My dear St. Ignatius faith family,

Jesus admonishes us, “Do not judge and you will not be judged. Do not condemn and you will not be condemned. Forgive and you will be forgiven” (Luke 6:37). The Lord is reminding us to avoid judging others. Instead, He wants us to look inwardly and examine ourselves first.

Good words flow from a generous and kind heart, while evil and destructive words flow from an evil one. A tree is known by its fruit; out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks! In today’s Gospel passage (Luke 6:39-45), Jesus condemns our careless and rash judgments of others. He uses the funny examples of one blind man leading another blind man; and, again, one man with a log stuck in his eye, trying to remove a tiny speck from another’s eye. Just imagine these scenarios. They are ironic and humorous!

Each one of us has had experiences of saying things we deeply regretted later, but by then, the harm has already been done. Even though we may revoke our words, the initial damage or harm may not be reversed. In our family or in our relationship with others, we often say hurtful things, only to regret them later. We judge others very often. We complain about what we suffer from others without thinking about what they suffer from us. When we judge others, we make our reconciliation with them a difficult task. Mother St. Theresa used to say: “If you judge people, you have no time to love them.”

We are often careless in saying things without understanding the impact it makes on others. “A gentle answer turns away wrath, but hard words stir up anger” (Proverbs 15: 1). “Kind words are like honey—sweet to the soul and healthy for the body” (Proverbs 16:24). We are all guilty of not being kind with our words. Today, therefore, Jesus is inviting us to have a change of heart and a more positive attitude towards others.

We should avoid judging others because we do not see all the facts or circumstances that may have led a person to do something wrong. No one except God is good enough to judge others. God alone sees the whole truth and can read the human heart. Hence, only He has the ability and authority to judge all of us.

We are often prejudiced in our judgment of others. Therefore, total fairness cannot be expected from us, especially when we are judging those near or dear to us. We have no right to judge because we have the same faults as the one we are judging and often to a greater degree. Therefore, be compassionate.

St. Philip Neri watching the misbehavior of a drunkard commented: “There goes Philip but for the grace of God.” Hence, we should leave all judgment to God, practice mercy and forgiveness, and pray for God’s grace to get rid of all forms of hypocrisy in our lives. Let us remember the wise admonition: “When you point one finger of accusation at another, three of your fingers point at you.”

Let us ask Almighty God to help us build human relationships with positive, kind, and loving words, and avoid all forms of negative and judgmental words and deeds. Let us ask the Lord to transform us as we begin our Lenten journey this Ash Wednesday and give us the grace to celebrate worthily this Lenten season.

Fr. Francis

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Parenthood can be humbling. When our children are young, we celebrate even the tiniest accomplishments: “You put on your socks!” or “Wow, good job putting your dish in the dishwasher!” And rightly so. Then come the teen years, and some of us can err on the side of criticism. “Why did you put off that project until the last minute?” “Turn off the electronics by 10 p.m. or else ...” “What, another energy drink?” (We say, looking up from our own phone with a cup of tea in hand ...) The same can be said of our spiritual lives. We want our children to pray and participate in the sacraments, but we may rush through Grace before meals, skip opportunities for confession, or treat holy Mass as an afterthought. Today’s Gospel reminds us why our admonitions won’t work if we don’t walk our talk: The blind can’t lead the blind. None of us is perfect, and neither are our children or the other people in our lives. But as our second reading reminds us, Jesus has won for us victory over sin. When we ask Jesus to help us remove the “wooden beam” from our own eyes, we can see his will for us more clearly and lift up those around us.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

We don’t have to be perfect to encourage one another in our faith. Like the “good tree” Jesus describes in the parable and the tree that bears “good fruit” in Sirach, however, we need to nourish our faith before we can share it with others. It can start with something as simple as adding prayer to our morning routine. We can bring our flaws, our doubts, our bad habits to Jesus and ask him to free us from whatever might be holding us back. As we accompany others, whether it is those with whom we live, work, or worship, we can turn to Jesus to help us be a force for good. We will stumble. But as St. Paul reminds us, “Be firm, steadfast, always fully devoted to the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.”

