FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

The abundance of God's love for us is what stood out for me in our readings today. If we consider the concept of abundance outside the Scriptures, it can be tricky. When we have it, does it imply we have too much when others have too little? If we are speaking of material things, then perhaps. But God's infinite and merciful love for us resound in each of our readings today, and this is cause for joy. In Isaiah, the Lord announces that he will accept offerings from anyone who holds to his covenant, Jewish or not. Saint Paul stresses that God's mercy is for all, and Jesus, after some back-and-forth with the Canaanite woman, heals the woman's daughter because of her great faith. God never tires of desiring healing and wholeness for all his children, which is a great gift. Let this gift of grace from God be a catalyst for us to reach out in love to others so that we also can come to God's "holy mountain and [be made] joyful in [his] house of prayer."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

How can we reach out in love to others as we called to do? Perhaps we can start with our parish. Is there a ministry we have read about in the bulletin that needs volunteers? Or a coordinator? Perhaps it is time to ask God how we can be his instrument in the world. We can start small. I will never forget when my friend volunteered to run our Vacation Bible School one summer. Of course, she turned to her friends to help her with this daunting task! What she desperately needed was someone to go from classroom to classroom and lead the children in song. Talk about out of my comfort zone! But she gave me the music books and song suggestions, and pretty soon, "This Little Light of Mine" was reverberating through the halls of the school. I learned then and there that kids don't notice the quality of your voice if you are joyful and enthusiastic. They love to sing! Take a chance and get out there. You won't regret it.

PRAY Lord, Jesus Christ, give me the wisdom to view my hands as extensions of yours. Give me eyes to see all people as you see them. Help me to use my voice to praise you and bring the truth of your goodness to everyone I encounter. Give me the strength to have unwavering faith. Amen.

Gospel verse for reflection

Then Jesus said to her in reply,
"O woman, great is your faith!
Let it be done for you as you wish."

*When I am before
the Blessed Sacrament,
I feel such a lively faith
that I can't describe it.
Christ in the Eucharist
is almost tangible to me...
When it is time for me to leave,
I have to tear myself away from His sacred presence.

Showing our appreciation for military personnel who currently serve our country.

3 WAYS TO PARTICIPATE:

1. Stop by our tables at the priests' garage after the weekend Masses September 30th and October 1st. Write a quick note — we will supply the paper, cards, pens and markers. You may also drop off cards you have already prepared.
2. Drop your cards any time in the box located in the church.
3. Mail or drop off your cards, marked "Catholic Daughters Thank You Project" to the rectory office (St. Ignatius Loyola, 129 Broadway, Hicksville, NY 11801) no later than October 22nd.

Please note: cards or letters only (no envelopes needed). Religious, snack food or other items, or monetary donations cannot be accepted. Children's cards should be drawn or written only — no glued items, stickers or glitter. Crayons or markers are best!

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Bulletin Reflection: In today's Gospel, we read about the faith of the Canaanite woman. Her faith in Jesus healed her daughter.

Living Stewardship ~ Pillar of Hospitality: We have an awesome God who loves us, cares for us and helps us. We can never fully grasp an understanding of how much He loves us. Let us give glory to Him by showing love and compassion to all those around us. Everyone- even the person who cut you off while driving, the neighbor who is rude and even the family member who you haven't spoken to in years.

Please note that Clergy Corner, Family Mass with Fr. Sean St. Anne's Prayer Group Meetings and Rosary Making will resume in September, after the Summer break.

Important Feast Days of the Week

Holy Communion is the shortest and safest way to Heaven. There are others: innocence, but that is for little children; penance, but we are afraid of it; generous endurance of trials of life, but when they come we weep and ask to be. The surest, easiest, shortest way is the Eucharist.

Focus on Religious Freedom

www.cffor.org

"We belong to the Church militant; and She is militant because on earth the powers of darkness are ever restless to encompass Her destruction." - Pope Pius XII, 1953

Catholic Laity Called to Defend the Church and Religious Freedom for All

The recent "honor" given to an anti-Catholic group by the LA Dodgers demonstrates that anti-Catholic sentiment can be publicly applauded with no fear of push back from a majority of Americans. The threat to all their freedoms posed by a Godless culture is unknown by most Americans because we have long failed to teach the Judeo-Christian foundations of our nation.

Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone of San Francisco expressed his gratitude to Catholics and Christians who joined together at the California stadium in protest of the Dodger's event and also protested at the capitol where a leader of the group was honored by some California lawmakers.

Pope Pius XII, Pope Benedict, Pope Francis and Cardinal Dolan are among church clergy who have called for the laity to use their charism (a special gift, an extraordinary power) from the Holy Spirit to fulfill the missions of the church.

- We lay Catholics have the personal responsibility to learn, understand and teach others the meaning and effects of the freedom to believe as we choose and practice our faith without persecution or derision.
- Our Declaration of Independence asserts that our inalienable rights come from our Creator. Therefore, no king or emperor or tyrant may tell Americans which inalienable rights they may and may not practice.
- Americans are blessed to live under a Constitution whose 1st Amendment protects us with a wall of separation, as explained by Pres. Thomas Jefferson, which directs our government not to interfere in our God given rights of conscience.

Ten years ago Catholic laity in the Diocese of Rockville Centre, NY came together to learn and teach the facts of religious freedom to fellow parishioners. With the support and encouragement of then Bishop William Murphy the group organized speaking events, religious freedom rallies, public witness rosaries, a student education video and materials, a Rosary for America booklet and initiative and much more. On their website www.cffor.org there are a series of weekly lessons providing an efficient education in the facts and importance of religious freedom.

We do not wrestle against flesh and blood; but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Evangelio según San Mateo (Mt. 15, 21-28)

En aquel tiempo, Jesús se retiró a la comarca de Tiro y Sidón. Entonces una mujer cananea le salió al encuentro y se puso a gritar: "Señor, hijo de David, ten compasión de mí. Mi hija está terriblemente atormentada por un demonio". Jesús no le contestó una sola palabra; pero los discípulos se acercaron y le rogaban:

"Atiéndela, porque viene gritando detrás de nosotros". Él les contestó: "Yo no he sido enviado sino a las ovejas descarriadas de la casa de Israel".

Ella se acercó entonces a Jesús y postrada ante él, le dijo: "¡Señor, ayúdame!" Él le respondió: "No está bien quitarles el pan a los hijos para echárselo a los perritos". Pero ella replicó: "Es cierto, Señor; pero también los perritos se comen las migajas que caen de la mesa de sus amos". Entonces Jesús le respondió: "Mujer, ¡qué grande es tu fe! Que se cumpla lo que deseas". Y en aquel mismo instante quedó curada su hija.

Palabra del Señor / Gloria a ti Señor Jesús

Reflexion Papa Benedicto XVI—Angelus 8/14/2011

Queridos amigos, también nosotros estamos llamados a crecer en la fe, a abrirnos y acoger con libertad el don de Dios, a tener confianza y gritar asimismo a Jesús:

«¡Danos la fe, ayúdanos a encontrar el camino!». Es el camino que Jesús pidió que recorrieran sus discípulos, la cananea y los hombres de todos los tiempos y de todos los pueblos, cada uno de nosotros. La fe nos abre a conocer y acoger la identidad real de Jesús, su novedad y unicidad, su Palabra, como fuente de vida, para vivir una relación personal con él. El conocimiento de la fe crece, crece con el deseo de encontrar el camino, y en definitiva es un don de Dios, que se revela a nosotros no como una cosa abstracta, sin rostro y sin nombre; la fe responde, más bien, a una Persona, que quiere entrar en una relación de amor profundo con nosotros y comprometer toda nuestra vida. Por eso, cada día nuestro corazón debe vivir la experiencia de la conversión, cada día debe vernos pasar del hombre encerrado en sí mismo al hombre abierto a la acción de Dios, al hombre espiritual (cf. 1 Co 2, 13-14), que se deja interpelar por la Palabra del Señor y abre su propia vida a su Amor.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas, alimentemos por tanto cada día nuestra fe, con la escucha profunda de la Palabra de Dios, con la celebración de los sacramentos, con la oración personal como «grito» dirigido a él y con la caridad hacia el prójimo. Invoquemos la intercesión de la Virgen María, a la que mañana contemplaremos en su gloriosa ascensión al cielo en alma y cuerpo, para que nos ayude a anunciar y testimoniar con la vida la alegría de haber encontrado al Señor.
