Dear friends:

On this Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time, our readings invite us to meditate upon a few aspects of our Christian growth into the image of God.

In baptism, we are called to mirror and image the mercy and forgiveness the Lord has won for us, as David would not harm his enemy, so we are challenged to love and pardon those who wrong us.

In today's first reading, David is the good guy and Saul the bad guy out to kill him. David believes that Saul is the Lord's anointed king, so his conscience tells him not to kill him.

Making the right choices in life its not just a list of dos and don'ts, or just a good intention, it's about having the Spirit of Christ in you and act accordingly to do the right thing for the right reason and sacred scriptures helps us understand that the love of God and neighbor are the right reasons.

St. Paul in today's Epistle calls Adam the first man and Christ the second. He created Adam with a rational soul, moral and immoral with free will and conscience, and was able to know God and choose to obey Him or to disobey Him. We already know his choice as the Star Wars fans would say, Adam went to the Dark side meaning turning his back on God. Yes, it probably would be easy to blame Adam for original sin, but we are not responsible for original sin. God does not punish us for Adam's sin, but for our own. We have inherited fallen human nature from Adam. In Christ, we inherit the supernatural immortal life that Adam lost by faith and in baptism, we get divine life and share into the divine family, Father, Son and the Holy Spirit.

In today's gospel, Jesus is asking us to love our enemies, to do good to those who hate us, bless those who curse us and pray for those who mistreat us, give without asking anything in return without expecting a payment, forgive and you will be forgiven. Wow, as I was meditating on this gospel, it came to my mind those followers of Jesus who said that this teaching was too hard and walked away from Him and Jesus asked His disciples whether they also wanted to leave? And Peter answered Him "Lord to whom can we go? You have the words of eternal life."

WWJD? What will Jesus do? The point of Jesus' sermon today comes at the end "the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." In other words, do unto others what you would have them do unto you. Jesus always say that "whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine you did for me." {MT 25:40}

That is the vision that needs to be believed and lived in every act of every day of every life. When we lose control, get angry or upset at someone, when we are scared, frustrated and are in front of situations that are difficult and sometimes we think that we are going to lose control, always come back to the Lord and ask your self WHAT WILL JESUS DO?

These are opportunities to grow as a better human being and become an image of Christ.

This is a quote from Daily Catholic Wisdom from Aurora Griffin

"I HAVE FOUND IT'S BEST TO THINK OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AS YOUR EXTENDED FAMILY, SOME MEMBERS WILL BE WEIRD, OTHERS WILL DRIVE YOU CRAZY, AND STILL OTHERS WILL BE YOUR BEST FRIENDS, WHATEVER YOUR DISAGREEMENTS ARE, YOU WILL ALWAYS BE BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN CHRIST.

Written by THE FAITHFUL DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Have you heard about the Civilize It! initiative? The U.S. bishops launched a campaign to encourage civil dialogue during the contentious 2020 election. Unfortunately, the divisiveness in our nation, and even within the Church, has shown no signs of subsiding, leading the bishops to reboot the campaign last fall. The bishops encourage every Catholic to pledge to be a force for charity, clarity, and creativity in our divided world. Today's Gospel shows us how to do that, starting with the Golden Rule. What strikes me - and challenges me - are the specific examples that remain relevant 2,000 years later: Love your enemies and do good for them; stop judging; stop condemning; give. Building on last Sunday's account of the beatitudes, Luke provides us a prescription for how to live a moral and happy life, one that reflects those who "bear the image of the heavenly one."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

I am thankful to have people in my life who bring out the best in others, and certainly bring out the best in me. I would guess we can each point to others who have guided and encouraged us: A teacher, a dear friend, a favorite aunt, a neighbor or coach. Today's readings encourage us to be that person for others, even when it's hard. Nobody said being a witness to Christ would be a cake walk! Fortunately, we can turn to prayer and the Scriptures for encouragement. For me, it may begin with small steps, such as listening to those with whom I disagree, not getting drawn into social media debates, and being more generous with my time. As we reflect on today's readings, perhaps we can each choose one change we would like to make or challenge we want to accept as we move into the week and ask God to help us put it into practice.

ACT Praise God each day this coming week. And then challenge yourself to offer a compliment to one person every day as well.

Praising God and others puts us in right relationship with God and with our brothers and sisters.

Partners in FAITH™

Helping our children grow in their Catholic faith.

February 2022

Thoughtful Moments

Through the eyes of a child

In teaching our children about the Catholic faith, we have the chance to learn again for ourselves. Let a child's wonder about the mysteries of God's love awaken your own sense of excitement. In connecting with your children, you may find you are reconnecting with the child in yourself.