PRAY Have you prayed The Examen? This Ignatian practice, often at the end of the day, encourages reflection — on God’s presence in our day and the areas where we may have fallen short. We can ask the Lord for forgiveness and the grace to do better tomorrow.

WHAT IS FASTING?

One meal a day, and two smaller meals which if added together would not exceed one full meal

WHAT IS ABSTINENCE?

Abstinence is refraining from eating meat. Meat is considered to be the flesh and organs of mammals and fowl.

DAYS OF FAST?

Ash Wednesday

Good Friday

DAYS OF ABSTINENCE?

Ash Wednesday

All Fridays of Lent

Good Friday

WHO ARE REQUIRED?

Catholics from age < 18 to 59 >

The sick are excused from fasting

WHO ARE REQUIRED?

Mandatory for everyone

One of the many visible traditions and penitential practices observed during the season of Lent, is the complete absence of flower decorations in the church, and from Easter Sunday onwards they are kept again to represent new life with the resurrection of Christ.

So there should be no flowers and plants brought into the Church or Chapel during the season of Lent which begins on Ash Wednesday (March 2) and until after Easter (April 17).

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Human Services

We continue to thank all of you who have been so generous with your donations to the Pantry.

Human Services is always in need of food. Our pantry is low on these items: Peanut butter (16 oz. size), jellies, rice, mac & cheese, canned tuna, canned vegetables including green beans, kernel corn and mixed vegetables, cans of red beans, black beans, and chickpeas. We DO NOT need pasta or cereals at this time. Again, thank you so much for your generosity.

Donations can be left in the baskets located in the vestibules of the church or brought directly to us at Human Services on Mondays, Tuesdays or Thursdays between 9:30 am and 5 pm (we're closed for lunch from 12 noon to 1 pm on those days). Your donations help to feed some of our neighbors!

March			2 Ash Wednesday Take your family to an Ash Wednesday liturgy and wear the cross of ashes all day.	3 Discuss everyone's Lenten sacrifices and make sure they are reasonable but challenging.	4 Whenever someone does a good deed, put a jelly bean in a jar. Enjoy at Easter!	5 Start a Lenten prayer chain. Write 40 intentions on strips of paper. Each day, pray for the intention and add a link.
6 Adopt a Lenten saint to be your family's patron. Learn about them and find ways to imitate their virtues.	7 Place a crucifix or picture of Jesus in a central place to keep the focus on him.	8 Enjoy pretzels, a traditional Lenten food. Originally, their shape evoked arms folded in prayer.	9 Tonight, pray a decade of the Rosary together for the Church.	10 Have everyone choose a daily prayer to offer for your parish priest(s). Send him a card with everyone's promises.	11 Today, give up playing video games and spend time together instead.	12 Bring a box of canned goods, clothing, toiletries, and gently used toys to a homeless shelter.
13 Explain today's homily in a way children can understand. Come up with a family resolution for this week.	14 Peace starts at home. Resolve to say only positive, kind things today.	15 Today, forego a favorite snack for those who can't afford to snack.	16 Talk about what you would say to Jesus if He came to your house to visit.	17 St. Patrick's Day In St. Patrick's honor, light a candle and pray for Catholic missions in other countries.	18 Call Catholic Relief Services (877-HELP-CRS, www.catholicrelief.org ) to see how you can help.	19 St. Joseph's Day St. Joseph protected the Holy Family from danger. Pray for the safety of families around the world.
20 After Mass, light a candle, and recite the Apostle's Creed as an affirmation of faith.	21 Bring cookies to a nearby nursing home.	22 Pray for victims of violence and war in the world.	23 Apologize to someone you hurt. Forgive someone who hurt you.	24 At dinner, have everyone name two things they are thankful to God for.	25 Family Fun Night Instead of watching a movie, pull out a board game or make up your own.	26 In honor of the Holy Family, encourage everyone to do one extra chore around the house.
27 Laetare Sunday Have a special meal at home or a restaurant to celebrate the half-way point through Lent.	28 Take stock of how your Lenten fasts are going, and refresh your commitment to them.	29 Practice patience with each other. When it gets difficult, recall how patient God is with us.	30 Make up thank-you cards for the healthcare workers at your local hospital.	31 Have children draw a heart one way they experience Jesus' love, and on the back, draw how they can show love.	1 April Encourage each family member to perform an examination of conscience.	2 Go to Confession or attend a Reconciliation Service. Then go out afterwards to celebrate forgiveness.
3 At church today, pray for someone who passed away or who needs special help.	4 In today's Gospel, Jesus says, "I am the Light of the world" (John 8:12). Light a candle and pray for world peace.	5 Send a card to someone who might need cheering today.	6 Pray an extra prayer together for everyone coming into the Church at Easter.	7 At dinner, go around the table and share one way you experienced God's love.	8 Today, give up a favorite toy or game, just for Jesus.	9 Take 10 minutes and pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy together. You can find it here: www.usscb.org/prayers
10 Palm Sunday Have a Palm Sunday procession around your house and place the palms around the images of Jesus.	11 This week, try to limit screen time. No texting at dinner, during prayer, and after 10:00 PM.	12 Ask each family member to write a letter to Jesus thanking him for his sacrifice on the Cross.	13 Open the jar of "Good deed" jelly beans and enjoy!"	14 Holy Thursday Today, make a short visit to the Blessed Sacrament in church. Pray for priests.	15 Good Friday Pray the Stations of the Cross today, and meditate on each one.	16 Holy Saturday Dress a doll in a white garment and talk about the Baptismal vows we renew each year.

