church approved the private apparition, and the feast was established as an official feast for all of France in 1765. Almost 100 years later, in 1856, at the request of the French bishops, Pope Pius IX, extended the feast to the universal Church. By celebrating this feast, we honor His immense love by which He obtained salvation for us, by becoming a human and laying down His life on the Cross.

The Immaculate Heart of Mary gives us an example of how we as Christians should love. As Pope Paul VI said: May the Immaculate Heart of Mary shine before the eyes of all Christians as the model of perfect love toward God and toward our fellow beings; may it lead them toward the Holy Sacraments by virtue of which souls are cleansed from the stains of sin and are preserved from it. May it also stimulate them to make reparation for the innumerable offenses against the Divine Majesty. Lastly, may it shine like a banner of unity and a spur to perfect the bonds of brotherhood among all Christians in the bosom of the one Church of Jesus Christ, which "taught by the Holy Spirit, honors her with filial affection and piety as a most beloved mother."

May the observance of these feast days help us to love Jesus in the way Mary loved Jesus.

ST.IGNATIAN YEAR CORNER

Early Life of St. Ignatius

Born in a wealthy noble family, Ignatius dreamt of fame, and at the age of 16 served as a page to Juan Velazquez, the treasurer of the kingdom of Castile. He was addicted to gambling, and had great interest for women. After a year, he joined the army. He fought a number of battles. On May 20, 1521, at the Battle of Pamplona against the French, though the Spaniards were badly outnumbered and the commander wanted to surrender, Ignatius convinced him to fight for the honor of Spain. He was wounded by a cannonball, and was seriously injured. His left leg was wounded and the right one was broken. Seeing his courage, the French soldiers carried him to his home, the castle of Loyola, rather than to prison. He underwent several surgeries, at a time when anesthesia was not in use. However, on the feast of Saints Peter and Paul (June 29), the leg got healed, but he was left with his right leg shorter than the left, and so for the rest of his life, walked with a limp.

Ignatian Spirituality

The one and only goal of Ignatian Spirituality is union with God, knowing His will and do it alone. The ideal way to accomplish this, is to do the Spiritual exercises written by St. Ignatius, in silence, solitude and after eliminating every disordered attachment to the things of this world. These Spiritual exercises will guide us to understand and choose those things that help us to do the will of God, and to get rid of those that mislead us.

MEMORIAL DAY

SAVE THE HYDE AMENDMENT

STOP ABORTION. SAVE INNOCENT LIVES .
KEEP FEDERAL DOLLARS FROM FUNDING ABORTIONS

A serious effort is underway in Congress to force all taxpayers to pay for elective abortions. The Hyde Amendment and other similar laws have long protected taxpayers from funding elective abortions. Now, powerful members of Congress want to get rid of these laws, which have been supported by both Democrats and Republicans for 45 years. Without the Hyde Amendment and related policies, billions of taxpayer dollars could be used to pay for abortions in the United States and throughout the world. Don't let our government make you pay for the taking of an innocent human life! Prevent abortion. Save lives. The Church, our Bishops and clergy are trying their level best to do their part. Your opinion does matter.

Catholic Bishops and Other Faith Leaders Urge Stopping The Misguided “Equality Act”

The USCCB (US Conference of Catholic Bishops) and other faith leaders are once again urging people to contact their U.S. Senators via social media, email, or by phone as they prepare to vote on the misguided "Equality Act." The House of Representatives passed this well-intentioned but ultimately harmful legislation that "discriminates against people of faith, threatens unborn life, and undermines the common good" ⁽¹⁾ on February 25, 2021 and it can be voted on by the Senate at any time now.

