ALL FOR THE GREATER GLORY OF GOD. St. Ignatius of Loyola

As we celebrate Volunteer Appreciation Weekend, we find ourselves reflecting on the immense impact each and every one of you has had on our parish community. Your selfless dedication and tireless efforts have not only strengthened the bonds within our community, but have also touched the lives of those in need. This week has been a celebration of you—our unsung heroes—who generously give your time, skills, and compassion to make our parish a warm and welcoming place. Your commitment to service embodies the spirit of unity and kindness that defines our community.

Whether you've been lending a helping hand during our worship services, organizing events, supporting community outreach programs, or contributing in countless other ways, your contributions have not gone unnoticed. It is through your collective efforts that we continue to thrive as a parish and create a positive impact on the lives of many.

Thank you for being the heart and soul of our parish. We are truly grateful for each of you and the unique gifts you bring to our parish family by giving your time, talents, treasure, your valuable prayers, and spiritual support. May your generosity inspire others to join in the spirit of volunteerism, as we are currently in need of more volunteers to help us with a number of different ministries. No matter what your skills or interests are, there is a volunteer opportunity at our parish that is right for you.

Let me highlight two ministries that look for immediate support from you!

The Ministry of Consolation, a vital and compassionate support system within our parish, is currently seeking dedicated individuals to join our team of volunteers. If you have a heart for offering comfort and solace to those in times of grief, we invite you to consider becoming a part of this meaningful ministry. We may need you to assist two or three funeral Masses a month as a greeter or altar server in the company of other volunteers from the ministry.

The Activities Committee is responsible for organizing and coordinating a variety of programs and events that enhance the vibrancy of our parish life. From family-friendly gatherings to community outreach initiatives, there's something for everyone to get involved in! Usually, they have four events a year.

If you are interested in volunteering, please contact the parish office. We would be happy to talk to you about the different opportunities that are available and help you find a volunteer role that is a good fit for you. Thank you for your consideration. We look forward to hearing from you.

It is with immense pride and joy that we extend our heartfelt congratulations to AnsyMary Antony for the remarkable accomplishment of publishing not one, but two insightful books, one on the Holy Eucharist and another on Sacraments with analogies. These books are a testament to the passion, creativity, and unwavering commitment of AnsyMary to provide meaningful resources that help children and adults understand and connect with the profound significance of the Holy Eucharist and Sacraments in their spiritual journey. Once again, congratulations on this outstanding accomplishment and these books will be launched on Christ the King Feast Day! May these books serve as a source of inspiration and enlightenment for generations to come. These books will be available in the Sacristy. Please include these books in your Christmas gift box this year.

As part of Eucharistic Revival and deepening our relationship with the Eucharistic Jesus, we will expose the Blessed Sacrament in the chapel on every Sunday from next week onwards, at 10:30 am to 4:45 pm, in addition to other days of the week. Saturday's adoration extended to 4:45 pm.

Wishing you a Thanksgiving filled with love, laughter, and the warmth of cherished company. May the blessings of Thanksgiving Day extend far beyond our tables and resonate in the hearts of all who share in the spirit of gratitude.

November 19, 2023 | Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prv 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31 | 1 Thes 5:1-6 | Mt 25:14-30

Written by
THE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

When we think of gifts, we may picture a child eagerly ripping into wrapping paper on a birthday or at Christmas. Oh, the anticipation and the joy seen through a child's eyes! In contemplating today's Scriptures, it occurs to me that the gifts God has given to us should fill us with the same joy and sense of gratitude as that child. Although there are many facets to the parable of the talents which Jesus tells his disciples in today's Gospel, what stands out to me comes at the very beginning: "A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them." No small thing to be entrusted with the master's possessions! In the same way, God entrusts us with his gifts - they are all we have and all we are. And, like the master in the parable, God expects us to use our gifts and talents to build his kingdom here on earth - to multiply his goodness in the world.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Does the parable seem a bit harsh at the end? After all, the last servant didn't squander the money he was given, he simply gave it back in the same form in which it was given to him. But let's think about our generous God and the gifts and talents he has given us. God expects us to use these gifts, not hide them under a bushel. If we are lazy with and inattentive to our God-given gifts, they will shrink and fade away. We will be squandering our invitation to full participation in the kingdom of God. Obviously, each of God's children has unique gifts, just as the servants in the parable received different numbers of talents according to their ability. With this in mind, let us consider how we can share our singular gifts and help others do the same. No gift or talent is too small, and God has given us everything we need to use each gift wisely. Empowered by God's love and grace, let us use our blessings for his glory.

