Written by
THE FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

In today’s first reading, the Shunammite woman recognized that Elisha was “a holy man of God.” She and her husband then went on to provide Elisha with hospitality and lodging, and she was rewarded with a son. But how did she recognize Elisha as the holy prophet that he was? Recognition, or lack of it, is a recurrent theme in Scripture – from Mary Magdalene not recognizing the risen Lord at the tomb to the disciples not recognizing Jesus on the road to Emmaus. In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus himself encouraged his listeners to learn to recognize “false prophets” because they bear bad fruit. What do we need to open our eyes to and recognize today? Perhaps the realization that Jesus’ life and teachings always point us to life – life with him and in him, on earth and for eternity. As members of the body of Christ, let us ask the Holy Spirit to fill us with his love so that we may bear good fruit and always choose the road that leads to that life.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

“Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” Perhaps we should consider these words from Jesus in today’s Gospel a challenge. Yes, we know that faithful discipleship comes with demands. But “losing our life”? I like to think of it as going “all in” in our response to Jesus. Investing the most we can in our relationship with Jesus means recognizing that he is the way and the truth and the life. And then we must act upon that. How? Put God first in your life. Serve him before all else. Let our relationship with Christ be like the frame that holds a building up – let it define us, strengthen us, and shape us. And may it allow us to recognize his loving presence in each moment of our lives.

ACTION

The summer months are hot in the northern hemisphere, and traveling, running errands, and doing things for oneself can be difficult for those who are adversely affected by the heat. Take a look around you – at your neighbors or even those who are part of your daily circle of encounters – and be intentional at recognizing who they are (a child of God) and what their needs might be. Offer specific assistance to them related to that need, as the Shunammite woman and her husband did for Elisha.

Gospel verse for reflection

Jesus said to his apostles:

“Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me.”

Discovering hope and joy in the Catholic faith.

July 2023

One Minute Meditations

Room for God

"Make room therefore for Christ, and refuse entrance to all others.

When you have Christ, you are rich and have need of (nothing) else." Thomas À Kempis

Give love

One way to give thanks to God for all the gifts he has bestowed on you is to work for the poor and vulnerable. Sharing your gifts with those less fortunate is how God intends you to use what He gives you. "Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more" (Luke 12:48).

Say, "Amen!"

The proper form when receiving Communion is to reply "Amen" when the Eucharistic minister raises the Host and Chalice and pronounces it, "The Body (or Blood) of Christ." By responding this way, you openly state your belief in the presence of Christ in the Eucharistic bread and wine, as well as in His Body, the Church.

Respond to the gift of the Holy Spirit

God loves us so much, He gives us what He values most – His only Son (John 3:16) and His Holy Spirit in Baptism (Romans 5:5) so we can have access to God's divine life and love. The Holy Spirit's presence with the entire Church throughout the centuries is as a comfort, consolation, leader and guide. To accept this gift, we can ...

Listen for Him: Spending time with Scripture can help tune our hearts to hear the "still small voice" (1 Kings 19:12) of the Holy Spirit. The better we are attuned to God's voice, the more likely we'll hear Him amidst the noise of the world.

Consult Him: Jesus promised to send the Holy Spirit, the Counselor, to lead His disciples to truth (John 14:6). He helps us to see, evaluate, and choose like Christ. Call on the Holy Spirit when you're facing a difficult situation or decision.

Take refuge in Him:

Every day, entrust yourself to the Holy Spirit and dedicate your day to His service. Let Him guide your actions.

Actualize Confirmation graces: Upon our Confirmation, the Holy Spirit fortified and empowered our souls with His seven Gifts:

Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Knowledge, Piety and Fear of the Lord (Isaiah 11:2). When we rely on the Holy Spirit, we can overcome temptations to fear, distrust, and selfishness with His powerful gifts.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics fold their hands when they pray?

The custom of folding our hands comes from ninth century Europe where folded hands symbolized obedience by those subordinate to the lord or king. This gesture was also used by priests to show respect to bishops. The faithful adopted it to signify obedience to God's will.

In some cultures today, such as India and other parts of Asia, clasped hands are also a sign of reverence. In fact, Mother Teresa was often photographed greeting people with this gesture.

Use the Bible well

It is said, "Bibles that are falling apart usually belong to people who aren't." The Church suggests we read the Bible daily because it contains everything we need to know to live a full, Christian life. Try these ideas to use your Bible well.

Choose the right version. We hear the New American Bible during Mass but there are other approved Catholic translations. If you need advice, ask your pastor or priest.