According to the USCCB, these are some of the direct effects and possible consequences of this legislation:

- Require religious organizations to cover gender "transition" procedures in their health insurance plans;
- Force girls and women to compete in sports against males who identify as female;
- Force girls and women to share locker rooms, showers, restrooms, and dorms with males who identify as female;
- Shut down Catholic and other Foster Care and Adoption Agencies who will only place children in homes with a married mother and father;
- Force small business people to support events or create products that violate their beliefs or be put out of business;
- Likely require taxpayers to fund elective abortions and likely force doctors and hospitals to perform abortions against their conscience or beliefs

Minority Christian leaders have proposed an alternative to this Act called the Fairness for All Act, which they say would protect religious liberties as well as preserve the rights of the LGBT community. "Black and Brown Christians worked too hard for the Civil Rights Act to have it revised in ways that would take away basic rights and funding from our communities. The Equality Act needlessly pits the concerns of diverse communities against each other." ⁽²⁾

One Minute Meditations

Baptismal bargain

When we are baptized, God forms an unbreakable covenant with us promising His unconditional love. "For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 8:38-39). Our part of the bargain is to obey him and love him, and put him first in our lives. At Baptism, we are marked as God's for life. That can never change.

A perspective check

"Do not lose your inward peace for anything whatsoever, even if your whole world seems upset." St. Francis de Sales

Adoration

"The acknowledgment of God as God, Creator and Savior, the Lord and Master of everything that exists ... The first commandment of the law obliges us to adore God" (Catechism of the Catholic Church).

Make a difference to your parish family

The Catholic parish is a place of wonder and awe. It is in the arms of our parish that we experience God's love, and share it with others. Each parishioner is important to a parish, especially now. Consider these ideas to make a difference to yours:

Take your place. As pandemic restrictions ease around the country, you can once again take a seat at your parish table. You take it when you attend weekend Mass, seek peace from Sacraments such as the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick, and participate in parish ministries.

Boost the faith of others. Even the strongest Catholics can sometimes falter in their faith. Look for opportunities to share Gospel values through your actions and words and you will strengthen the faith of those around you.

Pray for your parish. This is one of the most important contributions you can make. Join parish intentions to your own in daily prayer. Pray for parish ministries. Offer prayers for your priests and parish staff.

Build it, serve it, or pay for it. When there is a need in the parish, don't wait for an invitation. Your parish family depends upon your efforts.

Help it grow. Invite friends, coworkers, or neighbors to join you in worship. Your parish might be the spiritual home they've been searching for.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do priests wear a white collar?

The white collar – or "Roman collar" – dates back to the 15th century when priests placed linen or cotton collars over their outer clothing to be easily distinguished. This evolved into the collar we see on most priests today when wearing their black "clerics."

According to the USCCB, "Outside liturgical functions, a black suit and Roman collar are the usual attire for priests." When wearing a white collar, it means he's "on duty" to give blessings, offer counsel, and administer Sacraments.

Savor a saintly summer

The slower pace of summer offers opportunities to nurture faith in creative ways not feasible in hectic times. Consider these ideas:

Visit a shrine. Holy places where relics are preserved, an apparition has taken place, or one that encourages a particular belief or devotion offer opportunities for prayer and pilgrimage. Look for directories of shrines in the U.S., including www.catholicshrines.net or from the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) <http://ow.ly/OYvJ30bAayL>.

Attend daily Mass. Meeting God in the Eucharist begins a summer day with grace. Daily Mass is a full Catholic immersion in Christ, in the Sacraments, and the saints, all at once.

Gather with other Catholics. As we emerge from pandemic conditions, spending time with other Catholic friends can provide a community of faith-filled companions.

Attend Mass together, socialize together, brainstorm Gospel-centered life solutions together.

Look for signs of God's love. Find a park or green space near you where you can center your heart and mind on Jesus. Observe His creation and become more aware of His presence.

from Scripture

Mark 5:21-43, Faith in action.

As the leader of the local synagogue, Jairus was probably pressured by the Pharisees to avoid or reject Jesus. It was a courageous act for him to publicly approach Jesus, bow before him, and beg for a cure for his daughter. Jairus' faith in Jesus was that strong.

On the way to Jairus' home, Jesus was delayed by a woman with a serious hemorrhage.

