GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Sometimes I stop paying attention to the news for a period of time. There seems to be little that's "new" in the daily barrage of natural disasters and the countless ways we humans hurt each other. I've even stopped using social media, which at least made me smile when seeing photos of friends and family welcoming little ones or celebrating big milestones. Which brings me to today's Gospel: Sometimes it seems overwhelming to want to love as Christ commands, and I feel that there's little, if anything, I can do for people outside of my social circle, let alone on the opposite side of the world. Hearing of my struggles with compassion fatigue, a friend recently reminded me of some wise words that have been attributed to St. Mother Teresa: "Never worry about numbers. Help one person at a time and always start with the person nearest you." We love as Christ commands by willing the good of the other. And it is not trite or cliché to say at times, "honestly, all I can do right now is pray." After all, as the Lord says, "If he cries out to me, I will hear him; for I am compassionate." When our compassion is exhausted, let the Lord carry it, for he never tires. And then, when it is possible, practical, and seems to be inspired by the Holy Spirit, we can do more - whatever that may be.

MEDITATE When you feel overwhelmed with the world, reflect upon today's responsorial psalm: "I love you, Lord, my strength." Let God's love for the world and his strength flow into your heart, and know that you can call on him to help you bear the burden of love.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

If you're like me and somewhat daunted by the second greatest commandment, I encourage you to take another look at today's readings. "You shall love your neighbor..." (emphasis added). Surely the world is far too large for us to make a difference? Therefore, remember that "God so loved the world" - and what he asks of us is to love our neighbor. So leave the world to God; pray for and give alms for those bigger world issues when we're able. When our circumstances change and we have more time and energy to take on more, such as participate in ministry, even better! But until then, when we walk out our front door in the morning, we go forth knowing that we are "imitators ... of the Lord," and that this smaller, much more manageable part of the world is what we are called to tend. Let our most active role in being the body of Christ extend to what is immediate to us - our neighbor and community - because that is where we will have the most influence for Christ in the world.

Gospel verse for reflection

"Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?"
He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God,
with all your heart, with all your soul,
and with all your mind.
This is the greatest and the first commandment.

Thought of the week

The greatest fundamental principle of God's commandments is love.

Saint quote ...

"The measure of love is to love without measure."

St. Francis de Sales.

The Greatest Commandment

for love of God, and live our whole life completely for Him.

What does Jesus say the greatest commandment is? At first you might think that the most important thing would be to not kill anyone, wouldn't you? But that's not what He says! The very most important thing is to love God with our whole heart and soul and mind! It means that we must do everything we do

But how can we love God so much?

Well, we can practice little by little, loving Him more each day. Paying attention at Mass every Sunday and saying a prayer every day would be a good start. Every morning tell God that you will do everything for Him today and every night before you go to bed, thank God for all that He has done for you and tell Him you're sorry for the bad things you did that day. Then try to think about God through the day.

The second greatest commandment that Jesus tells us is that we should love others as much as we love ourselves. If we really love God then we will want to love other people too, because God loves them! If you don't love others, it shows that you don't really love God as much as you should. What can you do today to start loving God more?

Good News Reflection

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time , November 5, 2023

Pray: Dear Father, with Your Holy Spirit help me make my heart humble. I need the humility of a child who knows that he alone can do nothing, but with his Dad nothing can stop him! Jesus, meek and humble of heart, make my heart resemble Yours. Amen.

Malachi 1:14b-2:2b, 8-10; Ps 131:1-3; 1 Thessalonians 2:7b-9, 13; Matthew 23:1-12

Equally loved, equally important

Today's Gospel reading contains a verse that, when taken literally, has been used by some Protestants to condemn Catholicism because we call our priests "Father." By that logic, when Jesus said, "Call no one on earth your father," he meant our dads, too, right? Did he never call St. Joseph by the title father? Perhaps when Jesus as a lad had a question about carpentry he said, "Hey dude who's married to Mom!" I don't think so.

To understand what Jesus means in this scripture, we need to read the whole passage: This singled-out verse is actually part of a teaching about equality. He is telling us that we must not consider anyone to be superior to ourselves -- no one but God is superior to us.

Jesus says here: "The greatest among you must be your servant." At other times in other scriptures, Jesus says that if we want to be greatest, we have to be the servant of all, because we must not think of ourselves as superior to others. But in today's lesson he's telling us not to think of ourselves as inferior, either. He's trying to cure our low self-esteem.

Do you know, for example, that as a person you are not inferior to the pope? This is why he's called the servant of the servants of God. As Christ's representative in Church leadership, he serves us in everything he does, whether it's presiding at Mass or writing a Church document or making authoritative decisions.

No matter what someone's credentials are, no matter how much authority God has given to our priests and other Church leaders, and no matter how rich or famous or well-liked anyone is, we are all equally loved by God. We're all equally important to God. To see our worth, we must learn to see ourselves through God's eyes.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

Do you feel served by those who have higher status? Why or why not? When you don't, how much of this is your own attitude of assuming that you're inferior? What will you do to shift your thinking and accept your own value according to God's perspective?