WITNESS

The imagery of the "wicked, lazy" servant being punished, coupled with St. Paul's words that the Lord will come "like a thief at night," impart urgency to the task before us. In order to be prepared to give God an accounting of how we are using his gifts, let us start growing them today. Offer forgiveness, love someone whom it is hard to love, show mercy; in other words, be a blessing to others and see how that goodness multiplies.

Gospel verse for reflection

Well done, my good and faithful servant.
Since you were faithful in small matters,
I will give you great responsibilities.
Come, share your master's joy.

St. John Bosco

Good News Reflection

Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King; November 26, 2023

Pray: Lord: Give me an alert spirit and a generous heart always ready to serve others. I want to follow You wherever You lead, taking Your love to heal, deliver and comfort my brothers and sisters. Amen.

Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17; Ps 23:1-3, 5-6; 1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28; Matthew 25:31-46

What does Jesus do as King?

We don't usually think of shepherds as kings, but the scriptures this Sunday describe the kingly powers of Jesus as our Good Shepherd. A good king cares for his subjects the way a shepherd cares for his sheep.

Kings increase the size of their reign and accomplish their work over the whole territory through their subjects. That's why Jesus says, "Whatever you do for one of the least of mine, you do for me."

For example, our Good Shepherd-King wants to distribute food to the hungry, all the way to the farthest reaches of his kingdom. How does he get it done? He gives an abundance of food to some of us and commands us to take it to those who need it.

What happens if we don't fulfill the King's commands? Do the starving people think the King is benevolent? No, they can only see his goodness when we do as he tells us to do.

Look at the people who are around you. Each one is an opportunity to give the King a good name.

What about the people whom you like least of all? What about those who've made you feel angry or intimidated or hurt? Well, ask this: What is he/she hungry for? If the answer's not obvious, ask the Holy Spirit. Observe that person long enough to identify the emptiness or pain or fears that are buried under the surface.

Then ask this: What abundance has God given to me that this "least one" is lacking and needs from Christ our King? Can I show him/her the King's benevolence despite my feelings?

When we say no to opportunities to share what we have, we are behaving like one of the goats whom the Good Shepherd-King separates from the sheep on the way to heaven. And when we say yes, despite the feelings that could make us goat-like, the King's good reputation spreads, and we are all blessed.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

What good things do you have in abundance? How readily do you share them? Who is of least importance to you? How can you take your focus off of what you don't like about them so that you can give them blessings from God?

Questions for Community Faith Sharing:

Have you ever done something good to someone who didn't deserve it? How did this affect your relationship with Jesus? What abundance do you see in each member of your family or faith sharing community that, when shared, blesses others?

MESSAGE FROM THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL
By Derek Stadler, member & secretary

Thanksgiving is right around the corner. I am sure you are all looking forward to a delicious meal with family. However, we all should be aware that many people and families will go hungry on Thanksgiving or on any given day. According to the World Food Programme, more than “345 million people [worldwide] are facing acute levels of food insecurity in 2023, and do not know where their next meal is coming from.” These statistics are more than double the number in 2020 and constitute a staggering rise of 200 million people compared to pre-COVID-19 pandemic levels. Locally, food insecurity is on the rise on Long Island according to a PBS report. “Approximately 230,000 people on Long Island suffer from food insecurity.” In fact, “the poverty rate on Long Island is approximately 5.9% an average of 5.41% poverty rate in Nassau County,” according to the Long Island Community Foundation.

