My dear faith family of St. Ignatius,

Today's Gospel passage (Mark 5:21-43) has two important characters. They are examples of faith. Moreover, along with their faith, they are willing to do whatever it takes to realize their goals.

The first person is a sick woman. She trusts that Jesus can heal her. However, she also realizes that she must do more than just trust Jesus. She must go a step farther. She must do her part. She cannot just sit at home and wait for Jesus to come to her. She must get up, go to Jesus, and present herself to him for healing.

The same is true of the second story in today's gospel. Jairus also trusts that Jesus can heal his sick daughter. However, Jairus also realizes that he must do more than just trust Jesus. He realizes that he must go a step farther. He must do his part. He must cooperate with Jesus. Since his daughter is too sick to come to Jesus, he must ask Jesus to come to her.

Thus, the two people in today's gospel do more than just trust in Jesus. They go a step farther. They do their part. They make use of the ordinary means God gave them to obtain the healing they need.

Sometimes, we forget that God normally acts in our lives through ordinary means. We forget that we must do our part. In other words, we cannot sit idly by and expect God to work some miracle for us. We must first use all the ordinary means God gives us to help ourselves.

It is like a student, without studying, just prays to God to help him to pass his final exam. God never intended prayer to be a substitute for study. He never intended prayer to be a substitute for hard work.

Remember, receiving God's help is a two-way street. It involves our cooperation with God. We must do our part, and God will do His part.

St. Ignatius of Loyola describes our cooperation with God this way: "We must work as if everything depends on us, but we must pray as if everything depends on God." Or as the old adage puts it so well "God helps those who help themselves."

That's the way God deals with us when it comes to helping us. He has set us free. We all have free wills. Therefore, He does not force His help on us. He makes it available to us and leaves us free to use it or not.

God does not treat us like puppets. He treats us like partners. In other words, God gives us all the ordinary resources we need for all our ordinary daily living.

However, when we do turn to God for our needs, we can be sure of His divine help, for He is our Father and we are His children. Therefore, we can pray to Him: Lord, in your fatherly love for us, you have set us free. Help us to show our love for You by returning our love to You always. Amen.

Fr. Francis

June 27, 2021 | Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wis 1:13-15; 2:23-24 | 2 Cor 8:7, 9, 13-15 | Mk 5:21-43 or 5:21-24, 35b-43

Written by

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

“Do not be afraid; just have faith.” It’s likely we’ve heard and seen Jesus’ reassuring words or even shared them with others. When I read the story of Jairus and his daughter, I thought of a man with whom I spoke recently. As his lungs failed him during a bout with coronavirus, doctors advised him to say good-bye to his wife and daughters before they placed him on a ventilator. “I was expecting to wake up in heaven,” he said, recalling the moment not as one of fear or panic, but of deep peace. In today’s Gospel passage, Jairus had that kind of “fearless faith” as well, placing his daughter’s life wholly in Jesus’ hands even as others in the crowd ridiculed him. When we pray or ask for God’s healing, we can’t know the outcome. But we can pray for the gifts of faith and courage, placing our lives in God’s loving hands.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

When I was a child, my aunt would always encourage us to make the sign of the cross when we passed an ambulance or accident scene. In her concern for the strangers at the side of the road, my aunt was giving us a lesson in compassion, which stands in marked contrast to the crowds who ridiculed Jairus as he desperately sought help for his daughter. The Church has a rich tradition of intercessory prayer, encouraging us to pray for the needs of others. Today’s readings remind me that we can share our faith by praying for others who are sick, dying, grieving, or struggling in some way. Likewise, we can ask others to pray for us, trusting that God will hear our prayers.

PRAY Do you ever offer to pray for someone and then completely forget? Try writing each person’s name on a Post-it and placing it on your bedside table. Other ideas: Pray the Rosary while driving or exercising, devoting a decade to each person; include prayers for others when you say Grace before meals; as soon as you offer to pray for someone, drop everything and do it!

Thought of the week

To trust God in the light is nothing, but trust Him in the dark - that is faith.

Saint quote ...

“Trust the past to the mercy of God, the present to His love, and the future to His providence .”
- St. Augustine

INTERESTING FACTS ON RAISING FROM THE DEAD MIRACLES

In today's Gospel Reading we see Jesus brought back the daughter of Jairus, to life. Jesus revealed His divinity and showed that He is the Son of God and the Messiah by performing miracles. Jesus remains the same always. He still has the same power, even over death, love and compassion. His resurrection is the greatest miracle, and the base of our faith. So let us have a glance at the miracles which fall into this category of miracles.

Jesus raises a widow's son, an young man from Nain, from the dead. ( Lk.7:11-17 )

Jesus raises Jairus' daughter from the dead. Mt.9:18,23- 36, Mk.5:21-24,,35-43,Lk8:40-42,49-56

Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead.(Jn.11:1-45)

Resurrection of Jesus recorded in all 4 Gospels.