Questions for Community Faith Sharing:

When someone's job or talents or position in the family or church seems greater than yours, how do you overcome your feelings of inferiority? How does Jesus convey to you that you are inferior to no one? Describe a time when you felt inferior but then became aware of your equal value. (This story will help others who are struggling to overcome their own feelings of inferiority.)

November is the month traditionally dedicated to all souls.

Prayers for our dearly departed ones

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. And let the perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

It is popularly believed that Our Lord told St. Gertrude that the following prayer would release 1,000 souls from Purgatory each time it is said. The prayer was extended to include living sinners as well.

Prayer Of St. Gertrude The Great
*“Eternal Father, I offer thee the most precious blood of thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my home and within my family.
 Amen.”*

This past weekend, October 21st /22nd , St. Ignatius Parish was privileged to host an internationally acclaimed exhibition of the Eucharistic Miracles of the World.....a project conceived and researched by Blessed Carlos Acutis. Our exhibition was more than just the telling of 72 compelling moments in history when Jesus revealed himself in the Holy Eucharist...it had other areas of discovery, including a comparative study of the mass and a visit to grandma’s house, an altar set up as if for mass and a collection of vestments and liturgical objects, a “children’s corner” with activities for young people and finally a huge and beautiful invitation to visit Jesus daily in our Adoration Chapel.

The response to our exhibition was huge and heartwarming. We welcomed not only large numbers of our own parishioners but also visitors from all over Nassau, Suffolk and Queens Counties. The response was all we could have asked for.....and more. The comments were uniformly positive, moving and heartfelt. We at St. Ignatius are incredibly grateful for this and we thank God for overseeing our work.

An undertaking of this magnitude does not happen on its own, but only through the efforts of a large and dedicated team, over many weeks. I cannot thank enough those who generously took time out of their busy lives to spend hours preparing the Exhibition for the public, donating plants, pumpkins and artifacts, and even more hours maintaining it and welcoming visitors.

We thank Fr. Shibi Pappan, Fr. Jacob Varughese, Fr. Francis Samuel, AnsyMary Antony, Sr. Mary O’Donnell, and Sr. Kathleen Murphy, We thank Tony Condron and his staff, Nivia Soto and the Religious Education teachers, Ellen Lentini and the Catholic Daughters, Peggy Gill and the Martha’s Guild, Mary Ann Lang and the Activities Committee, John O’Donnell and the Knights of Columbus, Richard Burg and the Lectors, Juan Medrano, Migdalia Vasquez and the Spanish Ministry and Suzanne McCartney and the St. Ann’s Prayer Group, Nancy Foster and the Eucharistic Ministers, Pamela Flanagan and the Ministry of Consolation, Kathy Dolan and the Columbiettes, Carol Hogan and the Adult Altar Servers, Barbara Cheslock and the Fundraising Committee, and Joseph Malerba and the Pastoral Council. In addition to the above ministries and their members, we thank the Rectory Staff, the students from the Religious Education program and the many sons, daughters, husbands and wives of the above who also generously gave their time and efforts to our event.

Let us go forward into this time of Eucharistic Revival and proclaim our faith and be examples to the world. St. Pope John Paul II declared this to be a time of Divine Mercy. May it be so. We are the spearhead of a grass-roots movement to bring Jesus....God....into a world that badly needs Him again. The world needs the Church and the Church needs us. May God bless us all!

Thank you!

Karen Warner

Evangelio según San Mateo (Mt. 22, 34-40)

En aquel tiempo, habiéndose enterado los fariseos de que Jesús había dejado callados a los saduceos, se acercaron a él. Uno de ellos, que era doctor de la ley, le preguntó para ponerlo a prueba: "Maestro, ¿cuál es el mandamiento más grande de la ley?"

Jesús le respondió: "Amarás al Señor, tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma y con toda tu mente. Éste es el más grande y el primero de los mandamientos. Y el segundo es semejante a éste: Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo. En estos dos mandamientos se fundan toda la ley y los profetas".
Palabra del Señor / Gloria a ti Señor Jesús

REFLEXION DEL PAPA FRANCISCO

Lo que Jesús propone en esta página evangélica es un ideal estupendo, que corresponde al deseo más auténtico de nuestro corazón. De hecho, nosotros hemos sido creados para amar y ser amados. Dios, que es Amor, nos ha creado para hacernos partícipes de su vida, para ser amados por Él y para amarlo, y para amar con Él a todas las demás personas. Este es el "sueño" de Dios para el hombre. Y para realizarlo necesitamos su gracia, necesitamos recibir en nosotros la capacidad de amar que proviene de Dios mismo. Jesús se nos ofrece en la Eucaristía precisamente por eso. En ella recibimos a Jesús en la expresión máxima de su amor, cuando Él se ofreció a sí mismo al Padre por nuestra salvación.

¡Que la Virgen Santa nos ayude a acoger en nuestra vida el "gran mandamiento" del amor a Dios y al prójimo!. Efectivamente, aunque lo sabemos desde cuando éramos niños, no terminaremos jamás de convertirnos a él y de ponerlo en práctica en las diversas situaciones en las cuales nos encontramos.