According to Jewish law, her constant bleeding would have excluded her from most social contact. She thought Jesus wouldn't want to touch her and secretly grabbed His cloak believing that any contact would cure her. In fact, she was cured, but Jesus told her that it was her faith that provided the cure. We should never allow fear of our unworthiness to keep us from God.

By the time Jesus finished with the woman, Jairus was told of his daughter's death. Jesus simply said, "Do not be afraid; just have faith" (Mark 5:36), and Jairus' great faith was rewarded. No matter how desperate your situation may appear, trust Jesus to help. Even death is under His control.

Q & A What is sin?

Dealing with sin is uncomfortable and following God's rules is hard. The world tells us that sin doesn't exist. While we may think we are "good" and others may look up to us, eventually God will decide if we have been "good." Since His opinion is the one that matters, His rules rule.

Sin is real. The world tells us that sin doesn't exist but Catholics know that "sin is a deliberate thought, word, deed, or omission contrary to the eternal law of God." (Catechism of the Catholic Church) The law can be found in the Ten Commandments, the Beatitudes, and in Scripture. The law says sin is real.

Unconfessed sin separates us from God. "For you have hidden your face from us and have delivered us up to our guilt" (Isaiah 64:6). Avoiding guilt means missing God's forgiveness. Each evening, examine the day's actions and ask if they would please God or not. Resolve to do better and take steps to change. Seek absolution through the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Feasts & Celebrations

June 11 - Sacred Heart of Jesus. The image of Jesus with His heart exposed in unquenchable flame is a reminder of His intense and eternal love for us.

June 22 - Immaculate Heart of Mary. In response to a request by Our Lady of Fatima, Pope Pius XII consecrated the world to Mary's gentle and devout Immaculate Heart in 1942, and initiated this feast in 1945.

June 21 - St. Aloysius Gonzaga (1591). St. Aloysius prayed vigorously and fasted from age 7. Upon joining the Society of Jesus, he was ordered to cut back in order to study and spend time with the other students. He died while nursing the sick.

June 24 - Nativity of St. John the Baptist. The only saint whose birth and death we observe, St. John was Jesus' cousin. He baptized and prepared the people for Jesus' coming. He even baptized Jesus and was later executed for denouncing Herod's marriage to his sister-in-law.

Rincón de Clero

Mi querida familia parroquial de San Ignacio,

Les deseo a todos un bendito domingo de Corpus Christi. La Lectura del Evangelio de hoy es el relato de Marcos de la Última Cena, y está entrelazado con las referencias a la Pascua del Antiguo Testamento. No hay mención del cordero pascual en este relato, destacando que Jesús mismo es la ofrenda del sacrificio. Jesús estableció el nuevo pacto con Su Sangre, en la comida, que se concluyó exteriormente de la manera tradicional con una última copa de vino. Así, cumplió el pacto que vimos en la primera lectura. El nuevo Pascual banquete no terminó en la mesa, sino en Calvario, donde Jesús se sacrificó totalmente por nosotros. Esto es exactamente y debe ser la esencia de nuestra celebración eucarística. La celebración del sacrificio en la mesa eucarística debe continuar en nuestra vida diaria. Por el amor supremo de sacrificio con el que Cristo murió por nosotros en reparación de nuestros pecados y nos redimió, debemos amar a nuestros semejantes. Sólo entonces nuestra celebración en el altar, aquí en la Iglesia, se vuelve realmente significativa y nos convertimos en verdaderos hijos de Dios. En el fondo de nuestro corazón, todos tenemos sed de Dios, porque todos fuimos creados por Dios, y lo único que Él quiere de nosotros es nuestro amor. Solo Cristo puede, y lo hará, satisfacer nuestra hambre y saciar nuestra sed. Todos los días, de hecho cada hora, siempre que se celebra una Misa, Jesús se ofrece a sí mismo a toda la humanidad, en una u otras partes del mundo. para que podamos sentir una intimidad increíble con él. Jesucristo se hace a Sí mismo alimento para nutrirnos y volverse uno con nosotros. Mientras celebramos el domingo de Corpus Christi, trate de pasar un tiempo frente al Santísimo Sacramento, permitiendo que el milagro que tiene lugar en cada Misa resuene en su corazón y mente. Los invito a todos a venir a la anual del Corpus Christi procesión eucarística el sábado, después de la misa de las 5:00 pm, y honrar a Jesús, verdadera y totalmente presente en el Santísimo Sacramento. Además, poco después de la Misa de las 7:30 am, tendremos una hora de adoración después de la cual el Santísimo Sacramento será expuesto y guardado en nuestra Capilla de Adoración, para que pueda pasar el tiempo según su conveniencia.

