Solemnity of the Lord's Ascension

The Solemnity of the Lord's Ascension, into heaven, gives us the opportunity to reflect on the meaning of this event.

The miraculous ascension of our Lord is a continuation of His miraculous incarnation. The human and the divine natures, true God, and true man; become united in the one Person of Christ. It is this very Person of Christ, in His glorified body that ascended into heaven thereby giving humanity access to the Father. (CCC #661) As we profess in the Creed "He ascended into heaven." He is now and forever, living, and participating of and with God: This marks the definitive entrance of Jesus' humanity into God's heavenly domain, from where He will return. (Acts 1:11), (CCC#665)

Jesus "is the one intercessor with the Father on behalf of all men... He is "able for all time to save those who draw near to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them." The Holy Spirit " himself intercedes for us ... and intercedes for the saints according to the will of God." (CCC# 2634)

Christ, the new Adam, returns men to God. Promising to be with us always to the end of the age. (Matt 28:20) This is the paradox of our faith: Jesus does not return to Heaven in order to abandon us. He goes to heaven, in order to indwell in us. After His ascension, He sends the Holy Spirit to live within us as in a temple. Jesus tells the disciples: "...if I do not go away, the Counselor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. (Jn 16:7ff) He also says: "These things I have spoken to you, while I am still with you. But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you."(Jn 14:25ff) He is present in memoriam and indwells with us even more intimately through the Eucharist. This indwelling is the supernatural "presence of the Holy Spirit in a person who is in the state of grace. (Fr. J. Hardon) He gives himself to us as nourishment in the sacred host. We are really 'sharers in the divine nature'. (2 Peter 1:4)

Because He ascended, we too have ascended. The Lord who ascends, Christ, our head, entered Heaven alone. However, as His mystical body we also ascend with Him. If we remain members of His Body, we will also ascend. Jesus Christ, the head of the Church, precedes us into the Father's glorious kingdom so that we, the members of His Body, may live in the hope of one day being with Him forever. (CCC#666)

The Ascension is the future hope for humans promised by the resurrected Christ. Our great hope is that someday, we too will be ascending to the heavenly glory, as we live out our faith in Him by observing the commandments entrusted to us. (Eph. 1:17-23; 4:1-13) The ascension appears as the necessary link between Christ's resurrection and his second coming. "The Ascension is a festival of the future of the world. The flesh is redeemed and glorified, for the Lord has risen forever. (Fr.K Rahner)

The ascension is a culmination all the words and works He has done for us and for our salvation. It brings the hope of eternal life to humanity; an eternal life to be lived in our many mansions in our heavenly homeland. (Jn14:2-6)

FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Actions speak louder than words. How many of us have heard or said this exact phrase? I suspect most, if not all of us are quite familiar with this old adage. In fact, this is exactly what we are being told by Jesus himself in today’s Gospel when he says, “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations.” Jesus continues his direction of action by telling us to baptize “in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” We are not directed to simply speak about Jesus with our families and church communities, we are told to GO among all nations and add to Jesus’ flock. We continue Christ’s mission when we seek to spread his love. Before Jesus joined his Father in heaven, his instructions were very clear. This is an opportunity to think about the commission we were given as part of the baptized community, and how Jesus is asking us to take action in his name.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Easier said than done. We’ve all heard that one as well. It’s hard to feel equipped to spread the word and the will of God. We worry our words will fail us and we will look foolish. We know we are not perfect, and wonder if that means we cannot possibly be Christ’s hands and feet on this earth. However, today’s reading from Ephesians provides us with the perfect prayer to give us hope and faith in the Holy Spirit as we set out to fulfill the Great Commission given to us in this week’s Gospel: “May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a Spirit of wisdom and revelation resulting in knowledge of him.” We are challenged to act for God, but not without being given the tools to do so with confidence.

PRAY Meditate on today’s second reading from Ephesians. Read it as if your priest was giving you a blessing before you head out of your house each morning. Let it fill your soul with love and awe for our Father, and let it give you the confidence you need to play an active role in building his kingdom until he comes again.

Gospel in a nutshell

Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come. Give glory to your son, so that your son may glorify you, just as you gave him authority over all people, so that your son may give eternal life to all you gave him. Now this is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ.

Jesus assures us of eternal life.

Catholic Hospital System Told to Extinguish Their Sanctuary Candle or Lose Their Ability to Help the Poor Through Medicaid, Medicare or CHIP

St. Francis, non-profit Health System in Oklahoma is the 12th largest hospital in the country and serves over 400,000 patients each year and has provided over 650 million in free health services over the last five years. For 63 years a sanctuary candle has burned without a problem in the chapel at Saint Francis Hospital Yale Campus where vital healthcare is provided for the elderly, poor and disabled in Oklahoma. The fire marshal and government never complained about the candle until now. The hospital's attorneys from the Beckett Fund point out that the candle is far from medical equipment and shielded by glass holders and a brass top.