Telling is not tattling

Sometimes children encounter or witness situations they can't handle. For example, they may see that a friend is overwhelmed and in danger but has no one to help. Youngsters may be afraid that seeking help for the friend is "tattling." Remind children periodically that as a parent, you are on the same team. Telling isn't the same as tattling. Everyone needs help sometimes.

"His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence" (2 Peter 1:3).

The five Rs of raising Catholic children

There is no one formula for raising devout Catholic children into faithful Catholic adults, but we can utilize a strategy that has helped many parents and families. These five Rs can help you shape your parenting strategy.

Receive the sacraments frequently. Sacraments are direct encounters with Christ and we need them to keep our souls alive. Baptize babies as soon as possible after birth. Make an immovable monthly date for family Confession. Bring children to Mass every Sunday and holy day of obligation.

Raise children in the Faith. If they don't attend Catholic school, enroll them in your parish religious education program. Support their formation from kindergarten all the way through high school graduation. Put sports and clubs second.

Read Scripture as a family. Knowledge of Scripture is knowledge of Christ. Start with simple toddler Bible stories when they are small, and progress to the real Bible as they grow. Incorporate these into evening story time.

Remember to pray - often - together.

Model daily prayer for children and encourage them to talk to God regularly. Teach them basic Catholic prayers and devotions. Pray in the morning, the evening, at meals (even in public), when there's trouble and when there is joy.

Remain steadfast. Don't let anything or anyone lure your family from God's friendship. Rely on His grace and trust Him.

Why Do Catholics Do That ?

Why do Catholics have candles blessed on February 2?

In the liturgical calendar, February 2 is the Feast of the Presentation of Jesus in the temple, when Jesus was dedicated to God. At that time, Simeon greeted Mary, took the infant Savior in his arms and praised God, "Mine own eyes have seen your salvation... a light to reveal you to the nations" (Luke 2:30-32). For this reason, priests traditionally bless candles - a liturgical symbol of Christ - and give them to the people. Thus, the feast is called, Candlemas Day.

Give your children lots of gifts

If you could give your child any gift in the world, what would it be? The truth is that you know that what the world can offer won't make him or her happy. Instead, pray frequently and fervently for gifts that will. Consider making petitions for these gifts part of your prayers for your children:

Wisdom. Ask that your child be inspired to avoid poor choices and have the wisdom to lead Gospel-centered lives.

Courage. Fortify him to stand for justice and speak out against bigotry, unfairness, and cruelty.

Strength. Pray that as she grows she will withstand negative peer pressure.

Compassion. Help him follow Jesus' commandment to love one another.

Discernment. Give children the skills to select healthy friendships.

Independence. Ask that children care less about what other people think of them and be more interested in pleasing God.

Faith. Faith in God, the teachings of Christ, Scripture, and the teachings of the Church are the foundation for a healthy life and eternal salvation.

These gifts will make children happy forever.

Scripture LESSON

Luke 6:39-45, What's in your heart?

In this Gospel passage, Jesus compared our deeds to the fruits on the trees. If the tree is good, it will produce good fruit, just as if a person is good, his words and actions are likely to be good. It would be less likely for a bad person to regularly do many virtuous deeds.

Jesus extends the "good trees, good fruit" parable to our speech. Just as you can measure the health of a tree by its fruit, you can check the condition of your heart by the quality of your words. This is because our "heart" - our deepest center - is the origin of our actions, including our words. Whether we are at peace or angry affects what we do.

What can a parent do? Teach children that words do matter and that how they talk can affect others for good or bad.

Words are the easiest way we can imitate Jesus. If our words are uplifting, kind, truthful and try to bring peace to others, then that is a good sign we are heading in the right direction.

Parent TALK

As children, we never missed Mass. That's why I was shocked when my brother recently declared that he doesn't take his children to Mass. "It's enough that I bring them to religious education class every week," he said. "We're too busy for Mass, too."

Why would anyone teach children a religion but prevent them from practicing it? In class children learn about a Catholic's serious obligation to attend Mass and the wonderful graces we get from the Eucharist. At home, they learn that soccer practice or birthday parties come before Mass. Sports before Jesus? How confusing!

I gave my brother a copy of Follow the Way of Love, a message to families from the U.S. bishops. It's about how God's love is experienced in a family and how it is supported by the whole Church. Hopefully it will help him see being Catholic as a gift and not a burden.

Feasts & Celebrations

Feb. 2 - St. Catherine of Ricci (1590). St. Catherine was born to a prominent banker. Against her father's wishes, she joined the Dominicans when she was twelve. She is known for her visions of the Lord's Passion, which she experienced every Friday.