Este viernes 11 de junio celebramos la Solemnidad del Sacratísimo Corazón de Jesús, y este sábado 12 de junio la Memoria del Inmaculado Corazón de María. Todos consideramos el corazón como el lugar donde sentimos todas las emociones, particularmente el amor. Tal vez porque asociamos la muerte de una persona con la interrupción de los latidos del corazón, aunque médicamente, la muerte ocurre solo por muerte cerebral. Por eso es bueno reflexionar sobre el inmenso amor de Jesús por el cual soportó toda la cruel tortura, y honrar su corazón de una manera especial. Los invito a todos a unirse a nosotros para la Hora Santa aquí en San Ignacio este viernes, poco después de la Misa de las 9:00 am, y también para honrar a nuestra Santísima Madre por su papel de corredentora, únase a nosotros este sábado a las 8.25 am para el Rosario.

Como nuestra educación religiosa necesita voluntarios para el catecismo durante el próximo año, (consulte la página 12 de este boletín para obtener más detalles), por favor mantenga este asunto en su mente para considerarlo en oración. Gracias a todos por su continuo apoyo a la parroquia, incluso en estos tiempos difíciles. Que Dios los bendiga.

En Jesús y María,

P. Shibi Pappan

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

ORACION AL CUERPO Y SANGRE DE CRISTO

Señor Jesús, Tú eres el Pan vivo, Tú eres el pan de Dios, Tú eres el Pan que desciende del cielo, Tú eres el Pan para ser mi alimento espiritual. ¡Cuando me acerque a ti en la comunión, haz que comprenda la profundidad de este misterio!

Tú siempre estás listo para encontrarme: haz que yo camine siempre hacia Ti, haz que yo permita ser atraído por Ti. Haz que siempre haya en mí una absoluta disponibilidad, para que Tú puedas arrollarme con la fuerza de tu amor, y de este mundo conducirme al Padre.

Cuando vienes hacia mi en la comunión, ilumíname para entender que estoy someténdome a tu acción divina. Dóname la capacidad de descubrir cara a cara el misterio de tu amor por mí.

Haz que comprenda tu llamada, aquella vocación personal, inefable y misteriosa y ser una sola cosa contigo y con el Padre.

Que tenga bien presente en todos mis sentidos la convicción de pertenecerte, de ser tu posesión.

Oh Señor quiero pertenecerte, y poder decir: «Ya no soy yo quien vivo, es Cristo quien vive en mí.»

V. ¡Señor mío y Dios mío!

R. Oh Jesús, haz que yo sea tuyo, todo tuyo, siempre tuyo.

V. ¡Bendito sea el que viene en nombre del Señor!

R. ¡Hosanna en las alturas!

V. Oh Jesús, presente en el Santísimo Sacramento,

R. Ten piedad de nosotros.

V. Sea alabado y adorado para siempre.

R. El Santísimo Sacramento

V. Alabanzas y gracias se den en todo momento

R. Al Santísimo y Divinísimo Sacramento.

V. Te adoro en todo momento, oh vivo Pan del cielo, gran Sacramento

R. Ven, Señor, y no quieras tardar.

V. Viva Jesús Sacramentado,

R. Viva y de todos se muy amado.

V. Oh Sacramentado Jesús,

R. Ten piedad de nosotros