Stewardship

Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Bulletin Reflection: In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches that we should not be so quick to judge others. We should look at our own sins and shortcomings, and see how we can become closer to God.

Living Stewardship ~ Pillar of Service: This week do something nice for someone in your family. Offer that good deed to God as thanksgiving for all He has done for you.

Prayers to St. Joseph

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To you God entrusted His only Son; in you Mary placed her trust; with you Christ became man. Blessed Joseph, to me too, show yourself a father and guide me in the path of life. Obtain for me grace, mercy and courage, and defend me from every evil. Amen.

Prayer for a holy death

O Blessed Joseph, who yielded up thy last breath in the arms of Jesus and Mary, obtain for me this grace, O holy Joseph, that I may breathe forth my soul in praise, saying in spirit, if I am unable to do so in words: "Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I give Thee my heart and my soul." Amen.

A Prayer for Ash Wednesday

Dear Lord,

As we enter this Solemn and Holy Season, we pray that you would send your Holy Spirit upon us that we might prepare ourselves for these coming 40 days of Lent. Help us to humble ourselves so that we can understand the magnificence of Your Love for us as, You humbled Yourself and gave your Life on the Cross that we might receive the gift of Eternal Glory with you.

Amen.

Mi querida familia de fe de San Ignacio,

Jesús nos advierte: “No juzgues y no serás juzgado. No condenes y no serás condenado. Perdona y serás perdonado” (Lucas 6:37). El Señor nos está recordando que evitemos juzgar a los demás.

En cambio, Él quiere que miremos hacia adentro y nos examinemos a nosotros mismos primero. Las buenas palabras fluyen de un corazón generoso y bondadoso, mientras que las malas y destructivas fluyen de un corazón malvado. Un árbol se conoce por su fruto; ¡De la abundancia del corazón habla la boca!

En el pasaje del Evangelio de hoy (Lucas 6:39-45), Jesús condena nuestros juicios descuidados y precipitados de los demás. Usa los divertidos ejemplos de un ciego guiando a otro ciego; y, nuevamente, un hombre con un tronco clavado en su ojo, tratando de sacar una pequeña mota del ojo de otro. Imagínense estos escenarios. ¡Son irónicos y graciosos!