Feb. 11 - Our Lady of Lourdes (1858). A heavenly lady appeared to St. Bernadette Soubirous, a poor, sickly girl from a French village. A miraculous spring with healing waters emerged from a nearby cave. The beautiful lady revealed herself as the "Immaculate Conception"

- the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Feb. 19 - St. Barbatus (c. 682). From Benevento, Italy, St. Barbatus tried to convert his town from paganism. In a last-ditch effort, he described what they would suffer when Emperor Constans II besieged the city. The whole city converted promptly, and he was elected bishop soon after.

Feb. 22 - St. Peter's Chair. Marking St. Peter's establishment of the Holy See, on this festival we thank God for His Church and pray for its holy preservation.

ST. IGNATIAN YEAR CORNER

Vows of Jesuits

In addition to the vows of chastity, obedience and poverty, members of the Society of Jesus, also take a fourth vow of obedience to the Pope so that they can engage in projects ordained by the Pope. Above all, The Society of Jesus was to be an order of apostles “ready to live in any part of the world where there was hope of God’s greater glory and the good of souls” and the Jesuits have long and thorough training. Some of the traditional forms of the religious life, such as chanting the divine office, physical punishments etc. were abandoned for greater adaptability and mobility.

Ignatian Spirituality on transformation of life

One of the core perspectives of Ignatian spirituality, is something that plays a key role in transforming the spiritual lives of many Catholics. Ignatian spirituality teaches us to live as a contemplative in action, It is living life in the real world, grounded in daily prayer. An Ignatian approach, especially in terms of imaginative prayer, helps us to pray from our heart and with our emotions, which plays a vital role in our spiritual life and in our inner transformation.

Stewardship

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Bulletin Reflection: In today's Gospel, Jesus commands that we love our enemies.

Living Stewardship ~ Pillar of Prayer: As you enter this upcoming week, try to be more loving and forgiving. If you are holding onto a grudge, let this be the sign you need to let it go. Let this week be the week you break free from the grudges that hold you down.

Congratulations for a great accomplishment.

Spiritual Adoption Program – Month Five – Developing Baby

“Mommy felt me kick today!”

This month marks the half-way point to birth, and the baby is very active. Sleep habits develop and his mother can feel him move and stretch, particularly when she is resting. He is big and strong enough to kick hard against the uterine wall and dent it. Up to now, although he swam with ease in his watery world, he was too small for her to detect because the inside wall of the uterus has little feeling. Babies born at this age have survived.

Each day for nine months, say this prayer for your Spiritually adopted baby:

Lord Jesus, today I lift up in prayer
the life of my spiritually adopted pre-born child.

I ask that you protect and shield this child from all harm.

Mary and Joseph, I ask your intercession for the parents of this child, that God would shower His love and mercy upon them, and guide them that at this difficult time.

May He send His Spirit to empower them to choose to continue the child's life.

Amen.

Programa de Adopción Espiritual – Mes Cinco – Desarrollo del Bebé

“¡Mi mamá sintió mis pataditas hoy!”

Este es el punto medio del embarazo y estoy muy activo. Estoy desarrollando mi capacidad de dormir y mi mamá puede sentir cuando me muevo o me estiro, especialmente cuando ella está descansando. Soy lo suficientemente grande y fuerte para dar fuertes pataditas a la pared externa del útero y dejar mi huella. Hasta ahora, a pesar de que he nadado fácilmente en mi mundo acuático, soy demasiado pequeño para que mi mamá me sienta, ya que la pared interna del útero es insensible. Los bebés que nacen en esta edad han sobrevivido.

Cada día durante nueve meses decir esta oración por tu bebé adoptado Espiritualmente:

Señor Jesús, hoy levanto en oración la vida de mi bebé adoptado Espiritualmente antes de nacer.

Te pido que protejas y acompañes este niño (a) de todo daño.

María y José, les pido
Intercedan por los padres de este
Bebé, para que Dios derrame su amor y misericordia sobre ellos, y los guíe en este momento difícil.

Que Él envíe su Espíritu para fortalecerlos
y opten por dejar continuar la vida del bebé.

AMEN.

Queridos amigos:

En este 7th domingo del tiempo ordinario nuestras lecturas nos invitan a meditar en ciertos aspectos de nuestro crecimiento cristiano en la imagen De Dios.

En bautismo somos llamados a reflejar esa imagen de amor, misericordia y perdón que nuestro Señor a ganado para nosotros, como David no le hizo daño a su enemigo, nosotros somos llamados a amar y perdonar aquellos que nos hacen algo malo.

En la primera lectura David es el hombre bueno de la historia y Saul el malo quien quiere matar a David, pero David reconoce que Saul es el rey ungido por Dios, y su conciencia le dice que no debe matarlo.