Use the aids. The Bible contains customs and terms that are foreign to us. Read the introductions and footnotes for helpful explanations.

Mark it up. Underline passages and make notes in the margins as you read so you can go back to your favorite parts.

Read aloud. The Bible began as an oral tradition. Hearing the passages may help them become clearer.

Read slowly. Let the words sink in.

Place yourself in the scene. What would you do?

Use it. What you find in the Bible will help you meet life's challenges. Don't just read it. Live it.

from Scripture

Matthew 13:44-52, The only thing worth everything

Jesus used the parables in this Gospel passage to emphasize the life-changing value of the Kingdom. In the first parable, a man discovers – seemingly by accident – a treasure buried in a field. Recognizing its value, he sells everything he has to buy the field. In the second story, a merchant finds a valuable pearl after diligent searching. He also sells everything to possess the precious pearl.

By these parables, Jesus taught that being part of God's Kingdom – accepting His love for us and loving others as He loves – is the only the only way to live that will completely fulfill our hearts. God's unconditional love is worth of everything we have. If we accept His invitation (He forces no one), our lives may change as our hearts change.

Finally, Jesus compared the separation between the evil and righteous to the sifting that happens when a large catch of fish is brought ashore. When we put our whole life in service to God's love, then the individual pieces fall into place around that love, and anything contrary to it falls away.

Q & A Is there a special prayer I can pray for healing of a serious illness?

Jesus knew that sickness can bring misery and isolation, and He dedicated much of His ministry to healing every kind of illness – physical or spiritual. He wanted us to see in his healing ministry God's saving power and concern for His children.

The Church continues Jesus' concern for the sick in the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. It is administered by a priest to a baptized person who may be in danger of death because of illness or old age, through prayer and the anointing of the body with special oil. The effects of the Sacrament include a special grace of healing and comfort, and the forgiving of the person's sins.

Anyone baptized Catholic, regardless of age, can receive the Sacrament if his or her health is seriously impaired. It can also be administered before surgery and can be received more than once if the original illness gets worse or if another serious sickness is diagnosed. Please see your pastor or parish priest to receive this important Sacrament.

Feasts & Celebrations

July 16 – Our Lady of Mt. Carmel (1251). The Blessed Mother appeared to St. Simon Stock in England, carrying the brown scapular, a sign of her favor of the Carmelite Order, and promised whoever wore the scapular until death would avoid the fires of hell.

July 23 – St. Bridget of Sweden (1373). Born in Uppland, Sweden to nobility, she was a wife, mother, reformer, and mystic. She is known for founding the Order of the Most Holy Savior, which was approved in 1370.

July 25 – St. James the Apostle (1st Century). When Jesus called St. James and his brother, St. John, to become apostles, they promptly left their father in a fishing boat. He was one of the three apostles to witness Jesus' Transfiguration.

July 29 – Saints Martha, Mary, and Lazarus (1st Century). These holy siblings often hosted Jesus at their house in Bethany. Although Martha was corrected for being anxious about many things, Jesus rewarded her tremendous faith by raising Lazarus from the dead.

Some prayers for the month of July traditionally devoted to The Precious Blood of Jesus.

A Powerful Prayer to be Said Before Praying
 “Almighty Father, I place the Precious Blood of Jesus on my lips before I pray, that my prayers may be purified before they ascend to Your divine altar.” – St. Mary Magdalen de Pazzi

The “Constant” Prayer of St. Catherine of Siena
 “Precious Blood, ocean of divine mercy: Flow upon us! Precious Blood, most pure offering: Procure us every grace! Precious Blood, hope and refuge of sinners: Atone for us! Precious Blood, delight of holy souls: Draw us! Amen.”

Independence Day

PRAYER

Dear God our Father,
we praise You today for who You are—a God of love,
who reveals to us that love is truth and freedom.
Thank You for our country, the United States of America, conceived in liberty, and for all those who have sacrificed that we might enjoy these freedoms.

Like a city on a mountaintop, help us to share our blessings with the world, and to allow the light of Your Holy Spirit within us to set others free in spirit, soul, and body.

In Jesus' name. Amen.