ST.IGNATIAN YEAR CORNER

Spiritual struggles and joys of St. Ignatius

Ignatius experienced a desolation and dissatisfaction when his romantic heroism dream was over. His dream to become a saint, later gave Him much joy and peace. He learned about discernment, at this time. He realized that two powerful forces were acting upon him, and that some thoughts which were from God, brought him happiness, and others from the evil, brought him sorrow. Ignatius decided to discern God's will, and began a new way of life, following God instead of men.

Ignatian Spirituality

In the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius, there are various “rules for the discernment of spirits”—called principles of wise discernment. These four strategies are helpful to make a good decision.

- ⇒ Write all the Pros and Cons.—The advantages if a decision is made, and if not made . Also, the cons.
- ⇒ Try It . For a period of time imagine that the decision is already made and see how it affects you.
- ⇒ Think How Would You Counsel Someone in Your Situation.— Think of the advice you will give to someone in your situation of dilemma.
- ⇒ Think of the effect of your decision at the End of Your Life.— Think whether the decision you took will make you happy or regret on your death bed

A Powerful Prayer to be Said Before Praying
 “Almighty Father, I place the Precious Blood of Jesus before my lips before I pray, that my prayers may be purified before they ascend to Your divine altar.” – St. Mary Magdalen de Pazzi

The “Constant” Prayer of St. Catherine of Siena
 “Precious Blood, ocean of divine mercy: Flow upon us! Precious Blood, most pure offering: Procure us every grace! Precious Blood, hope and refuge of sinners: Atoned for us! Precious Blood, delight of holy souls: Draw us! Amen.”

Short Invocation for July
Jesus, cover me with Your Precious Blood. Amen.

LOOKING FOR A FEW GOOD MEN AND WOMEN

Our parish is in desperate need of adult altar servers for the Funeral Masses held here at St. Ignatius. This is a wonderful, worthwhile service ministry not to just the parish, but to those families during a very sad time of their lives. We serve as a two member team at each Funeral Mass. There is some brief training involved. We need men and women to serve in this capacity. Our goal is to gain enough volunteers so no one would have to serve more than a couple of times each month. Typically, Funeral Masses are held on Monday through Saturday mornings. If you are able to help and would like to be a part of this ministry, we really need your help. Please contact me, Carol Hogan at hoags10@optonline.net or at 516-987-4011. I would love to hear from you and to add you to our ministry. Thank you.

The Religious Education Office will be closed from July 1 to August 31.

You can register online at the parish website www.stignatiushicksville.org on the home page under 2021-2022 Online Registration Faith Formation

BE A CATECHIST

Religious Education is looking for the following teachers for this coming school year (2021-2022): If you wish to volunteer, please call Colleen at 935-6873.

- 2 teachers for 2nd Level
- 1 teacher for 3rd Level
- 1 teacher for 4th Level
- 1 teacher for 6th Level

If you have any questions during the summer, you can email Colleen at colleentuzzolo@gmail.com or call the office at 935-6873. Someone will be in the office over the summer periodically to check the messages. We hope all of our families have a restful and safe summer!

ST. IGNATIUS ANNUAL GOLF CLASSIC

Many thanks to the participants, sponsors and volunteers of our Annual St. Ignatius Loyola Golf Classic. We again shared the golf course, for the eighth year, with Our Lady of Mercy Parish. Both parishes have had committee members who have worked together this past year for the benefit of both parishes. We were very happy to be able to hold the outing this year after not having one last year because of COVID-19.

We had a combined total of 100 golfers and the weather was great. The cocktail hour and dinner was enjoyed by everyone. The food was very good, we had lots of raffle prizes and a 50/50 prize of over $900.

The lucky winners of our early bird raffle were: Tom Kenny $250, Dennis Wilson $150 and John Rigert $100. Congratulations to the 3 lucky winners. Our Parish had a total profit of just over $13,000.

We hope to see all of our golfers, sponsors and volunteers again next year. If you have not previously attended any of the prior golf outings, please consider doing so next year. We would love to have you join us.

Thank you again. The Golf Committee

Happy to inform you that we have started sending St. Ignatius Email Newsletter every Thursday, to inform you about the parish activities. If you want to receive this newsletter, please sign up on our website or give your email address to the parish office or to the ushers.

Please visit regularly our website and Facebook for updates.

Rincón de Clero*Mi querida familia de fe de San Ignacio,

El pasaje del Evangelio de hoy (Marcos 5: 21-43) tiene dos personajes importantes. Son ejemplos de fe. Además, junto con su fe, están dispuestos a hacer lo que sea necesario para lograr sus objetivos.

La primera persona es una mujer enferma. Ella confía en que Jesús la puede curar. Sin embargo, también se da cuenta de que debe hacer algo más que confiar en Jesús. Debe dar un paso más. Ella debe hacer su parte. No puede quedarse sentada en casa y esperar a que Jesús venga a ella. Debe levantarse, ir a Jesús y presentarse ante él para que la cure.