Health and Human Services has mandated the extinguishing of the candle even though the hospital has applied four times for an exemption. Now they are working with the Becket Fund attorneys to protect the hospital system's right to maintain the living flame in accordance with their 1st Amendment right to religious expression and in keeping with Canon Law which states that when the Eucharist is present, a lamp must shine continuously. If the hospital is forced to extinguish the candle, they will have to remove the Eucharist from the chapel.

Why was St. Francis Health System in Oklahoma Threatened with Expulsion from Medicare, Medicaid and CHIP Over Its Long-Approved Sanctuary Candle?

The government has seen the light and has abandoned its attempt to force an Oklahoma hospital to blow out a small candle or stop serving elderly, disabled, and low-income patients," Lori Windham, vice president and senior counsel at the Becket religious liberty legal group, said May 5 on Twitter.

The chapel's candle has never been an issue in previous inspections. Other open flames are permitted at hospitals in kitchen stoves and ovens, gas dryers in the laundry room, flames in gas water heaters, and welding for construction purposes, Windham noted.

According to Windham, the hospital candle is "encased in a thick glass globe, which is itself encased in a second glass globe, covered by a bronze top that fits over the second globe." This globe rests in a bronze holder affixed to the chapel wall. There are fire extinguishing sprinkler heads around the candle and the local fire marshal has long approved it.

During a Feb. 21 inspection, Windham's letter to CMS recounted, a surveyor from The Joint Commission at Saint Francis Hospital South in Tulsa "expressly asked to go to the chapel to see if there was a living flame." The surveyor observed to hospital personnel that "other Catholic hospitals had complied and extinguished the living flame at their chapels, substituting it with an electric light." While federal standards do classify chapel candles as "flame-producing equipment," these are only barred within one foot of a nasal cannula, a device to provide supplemental oxygen. The hospital candle is never near such a device. The relevant codes and standards of the National Fire Protection Association expressly permit sanctuary candles.

Psalm 30:2 "O Lord my God, I cried to you for help, and you have healed me."

St. Ignatius Loyola AROUND THE PARISH Happenings

Dear Jane's Garden members,

All the garden signs that were in storage were placed in their respective gardens. Some of these signs are weathered or damaged, so please replace them if you want to. I would ask that all members please begin to freshen up your gardens, since Mother's Day is the unofficial start date for the gardens.

I will need for all the garden members to reach out to me by email (coppola_b@yahoo.com) and let me know if they are continuing with their garden.

Sadly, some members have moved or are no longer able to attend to their garden. To keep the church grounds fresh, vibrant, and full of color we will need all Jane's Garden areas attended to.

Respectfully,
Bart C

Spiritual Adoption Program – Month Seven– Developing Baby

If you haven't yet returned your Spiritual Adoption card, there's still time. Cards can be found near the entrances; fill out the "Adoption Certificate" portion, and place it in the basket next to the statue of Our Blessed Mother.

"I can look around!"

Beginning this month the baby uses all four senses. His eyelids open and close, and the eyes look around. The baby can hear, taste, touch, cough, yawn and hiccup. He now recognizes his own mother's voice. His grip is even stronger now than it will be after his birth. The hair on his head is growing longer and the downy covering on the rest of his body is disappearing. During this time the baby will receive antibodies from his mother providing him immunity to a wide variety of diseases.

"Each day for nine months, say this prayer for your Spiritually adopted baby:

*Lord Jesus, today I lift up in prayer
the life of my spiritually adopted pre-born child.
I ask that you protect and shield this child from all harm.
Mary and Joseph, I ask your intercession for the parents of this child, that God would shower His love and mercy upon them, and guide them that at this difficult time.
May He send His Spirit to empower them to choose to continue the child's life.*

AMEN.

Corte Reina de los Angeles No. 869 Programa de Adopción Espiritual –Mes Siete– Desarrollo del Bebé

"¡Hoy pude mirar a mi alrededor!"

Al comenzar este mes ya uso 4 de mis sentidos. Mis párpados se abren y se cierran, y mis ojos pueden ver a mi alrededor. Ya tengo sentido del gusto, puedo toser, bostezar y a veces me da hipo. Ahora reconozco la voz de mamá. Mi apretón de manos es ahora más fuerte de lo que será después de que nazca. El cabello me está creciendo y el vello que me cubre el resto del cuerpo está desapareciendo. Es durante este tiempo cuando recibiré de mi mamá los anticuerpos que me darán inmunidad contra una amplia variedad de enfermedades.

Cada día durante nueve meses decir esta oración por tu bebé adoptado Espiritualmente:

*Señor Jesús, hoy levanto en oración la vida de mi bebé adoptado Espiritualmente antes de nacer.
Te pido que protejas y acompañes este niño (a) de todo daño.
María y José, les pido Intercedan por los padres de este Bebé, para que Dios derrame su amor y misericordia sobre ellos, y los guie en este momento difícil.*

Que Él envíe su Espíritu para fortalecerlos y opten por dejar continuar la vida del bebé.

AMEN.

SOLEMNIDAD DE LA ASCENSION DEL SEÑOR.