MESSAGE FROM THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL MEMBER PROFILE: LISSETTE CAMPOS

What does it mean to be a Vincentian? For so many it means different things, but we all can agree that the common denominator is formation, humbleness, nonjudgmental and merciful with others. I became a Vincentian during the difficult global health crisis COVID pandemic. I personally also endured many hardships, but this did not hold me back to answering God’s call to serve others. It was very changeling to hear so many heartbreaking stories of our neighbors pouring their hearts out, but the same time it was very rewarding to hear their gratitude for helping them in any way possible, even if it was just to listen to them. One story I remember is of a neighbor that we had on our list, I called her to check on her and her children. This neighbor said, “The Lord has answered by prayers, I was anxious because I didn’t know how I would feed my children, until you called”. Being bilingual has also greatly helped to communicate the needs of our Spanish-speaking neighbors with our English-speaking conference. I can truthfully say that serving in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul has helped me enormously to better shape my spirituality and to walk in the Lord’s footsteps.

MENSAJE DE LA SOCIEDAD DE SAN VICENTE DE PAÚL
HISTORIA DE NUESTRO MIEMBRO: LISSETTE CAMPOS

¿Qué significa ser Vicentino? Para muchos significa cosas diferentes, pero todos podemos estar de acuerdo que se trata de la formación, la humildad, y la misericordia con nuestro prójimo. Me convertí en Vicentina durante la pandemia del COVID. Yo personalmente también pasé por muchas dificultades, pero esto no me impidió responder al llamado de Dios a servir a los demás. Era muy difícil escuchar tantas historias desgarradoras de nuestros vecinos derramando sus corazones, pero al mismo tiempo fue muy gratificante escuchar su gratitud por cuánto los ayudamos de cualquier manera posible; incluso si era solo para escucharlos. Una historia de la cual me tocó es de una vecina que teníamos en nuestra lista, la llamé para saber cómo estaban ella y sus hijos. Esta vecina me dijo: "El Señor ha respondido mis oraciones, estaba desesperada porque no sabía cómo alimentaría a mis hijos, hasta que me llamaste". El ser bilingüe también ha ayudado enormemente a comunicar las necesidades de nuestros vecinos hispanos con nuestra conferencia de habla inglesa. Puedo decir con toda sinceridad que servir en la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl me ha ayudado enormemente a mejorar mi espiritualidad y a seguir los pasos del Señor.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Evangelio según San Juan (Mt. 10, 37-42)

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a sus apóstoles:

El que ama a su padre o a su madre más que a mí, no es digno de mí; el que ama a su hijo o a su hija más que a mí, no es digno de mí; y el que no toma su cruz y me sigue, no es digno de mí.

El que salve su vida la perderá y el que la pierda por mí, la salvará.

Quien los recibe a ustedes me recibe a mí; y quien me recibe a mí, recibe al que me ha enviado. El que recibe a un profeta por ser profeta, recibirá recompensa de profeta; el que recibe a un justo por ser justo, recibirá recompensa de justo.

Quien diere, aunque no sea más que un vaso de agua fría a uno de estos pequeños, por ser discípulo mío, yo les aseguro que no perderá su recompensa".

Palabra del Señor / Gloria a ti Señor Jesús

"Ardiendo en este amor, o, mejor, para que ardamos en él, dice: Quien ama a su padre o a su madre más que a mí, no es digno de mí, y quien no toma su cruz y me sigue, no es digno de mí. No ha eliminado el amor a los padres, a la esposa, a los hijos, sino que lo ha colocado en el lugar que le corresponde. No dijo: «Quien ama», sino: quien ama más que a mí. Es lo que dice la Iglesia en el Cantar de los Cantares: Ordenó en mí el amor. Ama a tu padre, pero no más que al Señor; ama a quien te ha engendrado, pero no más que a quien te ha creado... Ama, pues, a tu padre, pero no por encima de Dios; ama a tu madre, pero no por encima de la Iglesia, que te engendró para la vida eterna. Finalmente, deduce del amor que sientes por tus padres cuánto debes amar a Dios y a la Iglesia. Pues si tanto ha de amarse a quienes te engendraron para la muerte, ¡con cuánto amor han de ser amados quienes te engendraron para que llegues a la vida eterna y permanezcas por la eternidad! Ama a tu esposa, ama a tus hijos según Dios, inculcándoles que adoren contigo a Dios. Una vez que te hayas unido a él, no has de temer separación alguna" (Sermón 344,2 de San Agustín de Hipona).

PINCELADAS DE LA VIDA DE SAN IGNACIO DE LOYOLA

Mientras se proponía seriamente convertirse, una noche se le apareció Nuestra Señora con su Hijo Santísimo. La visión lo consoló inmensamente. Desde entonces se propuso no dedicarse a servir a gobernantes de la tierra sino al Rey del cielo.