In last week’s Gospel Jesus challenges us to “stay awake” by taking time to seriously look at ourselves, the priorities of our lives, and how we are growing spiritually. Knowing that there are so many hungry families out there or families in need of economic assistance, ask yourself “What would Jesus Christ do?”

The St. Ignatius Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul provides spiritual person-to-person help and assistance with our neighbors’ basic needs. When people have lost their jobs or need help with rent or oil bills, St. Vincent de Paul Society is there for them. When people are in need of clothing or furniture, St Vincent de Paul Society is there for them. Your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul our poor box will help those suffering be able to have a better Thanksgiving and hope in life and restore their dignity. God Bless you and thank you for your generosity.

A Christmas for the Poor

LET US CELEBRATE CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR.....

“He that is kindly in eye will be blessed, for he has given of his food to the lowly one.” -Proverbs, 22:9.

We the St. Ignatius Human service center Hicksville invites you to celebrate this festive season with the needy and downtrodden. Because Jesus helped people who were poor, sick, and afflicted and let us follow his example. We feel that the best time to do that may be Christmas, when charities often put forth extra effort to collect donations. During the holidays, many people are preoccupied with shopping, entertaining, and visiting friends and family. All of this leaves them with little time, energy, or money to attend to the poor and needy, other than perhaps making a donation. “Do not forget the doing of good and the sharing of things with others, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.” (Hebrews 13:16)

The St. Ignatius Human Service Center request you all to celebrate this festive season by donating Target Gift Cards. You can drop it in the Sunday collection baskets or brought directly to our offices by Monday 18th December. We truly appreciate your generosity at this wonderful time of year!

Fr. Jacob Varughese , Director of Human Services.

It's the time of year we come together with our family and friends to celebrate Christmas and the birth of Christ. It's also time for the St. Ignatius Loyola Church Christmas Raffle!

Evangelio según San Mateo (Mt. 25, 14-30)

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a sus discípulos esta parábola: "El Reino de los cielos se parece también a un hombre que iba a salir de viaje a tierras lejanas; llamó a sus servidores de confianza y les encargó sus bienes. A uno le dio cinco talentos; a otro, dos; y a un tercero, uno, según la capacidad de cada uno, y luego se fue. El que recibió cinco talentos fue enseguida a negociar con ellos y ganó otros cinco. El que recibió dos hizo lo mismo y ganó otros dos. En cambio, el que recibió un talento hizo un hoyo en la tierra y allí escondió el dinero de su señor.

Después de mucho tiempo regresó aquel hombre y llamó a cuentas a sus servidores. Se acercó el que había recibido cinco talentos y le presentó otros cinco, diciendo: 'Señor, cinco talentos me dejaste; aquí tienes otros cinco, que con ellos he ganado'. Su señor le dijo: 'Te felicito, siervo bueno y fiel. Puesto que has sido fiel en cosas de poco valor, te confiaré cosas de mucho valor. Entra a tomar parte en la alegría de tu señor'.

Se acercó luego el que había recibido dos talentos y le dijo: 'Señor, dos talentos me dejaste; aquí tienes otros dos, que con ellos he ganado'. Su señor le dijo: 'Te felicito, siervo bueno y fiel. Puesto que has sido fiel en cosas de poco valor, te confiaré cosas de mucho valor. Entra a tomar parte en la alegría de tu señor'.

Finalmente, se acercó el que había recibido un talento y le dijo: 'Señor, yo sabía que eres un hombre duro, que quieres cosechar lo que no has plantado y recoger lo que no has sembrado. Por eso tuve miedo y fui a esconder tu talento bajo tierra. Aquí tienes lo tuyo'.

El señor le respondió: 'Siervo malo y perezoso. Sabías que cosecho lo que no he plantado y recojo lo que no he sembrado. ¿Por qué, entonces, no pusiste mi dinero en el banco, para que a mi regreso lo recibiera yo con intereses? Quiténle el talento y dáselo al que tiene diez. Pues al que tiene se le dará y le sobraré; pero al que tiene poco, se le quitará aun eso poco que tiene. Y a este hombre inútil, échenlo fuera, a las tinieblas. Allí será el llanto y la desesperación' ".