Cristo, el nuevo Adán, devuelve a los hombres a Dios. Prometiendo estar con nosotros siempre hasta el fin del mundo. (Mateo 28:20) Esta es la paradoja de nuestra fe: Jesús no regresa al Cielo para abandonarnos. Él va al cielo, para morar en nosotros. Después de su ascensión, envía al Espíritu Santo, a vivir dentro de nosotros como en un templo. Jesús dice a los discípulos: “...si no me fuera, el Consolador no vendría a vosotros; pero si me voy, os lo enviaré. (Jn 16, 7ss) También dice: “Estas cosas os he hablado estando aún con vosotros. Pero el Consolador, el Espíritu Santo, que el Padre enviará en mi nombre, él os enseñará todas las cosas y os recordará todo lo que os he dicho” (Jn 14, 25ss). El está presente y habita en nosotros aún más íntimamente en el memorial de la Eucaristía. Esta morada es la “presencia sobrenatural del Espíritu Santo en cada persona que está en estado de gracia. (P. J. Hardon) Él se nos da como alimento en la hostia sagrada. Allí somos realmente “partícipes de la naturaleza divina”. (2 Pedro 1:4)

Nosotros también hemos ascendido, porque Él ascendió. El Señor que asciende, Cristo, nuestra cabeza, entró solo en el Cielo. Sin embargo, como Su cuerpo místico también ascendemos con Él. Si seguimos siendo miembros de Su Cuerpo, también ascenderemos. Jesucristo, la cabeza de la Iglesia, nos precede en el reino glorioso del Padre para que nosotros, los miembros de su Cuerpo, podamos vivir en la esperanza de estar un día con él para siempre. (CCC#666)

La Ascensión es la esperanza futura para los humanos prometida por Cristo resucitado. Nuestra gran esperanza es que algún día, nosotros también ascenderemos a la gloria celestial, al vivir nuestra fe en Él al observar los mandamientos que se nos han confiado. (Ef. 1:17-23; 4:1-13) La ascensión aparece como el eslabón necesario entre la resurrección de Cristo y su segunda venida. “La Ascensión es un festival del futuro del mundo. La carne es redimida y glorificada, porque el Señor ha resucitado para siempre. (Fr.K Rahner)

La ascensión es la culminación de todas las palabras y obras que Él ha hecho por nosotros y por nuestra salvación. La ascensión, trae a la humanidad la esperanza de la vida eterna; una vida eterna para ser vivida en nuestras muchas moradas en nuestra patria celestial. (Jn14:2-6)

Dn. Antonio

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Evangelio según San Juan (Jn. 17, 1-11)

En aquel tiempo, Jesús levantó los ojos al cielo y dijo: "Padre, ha llegado la hora. Glorifica a tu Hijo, para que tu Hijo también te glorifique, y por el poder que le diste sobre toda la humanidad, dé la vida eterna a cuantos le has confiado. La vida eterna consiste en que te conozcan a ti, único Dios verdadero, y a Jesucristo, a quien tú has enviado.

Yo te he glorificado sobre la tierra, llevando a cabo la obra que me encomendaste. Ahora, Padre, glorifícame en ti con la gloria que tenía, antes de que el mundo existiera. He manifestado tu nombre a los hombres que tú tomaste del mundo y me diste. Eran tuyos y tú me los diste. Ellos han cumplido tu palabra y ahora conocen que todo lo que me has dado viene de ti, porque yo les he comunicado las palabras que tú me diste: ellos las han recibido y ahora reconocen que yo salí de ti y creen que tú me has enviado.

Te pido por ellos; no te pido por el mundo, sino por éstos, que tú me diste, porque son tuyos. Todo lo mío es tuyo y todo lo tuyo es mío. Yo he sido glorificado en ellos. Ya no estaré más en el mundo, pues voy a ti; pero ellos se quedan en el mundo".

Palabra del Señor / Gloria a ti Señor Jesús

El Señor no dice solo: "Padre, glorifica a tu Hijo", añade: "para que tu Hijo te glorifique". Preguntamos, y con razón, cómo el Hijo glorificó al Padre... En efecto, la gloria del Padre, en sí misma, no puede crecer ni disminuir. Era menor, sin embargo, cerca de los hombres cuando Dios se manifestó "en Judea" y "sus siervos alababan el nombre del Señor de la salida del sol hasta su ocaso" (Sal. 75,2; 112,1-3). Esto se produjo por el Evangelio de Cristo que hizo conocer a las naciones al Padre por el Hijo: así el Hijo glorificó al Padre.

Si el Hijo sólo hubiera muerto y no hubiera resucitado, no habría sido glorificado ni por el Padre ni el Padre por él. Ahora, glorificado por el Padre en su resurrección, él glorifica al Padre por la predicación de su resurrección. Esto aparece en el mismo orden de las palabras: "Padre, glorifica a tu Hijo para que tu Hijo te glorifique", como si dijera: "Resucítame, para que por mí, tú seas conocido en todo el universo"... Desde entonces, Dios es glorificado cuando la predicación hace que lo conozcan los hombres y cuando aceptado por la fe de los que creen en él.