Tomar las decisiones correctas no siempre es fácil, no es una lista de estos si o esto no, o solamente una buena intención, se trata de tener el Espíritu de Cristo en nuestro ser, y así comportarnos de acuerdo a su imagen, el hacer lo correcto por la razón correcta y las sagradas escrituras nos ayudan a entender que el amor De Dios y amor al prójimo son la razón correcta.

San Pablo en su epístola llama a Adam el primer hombre y a Jesus el segundo. Dios creo a Adam con espíritu racional, moral y in-moral con libertad de escoger y consciencia, pudo conocer a Dios y podia obedecerlo o desobedecerlo, nosotros ya sabemos su decisión, como los fanáticos de la guerra de las galaxias {Star Wars} dirían se fue al lado oscuro o oculto, que significa le dio la espalda a Dios, si posiblemente es fácil hecharle la culpa a Adam y el pecado original, pero nosotros no somos responsables por el pecado original, Dios no nos castiga por el pecado de Adam, pero si por nuestros pecados, tenemos la herencia de la humanidad caída por medio de Adam. Pero en Cristo tenemos la herencia de una vida supernatural la vida inmortal, esa vida que Adam perdió y por fe y nuestro bautismo conseguimos la vida divina, la herencia de compartir dentro de la familia divina, Padre Hijo Espiritu Santo, nuestra Santa Madre, San Jose etc.

El evangelio de hoy Jesus nos pide que amemos a nuestros enemigos, a hacer el bien a quienes nos odian, a bendecir los que nos maldicen y orar por aquellos que nos tratan mal, a dar sin pedir nada a cambio, no esperar paga alguna, a perdonar y así se nos perdonara, Wow mientras meditaba en este evangelio me recordaba de aquellos seguidores de Jesus que dijeron estas enseñanzas son muy difíciles de seguir y se fueron de su presencia, Jesús entonces les pregunto a sus discípulos tambien ustedes se quieren ir? Y Pedro contesto

“A quien iremos Señor a quien iremos” tu tienes palabras de vida eterna.

WWJD? What will Jesus Do? Que haría Jesus?

El punto de Jesus en este evangelio llega al final “con la misma medida con la que midan, serán medidos” en otras palabras hagan a otros lo que quieren que les hagan a ustedes.

Jesus siempre dijo que “ cualquier cosa que hagamos por el mas pequeño de mis hermanos lo hicieron por mi. [MT 25:40].

Esa es la mission que tenemos que creer y vivirla en cada acto todos los días de nuestra vida. Cuando perdemos control, nos enojamos o alguien nos cae mal, cuando tenemos miedo, nos frustramos y estamos frente a situaciones que son difíciles y pensamos que vamos a perder el control? Siempre regresemos al Señor y preguntemos WWJD? Que haría Jesus?

Estas son oportunidades de crecimiento a crecer como una mejor persona humana y transformarnos en la imagen de Cristo.

Esta es una cita de la sabiduría catolica del dia por Aurora Griffin:

“La mejor manera de pensar es que la iglesia Catolica es una familia extendida, algunos miembros son raros, otros te vuelven loco, y otros son tus mejores amigos, no importa si no estan de acuerdo, siempre seremos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Evangelio del Domingo

Lectura del santo evangelio según san Lucas (6,27-38):

En aquel tiempo, dijo Jesús a sus discípulos: «A los que me escucháis os digo: Amad a vuestros enemigos, haced el bien a los que os odian, bendecid a los que os maldicen, orad por los que os injurian. Al que te pegue en una mejilla, preséntale la otra; al que te quite la capa, déjale también la túnica. A quien te pide, dale; al que se lleve lo tuyo, no se lo reclames. Tratad a los demás como queréis que ellos os traten. Pues, si amáis sólo a los que os aman, ¿qué mérito tenéis? También los pecadores aman a los que los aman. Y si hacéis bien sólo a los que os hacen bien, ¿qué mérito tenéis? También los pecadores lo hacen. Y si prestáis sólo cuando esperáis cobrar, ¿qué mérito tenéis? También los pecadores prestan a otros pecadores, con intención de cobrárselo. ¡No! Amad a vuestros enemigos, haced el bien y prestad sin esperar nada; tendréis un gran premio y seréis hijos del Altísimo, que es bueno con los malvados y desagradecidos. Sed compasivos como vuestro Padre es compasivo; no juzguéis, y no seréis juzgados; no condenéis, y no seréis condenados; perdonad, y seréis perdonados; dad, y se os dará: os verterán una medida generosa, colmada, remecida, rebosante. La medida que uséis, la usarán con vosotros.»