Lo mismo ocurre con la segunda historia del evangelio de hoy. Jairo también confía en que Jesús puede curar a su hija enferma. Sin embargo, Jairo también se da cuenta de que debe hacer algo más que confiar en Jesús. Se da cuenta de que debe dar un paso más. Debe hacer su parte. Debe cooperar con Jesús. Dado que su hija está demasiado enferma para venir a Jesús, debe pedirle a Jesús que venga a ella.

Por lo tanto, las dos personas en el evangelio de hoy hacen más que simplemente confiar en Jesús. Van un paso más allá. Ellos hacen su parte. Hacen uso de los medios ordinarios que Dios les dio para obtener la curación que necesitan.

A veces, olvidamos que Dios normalmente actúa en nuestras vidas a través de medios ordinarios. Olvidamos que debemos hacer nuestra parte. En otras palabras, no podemos quedarnos de brazos cruzados y esperar que Dios haga algún milagro para nosotros. Primero debemos usar todos los medios ordinarios que Dios nos da para ayudarnos a nosotros mismos.

Es como un alumno que, sin estudiar, simplemente reza a Dios para que le ayude a aprobar su examen final. Dios nunca quiso que la oración fuera un sustituto del estudio. Nunca tuvo la intención de que la oración fuera un sustituto del trabajo duro.

Recuerde, recibir la ayuda de Dios es una vía de doble sentido. Implica nuestra cooperación con Dios. Debemos hacer nuestra parte y Dios hará la suya.

San Ignacio de Loyola describe nuestra cooperación con Dios de esta manera: "Debemos trabajar como si todo dependiera de nosotros, pero debemos orar como si todo dependiera de Dios". O como dice el viejo refrán "Dios ayuda a los que se ayudan a sí mismos".

Así es como Dios nos trata cuando se trata de ayudarnos. Él nos ha liberado. Todos tenemos libre albedrío. Por lo tanto, no nos obliga a ayudarnos. Él lo pone a nuestra disposición y nos deja libres para usarlo o no.

Dios no nos trata como marionetas. Nos trata como socios. En otras palabras, Dios nos da todos los recursos ordinarios que necesitamos para nuestra vida diaria ordinaria.

Sin embargo, cuando nos volvemos a Dios para nuestras necesidades, podemos estar seguros de Su ayuda divina, porque Él es nuestro Padre y nosotros somos Sus hijos. Por lo tanto, podemos orarle: Señor, en tu amor paternal por nosotros, nos has liberado. Ayúdanos a mostrarte nuestro amor devolviéndote nuestro amor siempre. Amén.

P. Francis

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Evangelio del domingo

Lectura del santo Evangelio según san Marcos (5,21-43):

En aquel tiempo Jesús atravesó de nuevo a la otra orilla, se le reunió mucha gente a su alrededor, y se quedó junto al lago.

Se acercó un jefe de la sinagoga, que se llamaba Jairo, y al verlo se echó a sus pies, rogándole con insistencia: «Mi niña está en las últimas; ven, pon las manos sobre ella, para que se cure y viva.»

Jesús se fue con él, acompañado de mucha gente que lo apretujaba. Había una mujer que padecía flujos de sangre desde hacía doce años. Muchos médicos la habían sometido a toda clase de tratamientos y se había gastado en eso toda, su fortuna; pero en vez de mejorar, se había puesto peor. Oyó hablar de Jesús y, acercándose por detrás, entre la gente, le tocó el manto, pensando que con sólo tocarle el vestido, curaría. Inmediatamente se secó la fuente de sus hemorragias y notó que su cuerpo estaba curado.

Jesús, notando que, había salido fuerza de él, se volvió en seguida, en medio de la gente, preguntando: «¿Quién me ha tocado el manto?»

Los discípulos le contestaron: «Ves como te apretuja la gente y preguntas: "¿quién me ha tocado?"»

Él seguía mirando alrededor, para ver quién había sido. La mujer se acercó asustada y temblorosa, al comprender lo que había pasado, se le echó a los pies y le confesó todo.

Él le dijo: «Hija, tu fe te ha curado. Vete en paz y con salud.»

Todavía estaba hablando, cuando llegaron de casa del jefe de la sinagoga para decirle: «Tu hija se ha muerto. ¿Para qué molestar más al maestro?»

Jesús alcanzó a oír lo que hablaban y le dijo al jefe de la sinagoga: «No temas; basta que tengas fe.»

No permitió que lo acompañara nadie, más que Pedro, Santiago y Juan, el hermano de Santiago. Llegaron a casa del jefe de la sinagoga y encontró el alboroto de los que lloraban y se lamentaban a gritos.

Entró y les dijo: «¿Qué estrépito y qué lloros son éstos? La niña no está muerta, está dormida.»

Se reían de él. Pero él los echó fuera a todos, y con el padre y la madre de la niña y sus acompañantes entró donde estaba la niña, la cogió de la mano y le dijo: «Talitha qumi (que significa: contigo hablo, niña, levántate).»

La niña se puso en pie inmediatamente y echó a andar —tenía doce años—. Y se quedaron viendo visiones. Les insistió en que nadie se enterase; y les dijo que dieran de comer a la niña.