Cada uno de nosotros ha tenido experiencias de decir cosas de las que después nos arrepentimos profundamente, pero para entonces el daño ya estaba hecho. Aunque podamos revocar nuestras palabras, es posible que el daño o perjuicio inicial no se revierta.

En nuestra familia o en nuestra relación con los demás, a menudo decimos cosas hirientes, solo para arrepentirnos más tarde. Juzgamos a los demás muy a menudo. Nos quejamos de lo que sufrimos de los demás sin pensar en lo que ellos sufren de nosotros. Cuando juzgamos a los demás, hacemos que nuestra reconciliación con ellos sea una tarea difícil”. La Madre Santa Teresa solía decir: “Si juzgas a las personas, no tienes tiempo para amarlas”.

A menudo somos descuidados al decir cosas sin comprender el impacto que tienen en los demás. “La respuesta suave quita la ira, pero las palabras duras despiertan la ira” (Proverbios 15:1). “Las palabras amables son como la miel: dulces para el alma y sanas para el cuerpo” (Proverbios 16:24). Todos somos culpables de no ser amables con nuestras palabras. Hoy, por lo tanto, Jesús nos invita a un cambio de corazón y a una actitud más positiva hacia los demás.

Debemos evitar juzgar a los demás porque no vemos todos los hechos o circunstancias que pueden haber llevado a una persona a hacer algo mal. Nadie excepto Dios es lo suficientemente bueno para juzgar a los demás. Sólo Dios ve toda la verdad y puede leer el corazón humano. Por lo tanto, sólo Él tiene la capacidad y la autoridad para juzgarnos a todos.

A menudo tenemos prejuicios en nuestro juicio de los demás. Por lo tanto, no se puede esperar de nosotros una justicia total, especialmente cuando estamos juzgando a aquellos que nos son cercanos o queridos. No tenemos derecho a juzgar porque tenemos las mismas faltas que el que estamos juzgando y muchas veces en mayor grado. Por lo tanto, sea compasivo.

San Felipe Neri al ver la mala conducta de un borracho comentó: “Ahí va Felipe pero por la gracia de Dios”. Por lo tanto, debemos dejar todo juicio a Dios, practicar la misericordia y el perdón, y orar por la gracia de Dios para deshacernos de toda forma de hipocresía en nuestras vidas. Recordemos la sabia advertencia: “Cuando señalas con un dedo acusador a otro, tres de tus dedos te señalan a ti”.

Pidámosle a Dios Todopoderoso que nos ayude a construir relaciones humanas con palabras positivas, amables y amorosas, y evitemos toda forma de palabras y acciones negativas y críticas. Pidámosle al Señor que nos transforme al comenzar nuestro viaje de Cuaresma este Miércoles de Ceniza y nos dé la gracia de celebrar dignamente este tiempo de Cuaresma.

Padre Francisco

VIII Domingo Ordinario — Ciclo C

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Evangelio del Domingo

Lectura del santo Evangelio según san Lucas.

EN aquel tiempo, dijo Jesús a los discípulos una parábola: «¿Acaso puede un ciego guiar a otro ciego? ¿No caerán los dos en el hoyo? No está el discípulo sobre su maestro, si bien, cuando termine su aprendizaje, será como su maestro. ¿Por qué te fijas en la mota que tiene tu hermano en el ojo y no reparas en la viga que llevas en el tuyo? ¿Cómo puedes decirle a tu hermano: “Hermano, déjame que te saque la mota del ojo”, sin fijarte en la viga que llevas en el tuyo? ¡Hipócrita! Sácate primero la viga de tu ojo, y entonces verás claro para sacar la mota del ojo de tu hermano. Pues no hay árbol bueno que dé fruto malo, ni árbol malo que dé fruto bueno; por ello, cada árbol se conoce por su fruto; porque no se recogen higos de las zarzas, ni se vendimian racimos de los espinos.

El hombre bueno, de la bondad que atesora en su corazón saca el bien, y el que es malo, de la maldad saca el mal; porque de lo que rebosa el corazón habla la boca».

Palabra del Señor

Gloria a ti Señor Jesús
